GIRL SCOUTS HONOR MRS. A. L. GRALAPP

Board members of the Klamath Area Girl Scout Council honored Mrs. Arnold L. Gralapp at a farewell tea on Monday, Jan. 30, at the home of Mrs. R. P. Ellingson.

In keeping with the Girl Scouts' birthday year's theme, "Honor the Past—Serve the Future," all former Girl Scout volunteers in Klamath Falls were the invited guests of the present membership.

Between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, former board members and volunteer workers, instrumental in bringing scouting to the community, visited with members currently engaged in carrying on the program.

The highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of the Girl Scout statuette to Mrs. Gralapp as a token of the council's appreciation for her 18 years of service to Girl Scouting in the community. Over this period, Mrs. Gralapp has served the council in virtually every phase of its work. The perpetuation of Girl Scouting in the community may in a large part be attributed to her sustained interest and efforts in behalf of this organization.

Members of the board of directors who presided at the beautifully appointed tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. Art L. Moore, president; Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. Gordon Loomis and Mrs. Fred Goeller.

Roy Campbells Host Card Party

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell were hosts Jan. 28 to a group of oldtime neighbors who play cards together. Bridge and pinocle were in play with high in bridge going to George Frey, low to E. H. Bentley.

Mrs. Lee Birtwistle took high in pinocle, her husband, low.

The next round will be played at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ott Sr.

COMMISSIONED

MERRILL — Mrs. Esther LeRoy Johnson and Mrs. Willene Moore were commissioned adviser and assistant adviser, respectively, of the Merrill Theta Rho Girls Club at the Jan. 24 meeting. The ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Bea Mattson, noble grand of the Merrill Rebekah Lodge. Rosalind Crockett presided over her first meeting as president.

Toastmistresses Plan Speech Contest

At this time of year members of International Toastmistress Clubs all over the world begin competing at club level for the annual speech contest. Each contestant is given a choice of three titles 24 hours in advance of the time scheduled for the speech. The winner from the club level competes with others from Southern Oregon and Northern California at council level.

Ewauna Toastmistress members heard the rules for this year's contest on Monday, Jan. 23. Donna Journeay presented her contest speech, "TV—Help or Hindrance." Other contestants will be participating at the Feb. 13 meeting.

Presented in the evening's program were Beverly Ellis, who gave the invocation; Norma Gold-Jones, Ellen Breitenstein and Irene Tice.

President Donna Journeay named her committee chairmen as follows: program, E. Vaughan Thieleman; education, Rowena McDonald; press and publicity, Margaret Davies; parliamentary, Romona Smith; membership and hospitality, Marion Miller; community service, Norma Hansen; budget, Carol Whetstone.

Pinocle followed the luncheon.
