Round About

By HELEN BECHEN
STAY-AT-HOMES are interested, and, probably more than a little envious, with all the news about travelers coming and going. Leaving in a few days for a visit to Hawaii are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Drew. Their headquarters will be the Hawaiian Village. ALREADY enjoying basking in the sun of the Islands are Mary Maxwell, Inez Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henzel, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lucas and Mrs. Mabel Schumacker and Mrs. Viola Gouldin. They all made the trip on the SS Lurline docking on Wednesday. ON HAND to greet the ship were Lucille and Martin Adams, who made a flying trip after at-

AMONG THE GUESTS at the coffee given by Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Lamb were Mrs. Bob Waggoner, left, and Mrs. John Howard. They were served from a lace covered table centered with a bouquet of daffodils. Other spring flower arrangements about the room included one of wisteria, most effective on the piano. Presiding at the coffee table were Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Loren Palmerton and Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson.

MR. AND MRS. JON HOUSTON were guests this past week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston of 1954 Manzanita Street. The young couple was married Jan. 9 in Portland. The bride is the former Helaine Marie Holly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos E. Holly of Dixon, Calif. She has been attending Pacific University where her husband was graduated in January. The senior Houstons entertained for their son and daughter-in-law at a reception Friday, Feb. 3, at Reames Country Club. The newlyweds left Tuesday for San Francisco and Dixon, where they will visit with her parents.

Youth Topics
On Club Agenda

"Emphasis on Youth" will be the theme for the Feb. 13 meeting of the Klamath Falls Library Club, according to Mrs. R. T. Lindley, president. The meeting will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the basement of the City Library. To welcome members and visitors will be Mrs. Joy Walker, hostess chairman, and Mrs. Walter Brown, immediate past president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Tea will be served by Mrs. A. V. McVey and her committee. Mrs. Art Moore, program chairman, will show a 30 minute color film on the first International Girl Scout Encampment at Colorado Springs in 1959. The film, "A Mile High and a World Wide," brings on the scene shots of Girl Scout groups from all over the globe working together, living together, and playing together. This program is of special interest to all Library Club members as the giving of camper-

The sleek sheath takes on a stately air here, tailored to perfection in a bevy of flattering shades. Touches to note: the small neat collar, the button tabs, the marvelous figure-molding lines. Linen-texture rayon in green, violet or maize. Sizes 12 to 20, 14½ to 24½.

The sophisticated flavor of this unusual bamboo print, fashioned for pure flattery in a reedlike sheath of dramatic simplicity, makes it a traffic-stopper wherever it takes you. Linen-textured rayon in bewitching combinations of green/white or royal/white. Sizes 12 to 20, 14½ to 22½.

The brilliant flash of white atop this narrow linen-textured rayon sheath is designed to heighten and slenderize miraculously. Worth a king's ransom; the well tailored touches evident in the removable bib, brief sleeves, slimmest of skirts. Navy, black or toast. Sizes 12 to 20, 14½ to 24½.
