

4-H NEWS

PIONEER SHEEP CLUB
 The first meeting of the Pioneer Sheep Club was held at the Sandusky home on the Keno Highway Monday, Jan. 16.
 The meeting was called to order by our two 4-H leaders, Charles Sandusky and Charles Payne. Plans for the future year were discussed.
 Officers elected were Caroline Kerr, president; Larry Nauta, secretary; Terry Sandusky, vice president; Danny Riggs, news reporter; Gary Nauta, sergeant at arms, and Randy Riggs, social leader. Two other members, Ronnie Sandusky and Eddie Riggs, were present.
 Danny Riggs, News Reporter.

MERRILL
 The "Singing Machines," met Tuesday, Jan. 17, for election of officers.

Judy Hayes was elected president; Marsha Haskins, vice president; Judy Cuddy, secretary; Nancy Haskins, song leader; Marie Murphy, social chairman; Edith Simpson, game leader and Carolyn Eagle, news reporter.
 Learning the parts of a sewing machine and how to operate it was the project for this meeting.
 Carolyn Eagle, News Reporter.

MERRILL
 The combined 4-H Clubs of Merrill met Jan. 11 for the presentation of membership pins and cards and scholarship awards to the members of each club.
 Bill Falvey, sheep club leader, served as master of ceremony. A local bank is responsible for all membership pins and cards received by over 85 members of Merrill clubs and all other 4-H members in the state.
 John Venard presented the pins to the Merrill clubs.
 Also receiving recognition and pins were the leaders of the clubs. First year leaders were Mrs. Jack Hayes, Glenn Hummelt, Mrs. Dale Moore, Mrs. Roy Field and John Venard. Those completing two years were Mrs. Orville Elfert, and Mrs. Glenn Hummelt. Bill Falvey, Mrs. E. L. Dick and Dick Reeves received three-year pins.
 Completing four years was Mrs. Vera Johnson. Mrs. Lou Hill and Mrs. Randall Pope received their six-year pins. Receiving an eight-year pin was Mrs. Charles Cunningham.
 Marvin Retherath received a 10-year pin and Ray Bolson an 11-year pin.
 Leaders pins were furnished by a bank.
 A potluck dinner preceded the presentation.

Grange News
MIDLAND
 Purchase of new card tables and 25 chairs was the order of the day at the Midland Grange regular business meeting Wednesday, Jan. 18.
 The meeting was opened with the presentation of the flag by Guy Galetti, assistant steward; Verda Urback, lady assistant steward, and Ethel Youngren, Chas. The Bible was opened and prayer offered by Chaplain Opal Wareback.
 A resolution was read and accepted by Francis Flowers, persona master. A copy of the resolution was sent to Pomona.
 Master Alex Cammock conferred the obligation to Mr. and Mrs. Jess McVaugh. Derritting members welcomed into the grange were Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, Gladys Morrison and Carolyn Kelly. Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Youngren.
 Cards were sent to members reported on the sick list.
 Mayme Cammock, lecturer, presented the program followed by a watch quiz and inauguration quiz. Laura Walker presented a reading "New Friends." Happy Birthday was sung to Kathryn Smith.
 Verda Urback volunteered to take charge of the scrapbook.
 Plans were made for an open house no-host potluck dinner to be held Feb. 18 at the grange hall.
 Mayme Cammock suggested the grange contribute the proceeds of the card party Jan. 28 to the March of Dimes along with the lecturer and flower funds.
 Following the meeting a no-host potluck dinner was served by HEC chairman, Kathryn Smith, Minnie Andrieu, Florence McVaugh, Mildred Largent and Opal Wareback.
 Emma Phillips and Mayme Cammock will be the hostesses at the next meeting Feb. 1 at 8 p.m. at the grange hall.
BLAINE ARTILLERY TUNISIA (AP)—Tunisian officials charged that French artillery bombarded Tunisia soil near the Algerian border Monday killing four persons, including three women.
 Sadok Mekadem, Tunisian state secretary for foreign affairs, summoned French Charge d'Affaires Raoul Duval and delivered a strong protest.
