50c discount

Let Klamath's Top Salesman Work for You!

The Herald and News ad writer will be glad to help you word your ad . . . then it works long, hard and diligently to get results for you. It makes thousands of calls, does it in a matter of hours and spreads the word that you have something to sell, to buy, to rent or to trade. It has demonstrated repeatedly that it can sell practically anything from a used baby carriage to an investment in property. The cost? Very low, as you can see from the rates given here.

Message Is Due Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will send Congress a special message Thursday on the administration's program for recovery from the recession which he says has prevailed the last seven months.

Next Monday he will send another special message to the Capitol—on the balance of payments problem and the related flow of gold out of the United States.

Kennedy's plans were announced at the White House by House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., after the President's weekly meeting with Democratic congressional leaders.

Rayburn told an informal news conference that Kennedy now is planning to send from seven to ten special messages to Congress during the next few weeks. These will deal with specific problems and programs which the President sketched in broad terms in his State of the Union message Monday.

Political Widow Given A Divorce

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Attractive Lucille Lynn Alger was granted a divorce from Rep. Bruce Alger, R-Tex., Monday after testifying that she was "a political widow" who was "married to a briefcase."

Mrs. Alger, 38, a former model, said she had received cruel and harsh treatment from the 42-year-old congressman. She told newsmen that one reason for the divorce was an attempt by Republicans to groom her husband for vice president.

"Republican Party leaders didn't think I had enough education and family background to be a vice president's wife," she said.

Alger, a Princeton graduate, is Texas' only GOP congressman.

Attorneys said the settlement provides for Elizabeth Antoine, 62, of Dallas—Mrs. Alger's mother—to retain custody of the couple's three children.

Injuries Fatal To Town Mayor

SALEM (AP) — The mayor of the Willamette Valley town of Harrisburg died in a hospital here Monday night from injuries suffered when his car was hit by a truck at the northern outskirts of Corvallis earlier in the day.

James Jacobs, 68, was northbound in his car when the accident occurred.

Gerald Smallwood, 27, Tidewater, Ore., the truck driver, said he was behind the automobile when it pulled onto a shoulder, then veered suddenly back onto Highway 99W. Smallwood said he did not have time to avoid the collision.

Jacobs suffered head and chest injuries and was first taken to a Corvallis hospital. Later he was transferred to Salem Memorial Hospital.
