

MR. AND MRS. HAL ROTROCK of Orestech announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlene Rae, to Gary Ehrmantrout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete A. Ehrmantrout of Brownsville, Ore. The future bride will be graduated from Klamath Union High School in June. Her fiancé, a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute, is employed at Weyerhaeuser Company. Plans are being made for an early fall wedding.

MR. AND MRS. REYNOLDS MORGAN, 1514 Etna Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Frances, to Gary Leroy Zumwalt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zumwalt of 1739 Kane Street. The bride-to-be will be graduated from Klamath Union High School this spring. Her fiancé, a KUHS graduate, is employed at the Herald and News. The wedding will take place in June.

8 and 40 Meets

Klamath Salon 355 Eight and two children in the Salem hospital to be remembered on special occasions. Mrs. Petersteiner sent stuffed toys to the Denver hospital. Mrs. Lena Stueben, a former member of Salon 355 and now a member of Jackson County Salon 370 of Medford, was a guest during the evening.

A 6:30 p.m. potluck dinner preceded the short business meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Petersteiner, child welfare chairman, read two letters of appreciation from the Salem Tuberculosis Hospital and the Denver Tuberculosis Hospital for the gifts received at Christmas. The salon has been assigned a

HOUSEHOLD PET

To get rid of that film on the family pet's water dish, wipe the dish out daily with damp sponge sprinkled with dry soda bicarbonate.

LEAVE YOUR CARES BEHIND is the delightful suggestion made by the Kingsley Officers Wives Club in its invitation to the women of the Klamath Basin to attend a benefit dessert and bridge party Thursday, Feb. 9, in the Officers Club. Dessert will be served at 1 p.m. followed by bridge and canasta play. Guests are asked to arrange for their partners and call Mrs. Mary Murphy at TU 2-6271 for reservations. Pictured above are those in charge of arrangements. Left to right are Nancy Abel, Mary Murphy, chairman; Thelma Bratton, standing; Margie Nelson, Dorothy Reed, co-chairman; Donna Wood. Kay Gruye was not present for the picture. Proceeds will go toward improvements at the nursery school.

Canton Crater

The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7, held its first meeting with the 1961 officers and president, Lady Helen Blanas, presiding on Thursday, Jan. 26, at the IOOF Hall.

Inspection was conducted by the vice president, Lady Margaret Biden. All officers in uniform practiced with instructions by Lady Frances Munsell, association president.

Officers that were absent at installation were installed by Helen McCormack, installing officer; Frances Munsell, adjutant, and Vera Fritsch, aide. Louise O'Brien was installed as musician and Esther Johnson as guard.

Reports were given on the official meeting and inspection held last November. Plans were discussed for the president's dinner and the meeting to be held at the grand lodge in Pendleton in May, with Lady Frances in charge. The auxiliary will also participate soon in the fund raising project for a hospital bed in the IOOF Home.

A silent auction of many contributed articles was conducted by Lady Helen McCormack assisted by Lady Vera Fritsch for the Family Night project to aid the association.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall by Lady Frances

Munsell and Lady Harriette Estes. Birthday greetings were extended to Ladies Frances Munsell and Sadie Wallace.

WINTERIZE POTS

After bringing house plants indoors for the winter, scrub their porous or glazed clay pots. Use a sponge or brush, dipped in thick soap or detergent suds.
