Trail Riders Have Dinner

YREKA — Valentine trees and arrangements of red carnations decorated the dining tables at the Shamrock Cafe on Feb. 7, for the valentine dinner party of the Yreka Trail Riders.

Decorations were made by Ruth Barklow and her committee, Helen Hammerley, Alice Newton, Fern Meamber, Molly Kleaver, Ida McCarger and Helen Crebbin.

Ruby Young, president, conducted the business session which followed the dinner. Ann Shipman, drill captain, advised the members that plans were being made for a spring horseback ride in April.

Jean and Jane Meamber showed colored slides taken on their European trip last summer. Narration accompanied the showing of the slides by the sisters who were attractively dressed in native costumes which they had purchased in Austria.

Delegates Elected At Eulalona Chapter DAR Feb. Meeting

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, met Monday evening, Feb. 6, in the Fireplace Room at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church. Dessert was served at 8 p.m. preceding the calling of the business meeting. Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. Raymond Hall and Mrs. Elizabeth Norris.

Mrs. Julian Agor, regent, read the call to state conference which will be held in Portland March 2, 3 and 4 at the Sheraton Hotel in the new Lloyds Center. Conference plans for this year will be especially gala due to the presence of DAR's president general, Mrs. Ashmead White.

Eulalona Chapter DAR Feb. Meeting

Fourteen delegates and their respective alternates were elected by the chapter, but all members were urged to attend any sessions possible. Guests of DAR members will be most welcome, especially husbands, at the opening session, Thursday, March 2, at 8 p.m. and at the banquet Friday night at which time the president general will deliver her address.

The 70th Continental Congress will be held in Washington, D.C., April 14 - 19 and representatives were elected for this important conference. Planning to attend for Eulalona Chapter are Mrs. Bert C. Thomas and Mrs. Arch O. Proctor.

The February meeting marked the halfway point in terms for present officers of Eulalona and year-end reports were presented by chapter officers. Committee reports have been filed with state chairmen.

It was decided to contribute financially toward sending the district Good Citizen winner to the state conference, District No. 3 chairman, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, was so notified and will contact other chapters in the district.

February as history month received special recognition by the chapter and awards for the historic Waterways essay contest will be made soon to the three schools participating, Alamo Junior High, Fremont and Sacred Heart Academy.

Mrs. Agor stated that scrapbooks for the years 1937 to 1960 were being displayed on a special shelf in the city library. They have been kept by various chairmen through the years and are of much interest, especially in so far as local history is concerned. Mrs. R. E. Wright, present chairman, was commended for her vigilance in keeping them in a good state of repair.

Mrs. Raymond Hall gave the national defense report and distributed literature received from DAR's national defense chairman.

Mrs. Phillip Brixner was in charge of the program arrangements for the evening and showed slides on Hawaii. Over a period of years Mrs. Brixner has spent considerable time in the islands and had some unusual and fascinating facts to accompany the presentation of her pictures.

The next meeting of Eulalona Chapter will be March 6 at the home of Mrs. Roland E. Wright and will feature the story of the dwindling gold supply.

ORIONS CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of Orions Club was held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 7, at the new home of Mrs. Virgil Koehn. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Neil McEachern. Devotions were given by Mrs. John Weber. Members answered to roll call by telling of an interesting place they had visited. The special prize was awarded to Mrs. Charles York.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Koehn and Mrs. Robert Pryor. The table was attractively decorated in the valentine theme.

Members present were Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Myron Murray, Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. James Sweet, Mrs. Jack Paddock, Mrs. Carl Pernigotti, Mrs. Al Nanneman, Mrs. Neil McEachern, Mrs. Richard Teater, Mrs. Charles York, Mrs. Joe Wachter, Mrs. Virgil Koehn, Mrs. Robert Pryor, Mrs. Preston Card, and guests Mrs. Micael Wirts and Mrs. Donald Hoffman.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Teater on March 7 with Mrs. James Sweet as co-hostess. The annual white elephant sale will be held at this meeting.
