Mt. Hebron Party Scene

The Mount Hebron home of Mrs. Lester Clark was the scene of a party Saturday evening, Feb. 11, in honor of Bobbie Sasser of Horse Creek and Walter Schlumpf of Seiad Valley.

A social hour in the valentine decorated home preceded a buffet supper. Games were enjoyed during the evening.

A gift was presented to the couple, who plans to be married March 4 in the Horse Creek Church.

The bride-to-be is a 1960 graduate of Happy Camp High School. Her future husband is a permanent employee of the Forest Service.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Reames, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Short, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Bill Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Simpson of Yreka.

Naomi Shrine

A special ceremonial and men's night was held at the Feb. 11 meeting at 8 p.m. by Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem.

A business meeting was conducted at 4 p.m. the same afternoon with Luella Chilcote, worthy high priestess, and Frank McCracken, watchman of the shepherds, officiating.

Six candidates became sojourners of the order after the colorful ceremonial was performed and were greeted by all members. A large crowd witnessed the evening affair. Visitors from out of town included Grace and Walter Van Horn, WHP and WOS of Gaspar Shrine No. 3, The Dalles, who were introduced and escorted, and Agnes and Hans Blaser, NP and AWOS, also of Gaspar Shrine.

A surprise birthday presentation was given Frank McCracken by Almon Geiss, AWOS, as the shrine sang an appropriate greeting.

Luella Chilcote announced that the March 11 meeting would be the annual meeting, reports and election of officers. The WHP and WOS will also entertain with a buffet supper preceding the meeting.

Being men's night, the men entertained in the dining hall which was attractive with decor featuring old Mexico. Tables and the room were decorated with articles and handwork of Mexico, lending a festive air. A chili feed was served by waiters attired in Mexican costumes. Chairman of the affair was Dale Howell who was assisted by Thomas Barnes, O. K. Anderson, Carl Young and Harry Scribner. Aletha Howell was in charge of the decorations.

Appropriate music was played during the social hour by Gladys Hambrick with solos by Isabel Sanders.

Lodge Honors Grand Officer

MALIN—Prosperity Chapter No. 160, Order of Eastern Star, held a reception honoring Edna Hunnicutt, grand representative to Washington and Friendship night, Thursday, Feb. 9, at the Malin Masonic Temple with Worthy Matron and Patron Frances and Louis Kalina presiding in the East.

Each guest received the "extending the hand of friendship" pin and a small orchid.

Escort and grand honors were given to Morris Boughner, worthy grand patron, and Lorena McNair, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. Escort and a hearty welcome were extended to Alice Boughner, grand electa of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Virginia Zumbun, member of Estrad Fund; Donald Shores, member of Home Endowment Fund, and grand representatives, Nell Herschberger, to Colorado in Oregon; Martha Powell, to West Virginia in Oregon; Georgiana Clark, to Alberta, Canada, in Oregon. Worthy matrons and patrons escorted and welcomed were Mildred Roubush, Josephine No. 26, Grants Pass; Helen DeGraw, Tulelake No. 539; Pauline Harris, Cascade Crest No. 159, Chiloquin; Lillian Haneline and Harold Schieferstein, Aloha No. 61, Klamath Falls; Lorene McCollum and Dale Howell, Manzanita No. 172, Klamath Falls.

Under good of the order Morris Boughner extended a greeting from the Grand Chapter of Oregon. Lorena McNair, honorary member of Prosperity Chapter, spoke of her part in instituting the chapter and introduced the charter members present, Anne Fruits, Leah Street and Alida Macken. Edna Hunnicutt gave a very interesting report of her two years as grand representative which was followed by an addendum in her honor.

The theme was the motto for her year as worthy matron, "Stairway to a Star." The worthy patron introduced Alida Macken, Ontario, Calif., first worthy matron of Prosperity Chapter; Elaine Shores, president of Southern Oregon Association, and Virginia Blohm, mother adviser of Malin Rainbow Assembly.

A short report was given by the worthy matron and patron on their visitation to the 75th anniversary of Roseburg Chapter No. 8 and the institution of Sunrise Chapter at Portland.

An addendum combining Valentine's Day and Eastern Star was presented in honor of Brother Morris after which he was presented an honorary membership card by the worthy patron.

Entertainment for the evening were selections by an orchestra of Masonic and Eastern Star affiliation. Verda Scribner, the originator, introduced the members of "Mackys Orchestra." Each letter in the name represents an Eastern Star or Masonic Lodge. Several numbers were played honoring the various dignitaries present.

Jim Hunter, Aloha No. 61, read a poem which he had written during the evening.

The tables were beautifully decorated with shades of lavender and heather by the refreshment committee, Marie Jackson, Betty Halousek, Jean Evans, Hazel Kalina and Irene Freitag.
