We've heard, indirectly, twice from our good friend "the Bonny Scotsman," Bob Bonney, in the last couple of months, not counting, of course, a welcome card at Christmas.

Recently Rex Hunsaker had occasion to spend a couple of days with the Bonney family on a swing through California on a business trip and he reported that Bob, the former Klamath Falls park and recreation director, found his new position as PRD boss in El Cerrito much different from the same post in KF.

And yesterday, through the courtesy of Freida Kemnitzer, who brought in a clipping from the Oakland Tribune sent her by an unnamed friend in the Bay area, we found even further proof that Bob is engaged in an entirely different activity than he practiced here.

Not that what he is doing is any less important than what he accomplished here . . . it's just different.

BOB BONNEY
. . . things are different

In Klamath Falls Bonney was instrumental in establishing many of the current youth athletic activities we accept as commonplace today.

In El Cerrito, Calif., today he gets hooked up with tree-plantings and more park beautifying than he was concerned with in Klamath Falls.

Our parks didn't need trees or beautifying . . . they needed people . . . organized to get the full best use of the facility, and they got them, through Bob's work.

Mrs. Kemnitzer's clipping emphasized the work that Bob had initiated on the parts of the EC townspeople in planting 3,500 pine, eucalyptus and redwood seedlings and the picture enclosed proved Bob was enjoying fruits of his labor . . . but we still would bet that Bonney would like to work more closely with the youngsters and would-be athletes of the community than his El Cerrito job asks.

Bonney was a great people-liker; golden-age, teeners, grade-schoolers, Babe Ruth, Little League, etc. . . and I have yet to attend a major tournament where KF kids were concerned that Bob wasn't present . . . and he is under constant pressure from his own children to come back to Klamath Falls to enjoy our camping, fishing and hunting . . . and who came blame them.

Odds and Ends . . .

Reames Golf and Country Club is blossoming out with a brand new super styled kitchen and club operators Dick and Dean Marks claim they'll be ready to start serving their old friends, and, they hope, a host of new ones Tuesday. The spot is open to the general public . . . they plan a daily buffet lunch to start at 11 a.m. . . . and while you're there you could even enjoy a few holes of golf . . . don't waste this weather.

The Klamath Rifle and Pistol Club is planning a special Jackpot shoot in the club's range at 508 Adams Street Tuesday night at 7 o'clock. Any adult who wishes to join in the fun may do so . . . the registration fee is 50 cents per person.

Oregon Tech has a couple of talented baseball players just waiting for the season to start . . . Bob Yunck and Don Gresdel, both former members of the Klamath Union high and American Legion clubs, are among the many local students and athletes at OTI this year.

Visitors to Eugene last night for the second UO-OSC basketball game got a look at a model of the proposed new Duck stadium. Quite an arrangement . . . turns the parking lots into watch-from-your-car seats. The Webfoots are understandably happy with the manner in which plans are developing.

Plagiarist's Potpourri . . .

According to Murray Alderman, the syndicated NEA scribe, "Norm Van Brocklin didn't get the Eagle coaching job he was promised him a couple of years ago because the outspoken Dutchman made the mistake of expressing his opinions of the Philadelphia bosses vocally." Well, anyway they didn't fire him . . . luckily.

Not too long ago I mentioned McCloymonds High School in Oakland as the West Coast "home" of prep basketballers (Bill Russell's old school). . . . Alderman says that Creighton University coach John McManus pooh - poohs Terry Dischinger, York Larese or Doug Moe as the toughest players his club has faced this season . . . he adds that Paul Silas, 6-7 Creighton frosh from McCloymonds, has 'em all skinned.

It's said that heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson buys the Army boots in which he does his road work six pairs at a time. . . . He must be dragging his feet . . . I couldn't wear out two pairs in three years but then I was better than average at dodging details . . . and too, I sat down every chance I got.

From the desk of Art Litchman, the UO publicist, comes the word that Glenn Moore "continues to get tougher on defense." He shut off Washington's Bill Hanson and Seattle's hot-shooting Dave Mills last week to the tune of a collective six field goals. Teammate Charlie Warren has wiped out some Duck records. He connected on 15 of 31 field goals against Arizona State to better Charlie Franklin's 14 completions and Bob Petersen's 27 shots. Franklin set his mark in 1958 while Petersen's has stood since 1951.

Remember when Slats Gill wouldn't allow any one-handed foul shot shooters . . . get this . . . today there are no less than eight Beavers who use the one-hander, Jay Carty, Jim Woodland, Steve Pauly, Bob Jacobson, Terry Baker, Bill Wold, Gary Rossi and Dave Hayward.

KU Pelicans Ignore Mumps; Whack Crater Comets 78-53

By FLOYD WYNNE
Herald & News Managing Editor

A band of high flying Pelicans proved too elusive a target for the invading Comets of Central Point as they jumped into a lead from the outset and rolled to a 78 to 53 triumph on Pelican Court Saturday night.

Playing without Bruce Brickner, out of action with the mumps, Coach Dean White's squad rolled away from the Comets early and poured on the coal with four Pels hitting in double figures for the night's engagement.

Crater hung doggedly to the Pels throughout the first six minutes of the first quarter with the scoreboard showing a 14 to 10 lead with two minutes left in the stanza.

It was at this point that the game was broken open as Klamath scored 13 points in the next two minutes while Crater got 6.

Ray Taylor hit a two-pointer, Wally Palmberg dropped in two field goals; Gary Patzke converted two free throws and Bob Lapsley counted another two points from the field. Loyal Higinbotham attempted to stem the tide with a jumper for Crater, but Klamath had a 24 to 14 lead, and Central Point was never able to get back to within 10 points.

Palmberg paced the Pels attack with 22 points, followed by teammates Kent Hunsaker with 16, Wayne Dennis 13 and Patzke 12.

KU shot a warm .432 with 28 field goals in 62 attempts, while Central Point was a luke warm .300, converting 18 out of 60 shots.

From the free throw line, Klamath dropped through 22 of 38 trys, and Crater 17 of 23.

Higinbotham and Mike Glines both hit double figures for the invaders with 16 and 12 points respectively.

Palmberg turned in a .583 per cent shooting performance, netting 10 of 17 shots. Hunsaker was right behind with a .545 per cent, shooting six for 11.

Despite the loss of Brickner's six foot seven frame beneath the boards, the Pels dominated both boards, pulling in 56 rebounds to 33 for Lloyd Hoffine's Comets.

Coach White indicated he was "very happy" with the performance of the squad, he used all 12 men, and indicated that Brickner might return to the team in time for next Saturday's Grants Pass game, but he was uncertain whether or not he would be used.

Thus far, he reported, no other members of the squad have come down with the mumps.

Next outing for Klamath will be next Friday at Ashland.

UO On Inside Track After Double Win

EUGENE (AP)—Oregon gained an inside track to an at-large berth in the Far West NCAA basketball playoff by defeating Oregon State again, 71-58, here Saturday night.

Oregon won in overtime at Corvallis Friday night, 58-55.

Oregon State led through the early stages but seven minutes before the intermission Denny Strickland clicked on a three-point play that put Oregon ahead, 23-21, and it stayed in front the rest of the way.

Oregon was up 33-26 at halftime and a scoring spree by 6-4 Charlie Warren in the first 10 minutes of the second half knocked Oregon State completely out of contention.

When Warren left the game for the night with 10 minutes left he had 27 points, 19 of which he scored in the second half when he connected on 9 of 11 field goal tries. At one time he hit six in a row, most of them on driving shots.

For the second straight night sophomore Terry Baker was tops for Oregon State with 17 points, 11 on a perfect mark at the free throw line. His teammate, Bob Jacobson had 16.

Oregon hit on 26 of 57 field goal tries for 46 per cent. Oregon State was 18 for 56 for 32 per cent. Oregon had the rebound edge, 46-37.

The result left Oregon with a 12-3 season record. Oregon State is 11-7.

The basketball crowd, 10,236, was the second largest on record here.

In the eastern sector of the state the Lakeview Honkers, the only league club to drop the Hornets thus far this season, gained second place by whipping the Rogue River Chiefs 72-66 in overtime after bowing 42-41 to the Eagle Pointers Friday night in Lakeview.

In the only other league game over the weekend the Phoenix Pirates stopped the Illinois Valley Cougars 49-42 on Friday night, then both clubs took a night off.

Henley 61, Eagle Point 51

Forward Earl Allbritton had his second hot night in a row, collecting 27 points against the EP five while sophomore teammate 6-7 center Kent Gooding was next with 20.

The Hornets leaped but to a 13-7 first quarter bulge, led 34-18 at the half then slipped to a 42-36 by the close of the third as coach Jerry Johnson substituted freely. The win ended a jinx the Pointers previously held over the Hornets.

The Hornets scored at a .370 clip while the losers registered a .350 from the field.

Allbritton hit eight field goals, three free tosses in the first half and then Gooding took over, to count the bulk of his points while controlling the boards.

The scoring summary:

Eagle Point (51)—Wilson 12, Palm 18, Hoeft 1, Perdue 10, West 7, Hanscom 2, Boatright 1.

A last five second layup by Lakeview's Doug Maxwell got the Honkers out of a 66-64 hole and sent the important test into an overtime period. Teammates Gary Reynolds, Chuck Cossey and Larry Peters each counted a field goal in the extra time and helped to keep the losers from adding any.

Maxwell and Cossey were the big guns for the winners, each collecting 16 points for the night.

Cossey and big Troy McCoy took command of the boards and led the victors to a 41-32 edge in loose ball grabs.

The Honkers led 15-13 at the close of the first quarter, hooked it up 36-all at the half then held a 56-51 bulge at the end of the third. The Chiefs surged ahead late in the fourth but Maxwell spoiled their threat.

KU Juniors Take Crater

Everybody got into the picture Saturday night on Pelican Court when the Klamath Union Jayvees cleared the bench during an easy 69-50 victory over the invading Central Point juniors.

The clubs battled nip-and-tuck during the first half, but the Klamath five managed the first quarter lead, 16-10, and the halftime margin, 30-28. However, after the intermission the Junior Pelicans exploded with a scoring spree that surprised the Comet crew and Klamath rolled on to grab the third period lead, 47-30.

Rich Bogatay earned the high scoring title for the night with 17 points, while teammate Dave Stippich followed up with 11 more. Dale Tepper paced the Comets with 13.

Klamath won the ballgame from the field, hitting 30 two-pointers while the Crater bunch made only 19. Crater took advantage of the free throws, however, dunking 12 out of 20 to a total of 9 for 14 that Klamath tried.

The scoring summary:

Don Fullmer Loses Scrap

NEW YORK (AP) — Undefeated Joey Archer of New York scored his 30th straight victory Saturday night by gaining an upset 10-round decision over middleweight contender Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, in a television bout at Madison Square Garden.

Archer weighed 160¼, Fullmer 157¾.

Referee Jimmy Devlin (7-3) (in rounds) and Judge Frank Forbes (8-2) voted for the New York longshoreman. Judge Leo Birnbaum called it a draw. The Associated Press card had Fullmer ahead 6-4.

The split decision defeat ended Fullmer's unbeaten streak at eight. The 21-year-old loser is the kid brother of NBA middleweight king Gene Fullmer and is ranked sixth in his own right.

Weightman Expecting Long Toss

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Backus got off a toss of 64 feet in the 35-pound weight throw Saturday in the Millrose-Metropolitan AAU meet and promptly announced he was ready to break the 70-foot mark.

Only Hal Connolly has gotten past 70 feet in the event. He smashed the barrier with a heave of 71-2½ in the national AAU championships last year and Backus has been trying to match it since.

"I feel I'm ready to get over 70 feet," said Backus. "There's no reason why I shouldn't. I had a real good throw in Boston a couple of weeks ago that I thought would go over 70 feet, but it missed. I'll get it soon.

"I'm building up to the National AAU meet in two weeks. That's where Connolly and I really go at each other. I'm aiming for a throw of about 72 feet."

When Connolly made his record last year, Backus was second with a 68-2¾ effort.

Owls Split With PSC Vikings; Win 45-43 Overtime Victory

PORTLAND (Special)—Oregon Tech kept faint championship hopes alive here Saturday by turning back Portland State 45-43 in overtime.

The win gave the Owls a split in their two game series with the Vikings and left both clubs tied for second place in Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball standings with identical 6-4 records. Friday's encounter was also an overtime tussle, but the Vikings won that one by a 52-50 margin.

Only two points were scored in the five minute extra session, but they were a mighty important pair of counters. Gene Branson, hard-working Owl forward, hit a long one-hander with 4:35 left in the overtime to give the Owls their eventual winning margin.

The Viks had several opportunities to even the score but missed on three field goal attempts and one foul shot. The Owls blew further scoring chances on a missed field goal attempt by Sammy Smith and an errant foul shot by Branson.

The game was an even-steven affair right from the opening whistle, with the score being tied six times during the first half. The Owls opened up a 23-19 lead with 3:25 to play but the Viks came back with five quick points to earn a 24-23 advantage at the intermission.

Smith was the Oregon Tech spark curing the first half, scoring 11 points, while Ron Saltmarsh paced the Portland State offense with nine counters.

The Owls came back to grab a 28-24 lead at the opening of the second half on baskets by Bob Petersen and Branson and a foul shot by Petersen. The Techmen maintained that lead until 3:25 remained when Saltmarsh hit a two-pointer to give PSC a 41-41 deadlock. Don Bridges put the Staters ahead with a one-hander from the corner at 2:50 and Norm Johns forced the final tie of the game on a driving layin with 2:32 to go.

Each side got one more shot before time ran out. Smith missed a baseline jumper for the Owls at 1:15 and Frank Chase was off the mark on a long one-hander with 7 seconds showing on the clock.

Saltmarsh was the game's top scorer with 16 points while Smith and Branson paced the Owls with 15 and 10 points respectively. Smith snared 12 rebounds to pace OTI to a slight 42-39 advantage.

Shooting percentages favored the Owls .360 to .339. Coach Wally Palmberg's Techmen hit on 18 of 50 attempts from the field, while the Viks were true 19 in 56 tries.

U.S. Netters Give Freed New Chance

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — U.S. tennis fathers gave David Freed another chance as Davis Cup captain today and took new steps toward opening up competition to the pros.

Freed, 51-year-old Salt Lake City financier, was chosen by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association to try to salvage the wreckage of the 1960 campaign which was marked by defeat and controversy.

"Hope springs eternal in the human breast," Freed said. "I debated a long time whether to accept. I welcome the chance to try to win back the cup."

Last year the Americans were beaten in the inter-zone finals at Perth, Australia, by Italy — the first time in more than 20 years they had failed to gain the challenge round—and later the team was criticized for so-called poor sportsmanship.

Two members of that team—Chuck McKinley, 19, of St. Louis and Dennis Ralston, 18, of Bakersfield, Calif.—are under a year's probation for their antics. McKinley, who hurled a racket into the stands at Perth, is under suspension until May 1, 1961.

Yet they are the two key members in Uncle Sam's plans for recovery of lost prestige now that their older teammates, Barry MacKay and Earl (Butch) Buchholz, have turned professional.

Bernard (Tut) Bartzen, 33, of Dallas, served as a sort of co-captain to Freed last year but will not have the same capacity in the 1961 setup.

John McJennett, Harvard breaststroke swimmer, comes from Manila.

Mounts Nip Red Raiders

LA GRANDE (Special)—A jump shot by Larry Applegate with three seconds left gave Eastern Oregon College a 76-74 win over the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders in an Oregon Collegiate Conference battle here Saturday night.

The Raiders, hitting 16 of 20 free throws, trailed 43-31 at halftime and were behind by as much as 15 points early in the second half. But a tremendous rally, aided by a full court press gave the Raiders 74-72 edge with 1:09 left in the game. Tom Neel hit a jump shot with :57 seconds left to tie the contest at 74-all. EOC then worked for a final shot and got it on a jumper from the side by Applegate, with three seconds left.

Henley JVs Unbeaten

Len Weber's undefeated Henley junior varsity made it 14 in a row Saturday night in Henley with a big 48-37 win over the Eagle Point juniors.

Paced by Steve Reiling who ended with the high scoring honors, 13, the Henley crew took the first quarter 12-10, battled on to lead 23-20 at halftime, and busted the contest wide open with a big 35-29 spread at the third quarter mark.

The scoring summary:

Eagle Point JV (37)—Hancom 3, Benson 3, Hoesst 14, Straus 4, Boatright 8, Clement, and Whaley.

Henley JV (48)—Reiling 13, Allbritten 7, Dawson 4, Barrett 1, Thomason 7, Beymer 11, Sanders 4, Blackman 4, Johnson, Gober.

Death Claims Ex-KC GM

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Purke Carril, former general manager of the Kansas City Athletics, died Saturday. Carroll, who was in his early 60s, had not been ill.

Carroll was admitted to Kansas City Research Hospital at 3:30 p.m. and died an hour later.

He was general manager of the Athletics while they were owned by Arnold Johnson. He was replaced this year by Frank Lane when Charles Finley bought the controlling interest from Johnson's estate.

Ohio Staters Score Runaway

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — First-ranked Ohio State, runaway leader of the Big Ten, trounced Michigan 80-58 Saturday before 6,000 fans and a regional television audience.

The fabulous Buckeyes, now 16-0 for the season and 6-0 in the Big Ten, dispatched the conference cellar dwellers with an adding machine-offense in which three starters scored in double figures and the team shot at a 55 per cent clip.

Ohio State hit 33 of 60 field goal attempts.

Mel Nowell and John Havlicek each scored 18 points and All-America Jerry Lucas added 17.

Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor pulled his regulars with 9:10 to go in the second half and the Buckeyes leading 70-41.

Broncos Nab Non-Looper

PAISLEY (Special)—The Paisley Broncos nailed their second win over the Gilchrist Grizzlies by edging them 37-35 here Saturday night.

The victory did little to prove the worth of either club. It was an off night for each.

Pat Swearinger netted 17 for the winners to barely nose out the Grizzlies' Gerald Warren, who had 16.

At the quarter it was 10-all but Gilchrist slipped out to a 20-13 halftime lead and the Broncos came back to tie it up 35-all at the third stop.

In the prelim the Gilchrist Jayvees paced by the 12 points of Jim Lash collected a 24-16 win.

The scoring summary:

Gilchrist (33)—Hazlewood 4, Hill 7, Warren 16, Eriksen 2, Elms 2, Harris, Hoff.

Paisley (37)—Pennington 8, Bourbrook, Ivey 7, Swearinger 17, Young 5, Emery, Beechler, Clark.

Linfielders Down Pacific

FOREST GROVE (AP) — Linfield moved another step closer to the Northwest Conference basketball campionship Saturday night by downing Pacific 75-59.

Linfield, the conference leader, played without the services of Bill Wallis, who was sidelined with a sprained ankle.

Pacific took the lead in the early stages, but Gene Carlson sank two free throws and Dan Williams added two baskets and after that Linfield was never headed.

Linfield's Bob Close was high scorer with 16 points. Bill Davis and Leon Johnson led the losers with 12 each.

NBA Eyes New Champ

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The National Boxing Association will have a new light heavyweight champion Tuesday night, and the odds are 2-1 he will be Harold Johnson of Philadelphia.

The 32-year-old warrior takes on 23-year-old Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis in a 15-round bout at Convention Hall with the winner to be recognized as successor to the venerable Archie Moore, from whose brow the crown was removed by the NBA for failure to defend the title within what was considered a reasonable time.

The veteran and skillful Johnson, four of whose eight defeats were suffered at the hands of Moore, is considered by critics to pack too many guns for his youthful opponent, who jumped into the title picture through a decisive victory over Willie Pastrano.

The New York Rangers lost nine of their first 37 games this season by the margin of one goal.

Rinaldi Next Says Fugazy

NEW YORK (UPI)—Promoter Humbert (Jack) Fugazy Saturday named Giulio Rinaldi of Italy the challenger for Archie Moore's light heavyweight title at Madison Square Garden, May 27, if Rinaldi can come to terms.

Fugazy of Feature Sports announced that Erich Schoeppner of Germany "is definitely out as far as Feature Sports is concerned because he failed to meet the deadline for terms yesterday."
