Party Fetes Newlyweds

MERRILL—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Day were honored at a wedding reception Jan. 28 in the Merrill Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Day is the former Glenda Story, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Story. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arden Newell of Jefferson, Ia. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Troy Qualls, Mrs. Wendell Moore, Mrs. John D. Moore, Mrs. Roy Beasley, Mrs. Herman Rippey, Mrs. Wilbur Haskins, Mrs. Ernest Watts, Mrs. Warren Ochs and Mrs. Merle Cahon. Over 80 friends signed the guest book which was attended by Mrs. Vern Young. Gifts were received by Mrs. Johnny Rodgers and Karen North. A beautiful three tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Ernest Wale, Mrs. Warren Ochs, Mrs. Dale Moore and Mrs. Lucky Felt. Pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. Beverly Northrup and Mrs. Don Russell. Mr. and Mrs. Day were married Dec. 12 at Parks Wedding Chapel in Reno. They reside in Sacramento where he is employed as a laboratory technician for Proctor and Gamble and Mrs. Day is associated with Aerojet.

Local Women Tea Assistants

Thursday of each week is a popular day in the capital city of Salem. On that day Mrs. Mark Hatfield is hostess from three until five o'clock at an "at home." Oregon's charming first lady is assisted at these affairs by different legislative wives. Included in this list is Mrs. George Flitcraft, who will assist on Feb. 16, and Mrs. Carrol Howe, who will greet guests on March 9.

CLUB VOTES NEW SLATE

BLY—Members of Bly Women's Club cast their votes for a new slate of officers at the Jan. 25 meeting at the home of Verla Larsen. The new president will be Verla Larsen. To serve with her will be Glenda Zittle, vice president, and Barbara Rentle, secretary. Plans were made for a March of Dimes food sale to be jointly sponsored by organizations of the community. The sale will be Feb. 10 starting at 2 p.m. in the barbershop in Bly.

NEW CLUB IS FORMED

Women of the Rocky Point District met recently at the home of Mrs. Susan Williams to organize a community club for those interested in such a social group. A vote of the 10 women present resulted in Mrs. Williams being named president. Mrs. Ericka Jungt will serve as vice president; Mrs. Helen O'Neill, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Barbara Poulshock, chairman of entertainment.

Meetings will be held once a month. Any monies raised will be used for community activity. All women of the area are invited to the next meeting, Feb. 15, at the home of Mrs. Peggy Sloan.

Lodge Fetes Past Officers

Cascade Crest Chapter No. 159, Order of Eastern Star, honored past matrons and patrons at the regular meeting Feb. 1 in the Masonic Hall in Chiloquin. Pauline Harris and Dwight Kircher, worthy matron and patron, conducted the meeting.

Escorted and introduced were Virginia Zumbun, member of the special projects committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Martha Powell, grand representative of West Virginia in Oregon; Georgianne Clark, grand representative of Alberta, Canada, in Oregon; Edna Hunnicutt, grand representative of Washington in Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kalina, worthy patron and matron of Prosperity Chapter in Malin. Doris Kircher, installing matron, inducted Josephine Zidina as conductress and Pearl Adams as associate conductress. Nova Sue Harrison was affiliated as a new member.

The past matrons and patrons were introduced and thanked for their past services. Mrs. Ethel Zimmerman responded for the group.

The room was decorated in the red and white Valentine theme. Refreshments were served by Frances Macdonald, Dorothy Stanley and Virginia Zumbun.

Players Club

Members of Players Club enjoyed the annual dinner served by Women of the Moose in the Moose Hall last week. After the cocktail hour and dinner, bridge, and canasta were played.

Bridge prizes were won by two guests, Ollie Pounds, first, and Helen Williams, second. Fannie Gervais was first in pinochle and Bertha Hewitt, second.

MARY LOUISE celebrated her third birthday last Dec. 16. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. George of Route 3. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Kirtley of Malin and Mrs. Dellar Wilson of Little Rock. Mary Louise has two older brothers, Wally, with the Marines in Okinawa; John, in the Navy in San Diego, and a baby sister, Deborah, just 1-year-old.

Layette Shower

MONTAGUE—Mrs. George Mott was recently honored at a layette shower given for her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Young. Co-hostess was Mrs. Jim Hagedorn.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of games, appropriate for the occasion, after which the honored guest opened her gifts, which had been placed in a cleverly-arranged "bassinet."

Refreshments were served buffet style from a table which held a centerpiece of a large pink stork on a revolving turntable, which played a lullaby as it rotated.

CLUB MEETS

MERRILL — Merrill Library Club met Feb. 2 for luncheon at the Sportsman's Hotel in Tulelake. Roma Walker reported on the program for the year. Bon Bazaar will present an Easter fashion show for the March meeting.

Two Observe Golden Date

PAISLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Ewing celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Jan. 22 in the lounge at Rose Villa on River Road in Portland. Honoring them were their two sons, Paul F. and David, and their families.

Carl Ewing was forest supervisor of the Umatilla National Forest prior to moving to Portland from Pendleton 10 years ago.

They were married Jan. 22, 1911, in Summer Lake at the home of Mrs. Ewing's father, Fred Foster. Mrs. Ewing's brother, Guy Foster of Summer Lake, and two nieces, Mrs. Daniel Olin and Mrs. J. S. McNeill of Salem, and their families were among those present at the anniversary event.

Engagement Is Announced

ADIN — Mr. and Mrs. Hugh F. Woodard announced the engagement of their daughter, Colleen Fave, to Roy D. Cauldwell at a dinner given recently in their home.

The future bride is a graduate of Big Valley Joint Union High School and Chico State College. She has accepted a teaching assignment for the spring semester at Red Bluff.

Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Florence Cauldwell, North Long Beach, and the late Clyde A. Cauldwell. He is employed with the Modoc National Forest in the Adin area.

Plans are for an early spring wedding.
