

GINNY LYNN DOAK was installed Jan. 21 as worthy adviser of the Chiloquin Assembly of Rainbow for Girls. —Photo by Ferebee

Rainbow Girls Seat Officers

CHILOQUIN — "Hawaiian Paradise" was the theme for the public installation of Ginny Lynn Doak as worthy adviser for the Chiloquin Assembly of Rainbow for Girls Saturday night, Jan. 21. A mural of Diamond Head dominated one wall, travel posters another, and the west wall was ablaze with flowers, ukuleles and leis. A fountain set amidst greenery and yellow flower arrangements decorated the east.

In the dining room a clever Hawaiian village centered the table. The punch bowl was set into a Hawaiian straw container and a large cake represented a pineapple. Bright color and flower arrangements were used throughout the rooms.

Crowning the worthy adviser was John Gober, master councilor of Lost River Chapter of DeMolay, who was assisted in the ceremony by Bob Chapman, Mike Beymer, Dick Johnson, Kent Gooding, Bill Taylor and Gary Fuller.

Worthy associate adviser was Cherry Wolff; charity, Barbara Nicholson; hope, Donna Kircher; faith, Donna Robinson; recorder, Kathy Peters; treasurer, Marjorie Kirkpatrick; chaplain, Karen Jenkins; drill leader, Judy Adamo. Color stations installed were Bobbie Winston, Sandra Taylor, Sharon Zamudio, Sherry Lough, Rita Kirkpatrick, Candace Freid, Observers are Micki Wolff and Karen Zamudio; musician and choir director, Faith Wright and Regis Wagner.

New mother adviser for the group is Myrtle Myers, replacing Dorothy Stanley, who will still be on the board. Father adviser is Robert Wood, Chairman of the board is Virginia Zumbur; secretary is LaDean Lough, and other board members are Dr. and Mrs. Earl Harris, Margaret Wood, Elita Hall and Rosalie Hoback.

Entertainment, all based on the Hawaiian theme, were songs by Mrs. James Leggett, hula by Mrs. Robert Oates, pantomime by Donna Kircher and Diane Haas. Refreshments were served following the installation and a formal dance was held for the Rainbow Girls and their guests.

Dad-Daughter Banquet Held

CHILOQUIN — One hundred fifty persons attended the eighth annual dad and daughter banquet given Thursday night, Jan. 19, at the Masonic Hall by the Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls and Horizon Girls of the Chiloquin and Fort Klamath area. Six organized groups of girls participated from second graders through seniors in high school.

Table decorations were planned by each group. Themes were bluebirds on snow covered shrubs, the 50-year celebration of Camp Fire, Indian symbolism with tepee and a lakeshore scene, and the trip to the New York Golden Jubilee Convention.

Entertainment consisted of group singing, a special song by the Fort Klamath Camp Fire Girls, and the showing of pictures taken on the trip to New York by some of the Horizon Girls last fall.

Special guests included Mrs. Naomi French, executive director, and Mrs. Dollie Moore, field director of the council. Invocation was given by the Rev. Fr. Simard. Mothers served in the kitchen.

NEW MEMBER
ETNA—Martha Allen was initiated into Fawn Theta Rho Girls Club No. 63 at the Jan. 19 meeting, conducted by Mildred Martin, vice president. Ten members present made plans for raising money to send delegates to the assembly. Games and refreshments completed the evening.