

Prominent Tulelake Pair Wed In December Rites

Members of two well known Tulelake families were united in marriage Dec. 28 at Holy Cross Catholic Church in Tulelake. At 10 o'clock Patricia Kay Schwabenland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schwabenland, became the bride of Daniel John Kelleher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelleher, in the double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. C. F. O'Connor.

Red poinsettias on the altar carried out the holiday decor. White ribbon bows with holly and red carnations marked the pews along the white carpeted aisle.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her gown of gros de landree was made with snug fitting bodice with a scoop neck, line cut square in the back. Self material fashioned the half bow which accented the side draped full skirt which was styled with a pleated bustle in back sweeping into a chapel train. The veil of Angela and Peter Schwabenland, the bride's brother.

Altar boys were Richard Smith, cousin of the bridegroom, and Monte Seus.

Josephine Tschirky was the organist and also the accompanist for Mrs. Tom Hall, soloist.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schwabenland chose a sheath dress of olive green peau de soie with matching jacket and shoes. A flowered hat was in shades of green and beige and her accessories were beige. A golden tone cymbidium orchid was her corsage.

Mrs. Kelleher selected a garnet silk sheath with self fabric bow at each shoulder and matching silk and velvet bow hat. Her corsage was a pink throated white cymbidium orchid.

The reception following the ceremony the fairgrounds building was decorated in the seasonal theme by Mrs. Dale West. A red cloth covered the buffet table which was appointed in silver and lighted with tall tapers.

The all white tiered wedding cake, encircled with red and white carnations, centered the bride's table which was covered with white linen.

The punch table, also white clothed, was decorated with red carnations, white chrysanthemums and candles. Pouring the punch was Judy Main.

Sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Richard Pieser and Mrs. Gottlieb Bauer, served the cake and Mrs. Gwin McCracken and Mrs. Ray Phillips, coffee and tea.

Gifts were received by Mary Kay Walsh and Sheila Walsh, cousins of the bridegroom from Seattle. Sonja Lea attended the guest book.

The new Mrs. Kelleher's going-away suit was black and white wool with long belted jacket. She completed her outfit with a black moline beehive hat, black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Fashion Flair

By TERRY MAYER

You know how a singer like Ethel Merman gives a song "everything she's got." In buying fashion give it all you've got. Give a new outfit an air by the way you walk. Treat it to elegance by carefully choosing accessories for it, to make a pleasing color story.

Take time. Don't select accessories at the last minute. Give yourself extra time to dress, and look better than if you rush into a new dress, and find you have nothing to wear with it. Dress-rehearse in front of a mirror, and then you're really ready for the big show!

CHURCH BENEFIT

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Virgil Boomer, and Mrs. Hovey Roberts were hostesses for a card party for the benefit of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church at the parish hall on Jan. 14.

Women's high prize went to Mrs. Art Struve; men's high to Jack DeVaul, and traveling to Mrs. Homer Roberts. Refreshments were served at the close of cards.

Area returning to make their home in Tulelake.

Both young people are graduates of Oregon State College. Mrs. Kelleher was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Her husband was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. He is presently engaged in farming operations in the Tulelake area.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was served to members of the wedding party and guests at the home of the bride's parents.

Before her marriage the bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. A. O. Roenicke and Virginia Roenicke at their home in Olene.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. May Robinson of Watsonville; Mrs. Violet Pieser, Salom; Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman, Modesto; Dr. and Mrs. Albert Roenicke, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Coyner, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas, San Francisco; Mary Griswold and Janet Aydelott, Los Altos; John Day, Bakersfield; Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Bauer, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pieser, Arleta; Sonja Lea, Medford; Duane Goodman, Medford; Judy Adams and Fife Quisenberry, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Walsh, Mary Kay, Casey and Sheila, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Merit Smith, Margaret and Richard; Msgr. T. P. Casey, Father Austin J. Cribbin and Richard Walsh, grandfather of the bridegroom, all of Klamath Falls; Judy Main of Palm Springs.

BIRTHDAY FETED

Leonard Seaton of Klamath Falls was honored on his 65th birthday Tuesday by friends and relatives. Among the 21 guests were the Rev. Effie Shelby, founder for the Youthful Soldiers for Christ, and the Rev. Virgil Henderson, who showed a religious film.
