

YREKA—Impressive and colorful ceremonies marked the joint installation of 1961 officers to Yreka Lodge No. 19, IOOF, and Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33, held recently in the Odd Fellows Hall, presented under the theme "Fun in '61."

Al Farrow was installed as noble grand of Yreka Lodge No. 19, and Floy Johnston as noble grand of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33. The lodge room was colorfully decorated in pink and green, the new noble grand's colors for the year.

Other elective officers of Yreka Lodge No. 19 are Walter Garchow, vice grand; Ulysses Stanshaw, secretary, and Cecil Keyes, treasurer.

Seated in appointive posts were Paul Foster, right supporter to noble grand; John Brandsma, left supporter to noble grand; Bert South, right supporter to vice grand; Wayne Richardson, left supporter to vice grand; George White, chaplain; Roland Shonk, warden; Orrin Heath, conductor. Wallace Tallman, inside guard; Bill Singleton, outside guard; Roy Ramey, right scene supporter; Bill Manaugh, left scene supporter, and Bobby Skillen, past noble grand.

To serve with Noble Grand Floy Johnston are Mrs. Mary Bovee, vice grand; Mrs. Velma Dodson, secretary; Mrs. Dolores Landrum, financial secretary, and Mrs. Osa Freeman, treasurer.

Appointive officers seated were Mrs. Billie Walters, warden; Mrs. Hattie Nelson, conductor; Mrs. Barbara Solus, inside guardian; Mrs. Eve Foster, outside guardian; Mrs. Marie Johnson, right supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Helen Hitchcock, left supporter to noble grand.

Mrs. Alta Bowman, right supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Mae Young, left supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Cora Heath, musician; Mrs. Shirley Peters, flag bearer; Mrs. Florence Foster, chaplain, and Mrs. Alice Singleton, past noble grand.

Other appointive officers named were the new noble grand were Mrs. Maybelle Meek, right banner bearer to past noble grand; Mrs. Sylvia Thomason, left banner bearer to past noble grand; Mrs. Margaret Neuschwander, right banner bearer to the chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Anderson, left banner bearer to chaplain; Mrs. Beth Sturgis, right altar bearer, and Mrs. Lois Justice, left altar bearer.

The installation ceremonies were conducted by Leonard Mitts, district deputy grand master of Weed IOOF Lodge No. 464, and Mrs. Marie Bulis, district deputy president, Weed Atlanta Rebekah Lodge, No. 373.

They are assisted by Ray Bulis and Mildred Wilmarth, district deputy marshals; Wesley Wilson, district deputy grand herald; Mrs. Myrtle Williams, grand inside guardian; Harry Hedgepeth and Mrs. Francine Flook, grand secretaries; Verner Lynch and Mable Pratt, grand treasurers; Leslie Kyle and Velma Acutt, grand vice grinds; Bert Acutt and Emelia Kegg, grand vice chaplains, and Mrs. Maude Tinkey, musician.

Escort members were Mrs. Neva Kirk Evans, Mrs. Dorothy Hanner, Mrs. Leland Stone, Mrs. Velma Austin, Mrs. Minnie Collier, Mrs. Teresa Cline, Mrs. Bertha White, Mrs. May Hedgepeth, Mrs. Margaret Henry, Mrs. Etta Kyle, Mrs. Hazel Coggins, and Assisting were Mrs. Marian Kerkes and Mrs. Marie Dollar, Bible bearers; Mrs. Anna Marie Brown and Mrs. Isora Van Dyke, candle bearers.

Mrs. Singleton received her past noble grand pin from her husband, Bill Singleton, while outgoing noble grand Bill Skillen was presented his past IOOF noble grand's pin by his wife, Mrs. Betty Skillen.

Mrs. Mildred Wilmarth sang "I Walked in the Garden."

Davis were hall and dining room decorations; chairmen; Mrs. Clara Henderson, local Heart Fund chairman. Mrs. Irene Buyers baked and decorated an emblem cake, proceeds from which will go to the Heart Fund Drive. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Doris of Edgewood received the cake.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Tip Toppers orchestra.

