

Candidates For Trip To Be Tested

Janet Owens, 19, and Toby Schuh, 17, will be interviewed at Salem Feb. 3 as Klamath County candidates for a trip to National 4-H Club Conference in Washington, D.C., April 22 and 23.

They were selected on basis of outstanding activities in 4-H Club work. Her specialty during her nine years of club work has been clothing and foods. She was a delegate to 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in 1959 for her accomplishments in the foods project.

His interest has been the 4-H entomology project in his nine years of club membership. He has won several honors, including a state fair championship, with his extensive insect collection. Electricity, woodworking and junior leadership have also held his interest.

Oregon will send four delegates to the national conference. The purpose is to give 4-H'ers an opportunity to learn more about the nation's history as well as to become more familiar with
