

THE MATURE PARENT

Defining Child's Nature May Curb Development

Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In her childhood when other children were told they were lazy, talented, stubborn or fat, Mrs. G was told that she was "helpful." When she cleared the dinner table, found her father's eyeglasses, helped her little sister into her high chair, someone would comment admiringly on these services—and her mother would say: "Yes, Cora has always been a helpful child, not always thinking of herself like most youngsters nowadays."

Now Mrs. G as a child did not produce this "helpfulness" out of pure altruism. The truth was, she wanted praise. But because she

Lodge Observes Obligation Night

Obligation night was observed at the stated meeting of Friendship Court No. 11 at the Scottish Rite Temple, Jan. 18, with a large attendance of officers and members and visiting members. Mrs. Phyllis May and William G. O'Connell, royal matron and royal patron, presided in the east.

Wilbur Sherfy of Mirror Court No. 24 of Bend, assistant grand lecturer of the Grand Court of Oregon, was escorted to the throne, introduced and given a hearty welcome.

The following officers were escorted and introduced: Jack Schulze, past grand royal patron of the Grand Court of Oregon; Norman Jones, assistant grand lecturer of the Grand Court of Oregon, both of Friendship Court No. 11; Mrs. Lena Gowedy, Mrs. Ann Sherfy, both of Mirror Court No. 24 of Bend, past royal matrons; Mrs. Blanche Schulze, Mrs. Mary Ellen Gaster, Mrs. Fannie Mae Thompson, Mrs. Emogene Jones, Elmer Vincent, Jim Hunter, past royal matrons and patrons of Friendship Court No. 11; Harold Jones, past royal patron of Wenatchee Court No. 2, Wenatchee; Mrs. Ida Mae Faris, royal matron of Mirror Court No. 24, who introduced her officers, Mrs. Golde Mayne, associate conductress; Mrs. Lena Gowedy, standard bearer; Mrs. Carrie Hofstad, marshal of the west; W. W. Graham, sentinel, and Mrs. Le Neva Graham.

The officers exemplified the work by initiating two candidates, Mrs. Terri Greene and Mrs. Jacqueline Carter. Mrs. Helen Cox was readmitted.

Mrs. Phyllis May, introduced her mother, Mrs. Nellie Ricker of Roxy Ann Court No. 20, Medford, who was present to witness the initiation of her granddaughter, Mrs. Terri Greene.

Mrs. Florence Briggs, sewing chairman, announced that the next sewing session would be at her home, 935 Division.

Mrs. Velma Krause announced that there would be special entertainment for the next meeting by Don Herbig, instructor of the girls "Little Ensemble" of Fremont School.

Wilbur Sherfy complimented the officers on their work and called attention to the unusual occasion when three generations renewed their obligations at the same time: Mrs. Nellie Ricker, mother of Mrs. Phyllis May, royal matron, and Mrs. Terri Greene, new member.

The next meeting will be Feb. 15 and a Valentine exchange. Members are asked to put their names on the valentines.

After the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the banquet room where signs of approaching summer were evident. Tables were decorated with silver baskets of pansies and yellow roses and green and yellow candles. Members in charge of the evening were Mrs. Velma Krause, Mrs. Geneva Swift and Mrs. Zelia Blankenship.

Cadets March In Washington

Merchant Marine Academy Cadets Patrick D. Soran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Soran, and Ted A. Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hodges, marched in the inaugural parade Friday, Jan. 20, in Washington, D.C., in honor of President John F. Kennedy.

This was the fourth time that the Kings Pointers have marched down Pennsylvania Avenue in the nation's capital. Fifteen buses transported the cadets from Kings Point, Long Island, to Washington, where they were housed at the Anacostia Naval Receiving Station.

The two young men, upon graduation in August 1964, will each receive a Coast Guard license as third assistant engineer in the Merchant Marine, a Bachelor of Science degree and a commission as Ensign in the Naval Reserve.

Lodge Plans A Smorgasbord

MALIN—Sunday, Jan. 15, the Mary Victorin, Anna Polvika, Martha Brothnek, Amelia Cacka, Frank Victorin, Frank Paygr, Vaclav Kalina and Marie Jackson. A potluck dinner was served at 1 p.m. The remainder of the afternoon was spent dancing to the music of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bunnell.

Business meeting was conducted by Atonia Smidl, vice president, in the absence of President Amelia Cacka. Committee reports were heard. There will be no February meeting. Instead, in March, a smorgasbord will be served. The main course will be Bohemian Jaternice (sausages) served with sauerkraut, baked potatoes, rye bread and the traditional Czech pastries. The jaternice will be prepared ahead at the home of Mildred Rajnus. Those assisting will be
