

OWC To Stage Benefit Party

Kingsley Field Officers Wives Club invite women of the Klamath Basin to a benefit dessert and card party on Thursday, Feb. 9, at the Officers Club.

Mrs. Mary Murphy and Mrs. Dorothy Reed, co-chairmen, have planned an unusual dessert to be served at 1 p.m. before the afternoon play.

Guests are asked to arrange for their own partners. Tables of canasta will also be in play.

Serving on the committee will be Mrs. Nancy Abel, Mrs. Thelma Bratton, Mrs. Marge Nelson, Mrs. Donna Wood and Mrs. Kay Gruye. Proceeds from the affair will be used to improve facilities at the nursery school.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Murphy at TU 2-6271.

Home Ec Club Plans Events

YREKA—At the recent meeting of the Greenhorn Home Economics Club plans for this year's activities were discussed. The group met at the home of Mrs. Mabel Marx who was assisted by Mrs. Betty Calkins and Mrs. Sarah Rogers. The business session was conducted by Mrs. Haldis Ralston, chairman.

It was decided to present pastmaster of Greenhorn Grange, Kenneth Bley, and past Home Economics Club chairman, Mrs. Haldis Ralston, with a gift order for a shrub or tree. This is an annual custom observed by the Home Economics Club.

The meeting was closed with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses.

Fiigi of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Johnson's brothers, Milton Fiigi of Merrill and Bernard Fiigi of Klamath Falls; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fiigi, and their three children and their families were all present. Another brother, Melvin, of Poe Valley was unable to attend.

Ruth Ann Fiigi, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, was in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Carrie Mattson furnished the money tree and helped with the decorations on the gift table.

Other committees for the year will be: visiting, Grace Dearborn and Beverly Roberts; cookie list, Sheryl Keady; greeting cards, Carolyn Dearborn, and card parties, Lois Monroe.

The next meeting will be at the home of Margaret Stevenson on Feb. 23.

Grace Dearborn won the special prize.
