Extension Home

Two more units, Chiloquin and Keno, had lessons on fabric identification this past month. Mrs. Jack Brandon of Fairhaven Unit presented the lesson to the Keno women.

Chiloquin Unit met at the home of Donna Fitzpatrick on Feb. 2 with 10 members and two guests present.

The Keno Unit met at the home of Mrs. Wayne Davison on Jan. 11. Secret pals of the past year were revealed and new names drawn. Members voted to have two money making projects this year, coffee hours and a traveling basket. The first coffee was at the home of Mrs. Robert Lynn on Jan. 16. Mrs. Guy Moore started the traveling basket. Joe Searles will speak to the Keno Unit in February.

Parent-teenage relationship was the lesson presented at the Feb. 3 meeting of Conger-Fairview Unit by Mrs. Harold Hayes and Mrs. Joe Beaver. Selected for the nominating committee were Mrs. John Mathews, Mrs. Lynn Hayes and Mrs. Harold Hayes. Mrs. John Kloiber and Mrs. William Moore briefed the members who will be taking the tailoring workshop.

Lindley Heights Unit met Feb. 8 for an open meeting. Tatting was taught by Mrs. Velma Mitchell. Mrs. Kathryn Billings of the advisory committee asked the unit to staple programs for the spring festival.

Helen Owens, 4-H chairman, reported on Don Owens' trip to Salem to watch the legislature in session. Safety chairman, Mrs. Helen Wardle, stressed the use of safety seat belts.

Mrs. Kathryn Billings and Mrs. Helen Owens explained the program planning for the year. Special prize was won by Mrs. Billings. Hobbies and fancy work done this past year were displayed. Mrs. Lauralie Barrett designed the Valentine centerpiece for the potluck luncheon.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Advisory Committee met at Joan's Kitchen Feb. 6 with Beulah Kloiber, Ruth Dyer, Margaret Fruerer, Mildred Cooper, Mildred Marten, Eula Prough, Pansy Jackson and Kathryn Billings present.

Ruth Dyer gave her report for the month. The committee attended the program planning meeting.

Mrs. Roberta Frasier presented the lesson on parent-teenage relationship, which will be the subject for March meetings.

One hundred fifty three women are registered to take tailoring workshop in February and March.

A letter was read from a former committee member, Marion Pratt, now residing in Vantage, Wash.

A communication from Mrs. E. H. Alston at Oregon State College announced the mid-winter state council meeting May 2, 3 and 4.

Pansy Jackson was nominated as state second vice president from Klamath County.

The next program planning meeting will be at the County Library instead of the fairgrounds.

The theme chosen for the festival on April 27 is "Communications - A Two Way Street." Mrs. Roberta Frasier will be the main speaker.

MRS. LAVERNE SMITH serves A. C. Olson, center, principal of Ferguson School, and Jim Mosley, Ferguson Parents and Patrons president, spaghetti as a preview of that to be served at the spaghetti dinner Friday evening, Feb. 17, in the school gym. The public is invited. Serving will be from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m.

Couple Note Golden Date

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sampson observed their 50th wedding anniversary Jan. 14 at their home in Springfield. Leonard Sampson and the former Mary Smith were married in 1911 at Fargo, N.D., and spent the first years of their married life in Nebraska, coming to Portland in 1925. They moved to Klamath Falls in 1929 and he became employed by Lamm Lumber Company. They were local residents until his retirement in 1952 when they moved to Springfield.

Mrs. Nellie Smith, sister-in-law of Mrs. Sampson's, made the party arrangements assisted by Mrs. Margaret Sheard, a cousin. Lovely floral pieces were sent for the occasion by Mrs. Sampson's nieces, Mrs. Dorothy Giles of Vancouver, B.C., and Mrs. Phyllis Farrell of Creelman, Sask. Relatives of Mrs. Sampson's present for the occasion included Mrs. Nellie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith and Wesley, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Fisher, Redding, and Mrs. Margaret Sheard, Springfield.

On Leonard Sampson's family side were Ethel Skinner, Sun Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCloud, Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jack Juzeler and Scotty, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Richard and RaeAnn, field, and Larry McCloud, San Darrington, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Diego.

MR. AND MRS. LEONARD SAMPSON observed their golden wedding anniversary Jan. 14 in Springfield, their home since 1952. From 1929 until his retirement the couple were residents of Klamath Falls.
