JUDY PEACE... to entertain

Owl Fans Get Treat At Halftime

Oregon Tech basketball fans attending the opening game of the OTI-OCE series tonight are in for an added treat at halftime. More than forty young lovelies from the Thurston School of the Dance's advanced acrobatic class are scheduled to stage a mammoth production during the intermission.

A quartet of soloists are also featured on the program. Miss Judy Peace and Miss Laura Mosely will perform in specialty routines as will the Barnes brothers, David and Jerry, a pair of brilliant tap-artists.

Ohio State, Purdue Set

By The Associated Press

Mid-term examinations completed at most schools, major college basketball resumes full-scale competition this weekend with seventh-ranked St. John's and ninth-ranked Southern California leading the pack back to a normally hectic schedule.

The St. John's Redmen (10-2), are scheduled at St. Louis tonight, Southern California, which rode its 12-2 record into the Associated Press' top ten this week, entertains Air Force tonight before meeting Denver Saturday night as the major powers return with a whopping program.

Tonight Temple meets Middle Atlantic Conference leader LaSalle, Brigham Young is at Utah State and Richmond plays Southern Conference challenger, The Citadel. Oklahoma City is at SMU, Oregon State at Portland, Denver at UCLA, and Washington at Oregon in non-league pairings also tonight.

Saturday, play breaks out from coast to coast after the relatively quiet last two weeks.

Top-ranked Ohio State (13-0), the only major unbeaten team, tests its 18-game winning streak and its Big Ten leadership against 10th-ranked Purdue in what promises to be a tidy duel between the Buckeyes' Jerry Lucas and the Boiler-makers' Terry Dischinger.

County 'B' Cage Slate Jammed Full

They tangle with the Owls on the Oregon Tech court tonight at 8 o'clock and then wind up the OCC series in an afternoon game beginning at 1:30 at OTI tomorrow.

The Wolves are by far and away the shortest team in the loop this year, tallest man is Jim Bennett at 6-2, but that didn't keep them from scaring the tunic of the Portland State Vikings with a determined press Tuesday night. The Viks eventually won but it wasn't easy.

And if they could snap the Tech win string they would ruin some high Owl hopes for catching up on the leaders this weekend.

With Southern Oregon College idle and the top two, PSC and Eastern Oregon scrapping among themselves at La Grande, a pair of wins over the Wolves would brighten the Owl position considerably.

Coach Bob McCullough's squad is led by high scorer Steve Rankin, although he has only a 9.1 per game mark. The remainder of the first five is composed of Toby Wolf, 5-11, Dennis Spencer, 6-1, Don Habel, 6-0, and Lee Land, 5-10. Bennett is also figured to see a good bit of action. The Wolves have averaged 54 points per game in spite of their small stature, but their opponents have collected an average of 63.6 per cent.

Wally Palmberg's Owl squad seems to be jelling, having found the way to "come back" in the crucial moments.

The Tech starters for both the weekend games are Bob Petersen, Sammy Smith, Bob Cumiford, Norm Johns and Larry Hodgson. Leon Wilson, the club's high scorer, and Hewlett Nash, the number four point producer, will each undoubtedly see work also. Petersen, the number two scorer, followed by Smith, is also the top rebounder.

The Saturday afternoon game, a first in the history of Oregon Tech basketball, was arranged by Palmberg in order that the game would not conflict with the Klamath Union-Medford game set Saturday night at Pelican Court.

Owl season scoring follows:

Viks, EOC Slate Key OCC Series

PORTLAND — Portland State takes its Oregon Collegiate Conference leadership and a four-game winning streak to La Grande this weekend for a key series with Eastern Oregon's high-scoring Mounties.

First place in the OCC will be at stake when the front-running Vikings tackle the second place Mounties. Portland State is pacing the league with a 5-1 record, while Coach Bob Quinn's Mounties have earned their second place standing with a 4-2 mark.

The two weekend rivals are currently the hottest small college teams in the state. PSC has won eight of its last 10 games, including the last four in a row, and Eastern Oregon is unbeaten in its last six outings.

The Viks' nationally-ranked defense will receive its severest test of the league season against the offensive-minded Mounties. Vik Coach Sharkey Nelson considers Eastern Oregon to be the best offensive team in the conference and figures his club will have its hands full against the well-balanced Mountie attack, which features Tom Noel, Larry Applegate, and Pasco Arritola.

Portland State's offensive hopes rest with Bill Turner, 6-5 sophomore center, and Don Bridges, 6-2 senior forward. Turner is pacing the Staters in scoring with 163 points for the entire season and 97 points in six league games, while Bridges trails the sharp-shooting center in both categories, having tallied 154 points over the 14-game slate and 65 counters in loop play.

Unlikely Duo Holds Lead

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Open champion Arnold Palmer and a flock of other par smashing pros were hot on the trail of a pair of unlikely first round leaders today in the San Francisco International golf tournament.

Stocky Charlie Sifford, the only Negro playing on the professional tour, and 240-pound George Bayer, one of the longest hitters in the game, shot six-under-par 65s Thursday over the rain-soaked Harding Park course to grab the opening lead by a single stroke.

Right behind them with 66s were Palmer, the nation's biggest money winner in 1960, Billy Casper, Ted Kroll, Doug Ford, 49ers football quarterback John Brodie and Stan Leonard, the Canadian veteran.

Chasing them at 67 was steady Bobby Rossburg, winner of the Crosby classic at Pebble Beach last week and now playing some of the best golf of his career.

Friday Schedule
Bonanza at Gilchrist; Merrill at Henley; Sacred Heart at Malin; Chiloquin at Bly.

Saturday Schedule
Lakeview at Alturas; Malin at Henley.

If everything goes according to the form sheet there could be some B League position-swapping as a result of games on tap around the county tonight.

Sacred Heart Academy has the toughest assignment. The Trojans face the third place Malin Mustangs on the Malin court and while they can't gain a notch, a loss would cause them to slip one, should the Bonanza Antlers come out on top at Gilchrist in their battle with the Grizzlies.

Malin, with a win, could gain on the second place Merrill Huskies who host the A-2 Henley Hornets, in non-counting action.

The league - leading Chiloquin Panthers should collect their eighth conference win against no losses when they clash with the Bobcats on the Bly floor.

All the games start immediately following prelims slated for the whistle at 7 p.m.

Saturday night the Henley cagers get a second taste of county play when they host the Malin Mustangs while the Lakeview Hornets, presently sharing the lead in the A-2 Rogue League with the Henleyites, travel to Alturas for a non-counter with the Modoc Braves.

The top county scorers follow:

Olympic Ace Awarded Top AP Honors

By The Associated Press

Associated Press Sports Writer Rafer Lewis Johnson, Olympic decathlon champion, world record holder and the man who represented perfection to his teammates, is the athlete of the year for 1960.

Johnson, who beat out his protégé, C. K. Yang of Nationalist China in the grueling 10-event test at the Rome Olympics, was proclaimed the world's greatest all-around athlete after that victory.

And his teammate Lee Calhoun added: "To most of the guys on the team he represents perfection."

Johnson was named today as the Male Athlete of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll by the vote of 256 sports writers and editors throughout the United States. He won out over Arnold Palmer, whose 1960 performances ranked him as the world's outstanding golfer, by a slim margin of 19 points in the balloting.

Johnson will receive the Fraternal Order of Eagles-Frederick C. Miller trophy at a civic luncheon in Milwaukee Feb. 27. He is the first American athlete to receive the trophy in three years. It was won last year by Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, then world heavyweight champion. The year before it was Herb Elliott, the Australian miler.

Floyd Patterson, the first boxer ever to lose the heavyweight championship and regain it, placed third in the voting with 29 firsts and 168 points. Norm Van Brocklin, who quarterbacked the Philadelphia Eagles to the National Football League championship, was fourth with 10 firsts and 141 points.

Johnson, a powerful 6-foot-3 Negro from Kingsburg, Calif., went into the Olympics as an outstanding favorite. Two months before he had bettered the listed world record of the Soviet Union's Vasily Kuznetsov by more than 200 points. He had been chosen as the flag bearer for the American team in the opening ceremony—an indication of the high regard in which his teammates held him.

Owings' 38 Doesn't Help

CHILOQUIN (Special)—Despite 38 fat points scored by Ron Owings the Sprague River cagers dropped an 89-72 decision to the Chiloquin Thunderbirds here Wednesday night. In the prelim the Chiloquin Hunters shaded the Chiloquin Pirates 37-35.

Owings connected for 17 field goals and 4-8 at the foul line to lead his squad to a 19-16 first quarter lead. The SR five held up through the first half which ended 30-24, but the attack sputtered in the third quarter as T-Bird Bob David hit for 12 of his 24 points total to spark the Birds to a 63-50 third quarter bulge.

Jackie Barney was the high man for the winners with 28 off 12 field goals and a perfect 4-4 at the free throw line. Chuck Ruff hit 11 from the floor for an additional T-Bird 22.

The T-Birds return to action Friday night when they host the Warm Springs Magpies in the feature game of a doubleheader which starts at 7 p.m. with a meeting of the Sprague River squad and the Warm Springs Cougars. The twinned will be played in the Chiloquin high gym.

Henley Mat Squad Faces Panther Club

If taking on the big guy all the time while getting ready to mix with the guy your own size has any training value, the Henley Hornet wrestling squad ought to be in great shape by the time the state A-2 tournament rolls around.

Saturday at 2 p.m. the Hornets take on another "big guy," the A-1 Redmond Panthers in a dual meet at Redmond. The northern venture is third set to the Hornets have had with the larger schools of the area. While they have yet to win one, coach Neil Olson feels that his squad has gained invaluable experience in the process.

Burgess' 52 Sets Record In Spokane

United Press International

Gonzaga's Frank Burgess, who already holds more records than a disc jockey, had a pair of new ones in his collection today.

The Bulldog bombardier put on perhaps his greatest show Thursday night as Gonzaga rolled over the Cal Aggies, 123-79, in a wild basketball contest at Spokane.

Burgess connected on 18 of 38 scoring attempts and hit 18 of 17 free throws for 52 points. This total broke the Spokane Coliseum mark of 44 shared by Burgess and Seattle's Elgin Baylor.

His production also topped a 50-point school mark set four years ago by the 7-foot-plus Frenchman Jean LeFebvre.

The 123-point bing was also a Coliseum record.

In other action Thursday night, the West Coast Athletic Conference regained its slipping prestige with a pair of workmanlike victories.

WCAC teams have been beaten several times recently by teams from allegedly lower leagues, but Thursday night Loyola rolled over Nevada, 93-65, while San Jose State belted Redlands, 55-41.

Loyola was paced by Brian Quinn and Jerry Grote, with 29 and 19 points. The Lions, defending West Coast Conference co-champ, now have an enigmatic 8-5 season record. They meet Nevada again tonight.

San Jose State, nation's second toughest defensive team, won the Redlands game on the boards, as they outrebounded the losers 36 to 15. The Spartans were led by Bill Robertson, who tallied 14. Jack Schroeder, outstanding Redlands forward, had to settle for 11 points.

In other action, Ed Johnson had 30 points as Cal Poly of Pomona tripped Orange State, 94-86.

Games tonight are sparse following a general layoff for semester exams.

The last time out the Honkers swarmed over the Big Valley cagers, winning by a lopsided 60-21.

The Honkers are on a six-straight win binge after their lone loss of the season to Lassen midway in the season thus far. Included in their second half win string are a pair of skinny victories over the Klamath County B Malin Mustangs and a 49-38 triumph over the Klamath Union High sophomore Wildcats.

Over the season the Tulelakers have tallied 658 points for a game average of 30.6 while they have allowed their opponents a total of 458 good for a 37.3 per game.

The Tule 'B's have won eight and lost four while talling 453 points at a 37.8 per game clip. The B enemies have tallied 427 for an average of 35.6.

Double Trouble Awaits KU Five

"We've had no trouble getting the kids 'up' for this weekend," said coach Dean White at the close of Pelican preparations Wednesday for a conference series that sees them up against the two toughest clubs in the Southern Oregon Conference, with a grueling journey across the Green Springs and back thrown in.

Tonight the Pels tangle with the Cavemen, always an unruly group on their home floor, in Grants Pass. Saturday night they meet revenge-minded Medford here on Pelican Court. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The doors to the KJ hardwood will open at 5 p.m., at which time general admission tickets, all there are available, will go on sale. Jim Johnson, KU athletic director, announced Friday that there would be no student admissions sold Saturday night.

Klamath fans who plan on being first in line for the general admission ducks won't have to sit around twiddling their thumbs for the main event. Basketball will start at 5:15 when the KU sophomores Wildcats tangle with the Medford Sophomores. At 6:30 the KU Jayvees and the Tornado JV will lock horns, followed, of course, by the varsity hassle.

At 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon Pelican coach Wade Patterson's able freshman crew will tangle with the Hedrick Junior High, Medford, five.

The Pelicans left Klamath Falls this afternoon at 1:30 and plan to eat fast immediately following tonight's Cavemen match, then head back across the hill for a good night's rest before tangle with the Tornado.

What the Grants Pass plans for tonight are remain a secret, but White is hoping they will utilize the four-man zone that they tried against Medford, unsuccessfully, last weekend. The fifth man stayed right with Bob Quinney, but Dick Ragsdale got loose for 27 points.

White pointed out that this was doubtful however, since the Pelicans rely on no one man so heavily as does the Tornado on Quinney.

Viking Selections Include McElhenny

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pro football men are betting the Minnesota Vikings have a better team next season than the Dallas Cowboys of 1960.

The obvious gag, of course, is that the Vikings wouldn't have to be much better to surpass the Cowboys' record of 11 defeats and one tie.

However, considering the first 30 experienced players the Vikings selected Thursday from 10 other National Football League teams to complement their 20 college draftees and quarterback George Shaw, football men attending the league meetings this week feel Minnesota should win a few games next season.

The Vikings' selections from the last two teams — the Chicago Bears and Pittsburgh Steelers — were due to be announced today.

List of Players

Here is the list of the first 24 players chosen from lists of eight submitted by each club in the league except Dallas (with positions abbreviated):
