June Roland, former psychology instructor at Klamath Union, took over the reins as dean of girls Jan. 16 from Mrs. Sylvia Tucker for the second school semester.

Mrs. Tucker, who served as newly appointed dean during the first half of school, delivered a farewell message to the girls of the student body before leaving to join her husband, Frank Tucker, former manager of the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce, who moved to California last year.

Junior class members finished ordering their class rings Saturday, Jan. 28, for next year.

Ring samples have been on display for the class of 1962 to examine at a local jewelers. The rings are expected to arrive sometime in May.

Juniors had a wide selection of sizes and colors to choose from this year, including a pin and guard set, miniature, standard and also college sizes in boys' rings, and a dinner ring set for the girls.

Sara Marie McLin, popular senior girl, was awarded the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award recently, according to Mrs. Bernadine Noggle, head of the KU English Department.

She won the award for her leadership, participation in school activities, and citizenship among other things.

She was first nominated by senior student council representatives, then voted on by the senior class, and finally selected out of the top three contestants by the school faculty.

RADAR LAB DESTROYED

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (AP) —A fire of unknown origin Tuesday destroyed the main administration building of the secret National Defense Radar Research Laboratory near here. The two-story building housed most of the laboratory's expensive equipment.
