

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Outing

Despite unfavorable weather, Fort Klamath Camp Fire Girls and their guardian, Mrs. Raymond E. Van Wormer, enjoyed a day of outdoor fun at Klamath Agency and environs on Saturday, Feb. 11.

The group went by car to the agency campground, where they enjoyed breakfast, cooked over an open campfire. This was followed by a hike through snow to the lookout station atop nearby Agency Butte, after which a side trip was made by car to Chiloquin, where the girls and their guardian visited the Indian Museum and Gift Shop.

Returning to the agency campground they prepared dinner which included steaks and baked potatoes cooked by campfire. The trip home in late afternoon concluded the day's activities.

In addition to Mrs. Van Wormer, participating in the Saturday pleasure jaunt were Mary, Roberta Latzy, Lindaigan if you like.

Income Tax Does Color Our Thoughts, Actions

Ruth Miller
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Ever stop to think what a big influence that yearly tax to Uncle Sam has on our way of thinking? Well, it isn't unusual to hear a young married couple hope their first born arrives in time to be a tax deduction — instead of waiting until after the first of the year.

And there do seem to be an increasing number of marriages around Christmas time. As inconvenient as that time might be to the bride's mother, it means the happy couple can file a joint return.

FOR SMOOTH ARMS

To keep your arms smooth and beautiful, scrub them with a stiff brush and plenty of soapuds in the bath. Then apply either castor oil or a honey - and - butter cream to make the skin soft and satiny.

Lots of people get entertained by business associates who wouldn't bother — if the entertainment weren't tax deductible.

And plenty of husbands drive the big car while their wives take the little, economical "second" car — when the husband can charge off part of his car as a business expense.

Wives have even been known to quit their jobs because their pay check boosted the family income into a higher tax bracket. And a man can always be cheered up when he has lost money in the stock market or made a bad loan by the reminder that he can take his losses off his income tax.

"After all it's tax deductible" has even become a better justification for spending money than "It was such a bargain I just couldn't resist it."
