CHAMPAGNE was served to Reames Country Club members, who on Sunday attended the open house marking the year's opening after renovations in January. A large crowd of members, both old and new, visited during the late afternoon and stayed for the buffet supper served from the new kitchen, major club improvement. The committee for the affair included Dr. and Mrs. Robert Harrahill, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cavanaugh. Shown above, left to right, are Rodney Murray, Mrs. Harrahill, Mrs. Larkin and Mrs. Murray.

PARTY CHAIRMAN Dr. Robert Harrahill, right, is ready and waiting for a piece of pie being cut by Dick Marks, club manager, with the assistance of Barney Cavanaugh, committee member. Scene of the picture is the large, gleaming and brand new kitchen of the club which was open for the members' inspection on Sunday.
