KU In Charge, 63-56

Medford Gets Message; Pels Win

By WAYNE SCOTT
Herald and News Sports Editor

Friday the Klamath Union Pelicans uncorked the third of a series of surprises they have sprung on the Medford Black Tornado in their three Southern Oregon Conference meetings this season.

Reservist junior Kent Hunsaker, who seems to have little trouble working at either a guard or forward spot for the Pels, pulled what must have been the hardest for the Tornado to swallow Friday night by blistering the basket for 26 valuable points and spearheading a cool 63-56 victory over the 1960 Oregon State prep champs.

And this was the game the Medfordites figured to win.

In their first setto on the Medford court early in the season the Pels called upon another reserve, junior guard Sherm Allen, who came up with surprise number one. He made only two points, but he made them in the final two seconds of an overtime and the Pels won 58-56.

In the second meeting, the Pels, with three men in big double figures, threatened to run off and hide on their home court and won 73-58 for surprise number two.

Friday night the Black Tornado faced the Pels on the Medford floor and two of the KU regulars, the top two scorers, including an All-Stater, were sitting in the stands. So up pops Hunsaker for surprise number three.

Hunsaker didn't do it alone, but he was by far the biggest thorn in the Tornado's side.

He got scoring help from each of his teammates, Allen connected for 14 and Gary Patzke, the third junior on Friday's starting five, added 10.

Outstanding defensive efforts and some rugged rebounding in face of the superior height of the Tornado took care of the rest.

Had it not been for Medford's brilliant Bob Quinney, the conference scoring leader, who caught fire in the last two periods of the game, the victory margin might have been much greater.

Quinney ended up with the game high of 28 but he was carrying too much of the load.

The teams opened at a furious pace, the Pels, paced by Allen and Hunsaker, hitting a torrid .611 from the field while Medford notched a .550. The lead swapped ownership 10 times during the first half, the Tornado owning an 18-17 first quarter lead, and the KU five leading 31-27 at the midway mark.

The opening of the third period marked the beginning of the end for the Wind, however. Holding the Tornado to one lone point, a free toss by Dick Ragsdale, the Whitebirds flew off to a 13-point 41-28 lead before the period was 4:15 old.

From here on out they were never in a great deal of trouble although Quinney took over and boosted the losers to within five points, 51-46, in the opening moments of the fourth frame.

PELICAN SURPRISE — The Klamath Union Pelicans have turned out to be a series of surprises since they lost the services of Bruce Brickner and Wally Palmberg. Here their latest one, junior Kent Hunsaker, (30) who surprised the Medford Black Tornado with 26 points Friday night, surprises Medford's Bob Quinney as he goes up to snake in a rebound. Quinney edged Hunsaker by two points for game high honors. Hunsaker, however, was not mad.

26 Point 'Surprise'

Tornado JV Notches Win

MEDFORD (Special) — An agitating full-court press and the loss, via fouls, of two players cost the Klamath Union Jayvees a tough 54-51 defeat in the closing seconds of the preliminary played here Friday night.

The young Pels moved out to a 15-10 first quarter spread and managed a 34-22 lead at the half. They continued the pace through the third which ended 44-36 in their favor.

In the final frame, however, they lost Dave Stippich, their high scorer with 14, and Bud Wolter, both by fouls, and Medford slapped on the press.

The strategy worked and they got their first lead in the final minute. The number two Pel producer was Grover Dahn who notched nine points. Jim Kaler and Rich Bogatay were next with eight each.

Both clubs had bad nights at the foul line. The Pels hit only 17 of 32 attempts while the winners got 16 of 31.

The scoring summary:

KUJV (51) — Bogatay 8, Ash 8, Stippich 14, Dahn 9, Scott 4, Dearing 4, Wolters 4. Kelley.

Medford JV (54) — Neathammer 5, Forde 1, Sander 8, Deffley 8, Miles 7, White 12, Mitchell 4, Lawery 7, Parfsenus.

KU Wildcats Nab Triumph

MEDFORD (Special) — The Klamath Union Wildcats wrested the first victory over Medford cagers Friday night by tripping the Tornado sophs 57-49.

Don Piper paced a Wildcat scoring attack that saw all seven players get on the scoreboard. He connected for 16 points, seven field goals and 2-4 at the foul line. Three members of the squad, Wayne Chamberlain, Rick Horn and Buddy Wolter, each added nine.

The KU quint moved out to a 12 - 6 first quarter bulge and stretched it to 29-16 by the half.

The young Winds narrowed the gap with a 25-point third quarter which ended 41-39 in their favor. The Pels got moving in the fourth and pulled it out.

Medford was led by Mike Ralston with 14, Harold Reid with 12 and Dennis Salyers with 11.

The scoring summary:

KU Sophs (57) — Piper 16, Taylor 4, Chamberlain 9, Horn 9, Phelps 6, Wolter 9, Kelley 4.

Medford Sophs (49) — Reid 12, Salyers 11, Farnsworth 4, Stockton 4, Ralston 14, Shaw 2, Haysell 2.

Gilchrist Five Snares Win

GILCHRIST (Special)—The Gilchrist Grizzly junior varsity put the wrapper on the regular season schedule by topping LaPine 50-46 here Friday night.

The varsity Grizzlies will move into the County B tournament Thursday when they clash with the Malin Mustangs in the second game scheduled in the annual classic.

Dan Hoff exploded for 24 points to inspire the JV win as they jumped out to a 14-1 first quarter bulge, stayed even in the scoring, 30-16 at the half and faded in the third stanza which ended 38-32 still in their favor.

Hoff hit 10 field goals and four for nine from the foul line. Jack Skidgel was high for the losers with 13.

The LaPine game has no bearing on the Gilchristers league standing, nor will it affect the score leaders, since no varsity players saw action.

The scoring summary:

LaPine (46) — McCormick 10, Magden 11, Lechner 10, Skidgel 13, Anderson, H. Anderson.

Gilchrist JV (50) — Hazlewood 10, Lengos 2, Hoff 24, Lash 14, White, Lynes, Ericksen.

Philadelphia, Celtics Split

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "It was far and away our best game in a couple of weeks," Coach Neil Johnston of Philadelphia said Thursday night, after his Warriors defeated Boston, 121-111.

"We needed that one just to renew our faith in ourselves."

But the faith wasn't enough to sustain the Warriors in a game with visiting Boston Friday night that was tied 18 times before the Celtics won 133-128.

The victory in a Convention Hall doubleheader gave the Celtics a 7½ game lead over Philadelphia in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.

Syracuse defeated Detroit 115-113 in the opener, dropping Detroit to third place in the Western Division, a half-game behind Los Angeles. There was no other NBA action.

Russian High Jump Star Whips Boston U's Thomas

NEW YORK (AP)—If there are any non-believers in the house on the quality of Valery Brumel's high jumping, please take leave—he is great, just plain great.

"He's the greatest," admitted John Thomas, the Boston University junior.

Brumel, an 18-year-old Russian, and Thomas, a 19-year-old American, clashed Friday for the first time since last year's Olympics when they met in the New York Athletic Club Games at Madison Square Garden.

Brumel, sandy haired and handsome, cleared 7 feet 3 inches, which equaled Thomas' best indoor performance. Thomas still holds the official world record of 7-3¾, but Brumel climbed over 7-4½ three weeks ago in Leningrad, jumping indoors on a dirt floor.

When the bar was raised to 7-2, only Brumel and Thomas remained in the competition. Both had cleared 7-1.

But Thomas missed three times at 7-2, and Brumel cleared it on his first shot. Then the bar went up to 7-3. Brumel missed twice and the crowd of 15,930 that packed Madison Square Garden moaned. The spectators were with the Russian.

On the third try over he went and the crowd went wild. Brumel hardly wasted a minute before ordering the bar to 7-5. But he missed on all three tries.

Besides calling Brumel the greatest, Thomas did not appear too upset.

"If anything was wrong with me," he observed, "it was my takeoff. Otherwise, I was all right."

Brumel and Thomas meet twice more, in the National AAU Championships next Saturday and the Knights of Columbus meet on March 3. Brumel beat Thomas in the Olympics. The Russian collected the silver medal with a 7-1 jump and Thomas was third with 7-5¾.

The Brumel-Thomas battle overshadowed Ralph Boston's indoor record broad jump of 26 feet 1¾ inches. Boston, the Tennesseean who holds all the world broad jump marks, had a 25-10 indoor mark pending. He hit 25-11½, then on his last try, became the first broad jumper ever to soar over 26 feet indoors.

In the process, Brumel's teammate, Igo Ter-Ovanesyan, fouled on all six of his jumps, so he batted .000. The third Russian, Evgeny Momotkov, also fizzled. He finished third in the 2-mile behind Peter McArdle of the New York A.C., who won in 8:52.2, and Max Truex of the Air Force, who was second.

Also overshadowed was Istvan Rozsavolgyi's fifth straight mile victory since arriving here three weeks ago. Rosy's time was 4:04, his best to date. Pete Close was second about 12 yards back and Ed Moran third.

Other winners included George Kerr of Illinois in the half mile (1:52.2), Jim Wedderburn of New York University in the 600 (1:18.8), Dick Edmunds of Princeton in the 500 (57.8), Hayes Jones of Ypsilanti, Mich., in the 60-yard hurdles (7-1), Dave James of San Francisco in the 60-yard dash (6-1), Don Bragg in the pole vault (15-7) and Wilma Rudolph in the women's 50-yard dash (6.0) and the 60-yard dash (6.8, a record).

Five Oregon Prep Quints Gain A-1 Tourney Berths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five teams won berths Friday night in the Oregon Class A-1 high school basketball tournament at Eugene next month.

Klamath Falls, Scappoose, Grant, Wilson and Bend all won key contests in league play and thus became the first entries in the tournament, which will have a lineup of 16 teams.

Klamath Falls, ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, defeated Medford, last season's state champion, 63-56, to become the Southern Oregon Conference's top representative in the tourney. Klamath Falls is 12-0 in the conference.

Medford, 8-4 and ranked eighth in the poll, and Grants Pass, 7-5 after a 74-63 victory over Crater of Central Point, are contenders for the conference's No. 2 spot in the Eugene meet.

Unranked Scappoose now is 11-0 in the Wilco League and in the tournament after edging Wy'East, 73-70, in a double-overtime affair. Reynolds of Troutdale still holds second place in the league despite a 58-54 upset defeat by Sandy. Reynolds is 8-3.

Grant, No. 3 in the poll, continued unbeaten for the season and in the Portland League with a 60-53 victory over Franklin.

Fourth-ranked Wilson, whose only loss this season has been a two-pointer to Grant, grabbed the other berth by edging third-place Jefferson, 46-43.

Bend, No. 7 in the poll, clinched a position in the A-1 tournament, with a 56-52 triumph over Hermiston. That gave Bend an 11-1 conference record, with two games to go.

La Grande is in second place in the conference at 9-3 and Baker in third at 8-4.

La Grande won again Friday night, clipping The Dalles 42-38. Baker beat Prineville 73-63.

Roseburg, No. 2 in the poll, and Marshfield, No. 6, both posted victories and remain 1-2 in the Midwestern League. Roseburg now is 9-1 in the league after a 76-67 victory over third-place North Bend. Marshfield is 10-2 after 54-39 triumph over Thurston of Springfield.

Unranked Corvallis defeated South Salem, No. 9 in the poll, 59-48, and took over sole possession of first place in the Valley League. Corvallis now is 8-3, South Salem 7-4.

Tillamook, now 11-2, is on top of the Tualatin-Yamhill Valley League after a 61-45 win over Oregon City. Second in the league is St. Helens, which made its record 10-4 with a 69-51 victory over McMinnville.

Idaho Vandal Fast Break, Freeze Pays

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—Idaho's Vandals mixed bursts of fast breaks with some hot free throwing and came up with a 62-57 basketball frosting over Oregon State Friday night.

Led by Rich Porter and Dale James, Idaho broke two knotted scores and finished the game off with a cautious but deadly freeze offense. The Vandals picked up seven straight points while the trailing Beavers frantically tried to gain possession of the ball, fouling in the process.

Tulelake, BV Split Series

DORRIS (Special) — The Tulelake Honkers and the Butte Valley Bulldogs split a basketball series here Friday night but the Bulldog B's clinched at least a tie for the league championship in their half of the victories.

The powerful Honker A squad dumped the BV quint 49 - 34 while the Bulldog B's snagged a 60-41 triumph.

Ron Long hit six field goals and three for seven free tosses for 15 points to lead the Honker victory, but the big shooter of the night was Bulldog Louis Moreno with 19 points in the B battle. Moreno counted nine field goals and 1-3. Jim Cowin and Ted Crutchfield backed him up with 16 and 12 point efforts, respectively.

The games put the finishing touches to the Bulldog season while the Honkers face Happy Camp next weekend in their finale.

Scoring summary:

Tulelake (49) — Long 15, Rogers 12, Rutledge, Alcorn 10, Sure 4, Roberts 4, Matherly 2.

Butte Valley (34) — Smith 16, Hands 7, Walton 5, Krouse 4, Sliger 2, Cress, White.

T-Birds, SR Quint Net Wins

Friday night the Thunderbirds battled their way into the finals by defeating the determined but outclassed Beatty Lakers 61-36. The Sprague River five got in by virtue of a not-so-easy 70-52 win over the Portland Phoenix Inn five.

Roland Crume guided the Sprague River victory with a fat 20 points but Ron Owings, Moe Jiminez and Don Dexter assisted with 17, 12 and 10 points respectively.

Phoenix' Smokey Metcalfe outdistanced them all for high game honors, however. Metcalfe struck for 27 markers off 13 field goals and one free toss in six tries.

Jackie Barney spearheaded the T-Bird attack with 23 points off eight field goals and seven in eight tries from the foul stripe. Teammate JoJo George was next with 12 points.

The Thunderbirds shot off to a 14-7 lead in the first quarter and then came within two miserly points of drawing a complete blank in the second frame. By the halftime the Lakers owned an 18-16 bulge.

The Birds got their wings straightened out in the third quarter however and soared off to a 45-28 lead before the period was over. From here on they could afford to coast.

The scoring summaries:

Sprague River (70) — Crume 20, Jiminez 12, Owings 17, Coburn 3, Dexter 10, Woods 1, Green 2, Hurtado, Barney 3.

Phoenix Inn (52) — McCormick 7, Ackerman 14, McGovern, R. Ackerman, Davis, Metcalfe 7, Williamson 2, S. Metcalfe 27.

EOC Cager Gets Better

LA GRANDE (AP)—Larry Applegate is now completely conscious and "recovering quite well," his physician reported Friday.

The high-scoring Eastern Oregon College basketball star was seriously injured in an automobile accident Sunday and was unconscious for some time.

His wife, Karen, who was also injured in the accident, is still hospitalized but in good condition, hospital authorities said.

KFVL Opens Hoop-Fest

The top three Klamath Falls Victory League basketball finishers get to take a one night rest but the balance of the loop swings into the first round of the annual tournament tomorrow night in the Klamath Auditorium.

Fleet's Sporting Goods, the top team, the second place Drews' Manstore five and the third place Los Caballeros draw a bye Monday and won't appear until Tuesday when the tourney moves to Klamath Union High School.

The single-elimination, 12-team tournament will continue Wednesday night at KU and then move back to the auditorium a week from tomorrow for the finale.

A squad of Klamath Union frosh basketeers has joined the 11-team league to balance out the tourney pairings.

Tomorrow night's openers, which start at 6:30, pit the Yogis and the Cool Bears, and Crain's Construction vs. the Frosh in games one and two.

Games three and four, immediately following, pair Farmers Sand and the JM Cuts, and Medo-Land vs. the Maury Marks, Coca Cola and the Gun Store will mix the opening round capper at 8:30.

The Tuesday slate at KU will feature four games as does the Wednesday setto.

The tourney is under the direction of KU's Jim Johnson.

Hornets Smother Bonanza Antlers

The Henley Hornets cracked the 70 mark for the second time this season against the Bonanza Antlers but by a wider margin as they dumped the B League visitors 70-48 at Henley Friday night.

Earlier in the season the Hornets, 16-3 for season play and 8-1 for the Rogue League lead, stopped the Antlers 75-60.

The game was the final on the regular slate for the Antlers but they go on to the County B League tournament at Oregon Tech this Thursday, while the Hornets play their final Rogue League test with the Lakeview Honkers at Lakeview next Friday night.

The Hornets can wrap up a clear cut league championship with a win over the Honkers but a defeat would result in a tie for the top spot between the two. Both the Honkers and the Hornets will compete in the four-team district playoffs slated in the Southern Oregon College gym on March 3-4.

Four Hornets, Kent Gooding, Bert Allbritton, Floyd Kendall and Bob Chapman, broke into double figures against the Hornets, but their fifth man, guard Ray Brown, had an off night and hit for only six points.

Bonanza's Denny Ellis was the game high pointer with 22 tallies off 10 field goals and two for three at the foul line. Gooding was next with 21, Allbritton followed with 18, Chapman hit 13 and Kendall collected 10.

The Hornets got away to a slow start but before the contest was over found the range for a lead that enabled all eight of the Henleyites suited down to get into the action.

They led at the close of the first frame 14-8, 38-17 at the half and 54-31 by the end of the third period.

The scoring summary:

Bonanza (48) — Ellis 22, Dearborn 9, Schooler 7, A. O'Connor 2, Albert 7, J. O'Connor 4, Tofell 2.

Henley (70) — Chapman 13, Allbritton 18, Gooding 21, Kendall 10, Brown 6, C. Bielsky, Thompson, Barrett.
