

Green Urges Church Action

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., urged American churches Tuesday night to take a more active role in politics.

The congressman addressed the American Baptist Convention's "Convocation on the Mission of the Church."

"When so many of the important issues affecting the nation's welfare are being decided in Congress, it should be one of the church's highest roles to work for — yes, and to lobby for — those causes in which it believes," Mrs. Green said.

Arson Squad Is Called To Probe Roseburg Fires

ROSEBURG (AP) — The state police arson squad Wednesday was called to Roseburg to investigate four fires that broke out here Tuesday night.

Three of the four blazes occurred within an 11-minute period. The fourth was discovered less than two hours later.

All four fires were in a three-block area near downtown Roseburg. A total of 32 city firemen and volunteers fought the fires.

Roseburg Fire Chief Don Starmer issued a request for all citizens to keep a close vigil on unoccupied houses and to watch for persons prowling around garages and other buildings.

William D. Leaton, Klamath, Idaho, Dale M. Bergh, Gresham, Ore., was elected vice president at the closing session of the organization's convention.
