Home Rites Unite Couple

YREKA — Pine cones, boughs, candles and poinsettias decorated the fireplace in the living room of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Quigley creating a festive setting for the December wedding ceremony when their son, John Harvey Quigley, claimed Betty Helen Mayer as his bride. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Mayer.

The couple repeated their nuptial vows before approximately 40 relatives and close friends, with the Rev. Harold C. Coleman of the Yreka Methodist Church reading the double ring rites.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayer gave their daughter in marriage. For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white lace, fashioned with a bouffant, ballerina length skirt of white lace, and a fitted bodice with short puffed sleeves with a bow at each shoulder.

A white beaded tiara held her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of stephanotis centered with an orchid and tied with white satin ribbons.

Barbara Betts, as the bride's sole attendant, was gowned in pink, fashioned identical to that of the bride, and complemented with white accessories.

Jim Hunter served as best man. For her daughter's wedding, newlyweds cut the initial slice. Guests were registered by Janice Wilmarth.

For traveling, the bride chose a purple wool sheath dress, black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds are both graduates of the class of 1960 from Yreka High School, and both attended the College of the Siskiyous for the fall term. The bridegroom is an employee at the Purty store in Yreka. They are now residing in Yreka.

Arrangements of chrysanthemums and white tapers decorated the bride's table for the reception, which followed immediately after the ceremony.

A two tiered wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Charles Schults, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Cecil Phillips, after the

Dunsmuir Assembly Holds Installation

DUNSMUIR—Patsy Herrin, incoming worthy adviser of Dunsmuir Assembly, Rainbow for Girls, was presented with a Rainbow Bible topped with an arrangement of white carnations as she stepped up to take her vows of office.

The presentation was made by little Jeanie Chiment at installation ceremonies at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple on the evening of Jan. 28. Young Pat McCormick was the Bible bearer for the occasion.

The colors of the evening were blue, white and silver and the theme, "The Rainbow — God's Symbol," was emblazoned across the backdrop behind the worthy adviser's chair.

Carolyn Clark, retiring worthy adviser, served as installing officer. Donna Parsons and Linda Lockart, both past worthy advisers, served as installing marshal and honorary marshal. Other installing officers were Merlyn Bell, recorder; Earline Saunders, treasurer; Vicki Jones, chaplain, and Mrs. Roscoe Kimble, musician.

Other new officers are Darlene Wylie, worthy associate adviser; Christine Graves, charity; Karen Cummings, hope; Judy Murphy, faith; Shirley Beitel, recorder; Kathy Harris, treasurer; Margaret Wilcox, chaplain; Noralyn Caswell, drill leader; Jackie Winters, love; Janet Saunders, religion; Linda Guy, nature; Anna Mae Flannery, immortality; Adele Kenney, fidelity; Lorraine Grenvick, patriotism; Sandra Anderson, service; Diana Girdler, confidential observer; Candy Miller, outer observer; Cathy Gonce, musician.

Mary Ann Miles, choir director. The American Flag tribute was given by Dody Tryor and the Rainbow Flag by Rose Hughes. Dennis Ball and Richard Kelby, DeMolay members, provided the flag escorts. Robert Harris, Rainow Dad, served as host for the evening. Edna Gould was thanked for her service as mother adviser and Vera Parsons was installed as the new mother adviser. The Rainbow Advisory Board, composed of Free Masons and members of Eastern Star, was installed for the ensuing year by Mrs. Selma Porter, past deputy grand adviser. They are Vera Parson, Edna Gould, Elsie Elling, Aetha Guy, Kathleen Graves, Harold Lucero.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Robert Herrin, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Mrs. Robert Caswell, Mrs. Robert Beitel and Mrs. Harold Lucero.

which girl wears CONTACT LENSES?

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And . . . she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.
