Open House Marks New Library Addition

The completion of a new room for the Chiloquin Branch of the Klamath County Library was marked by an informal coffee hour and open house on Feb. 11. Mrs. Betty Cote, head librarian of the Klamath County Library, and Mrs. Paul Herron, branch librarian, were hostesses to nearly 100 guests who called between 2 and 5 o'clock to inspect the pleasant new room and its greatly increased facilities.

The color scheme of the new library, gray-green and Indian turquoise with accents of coral, was complemented by bowls of spring blossoms and a charming arrangement of carnations on the coffee table.

Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Mrs. Rufus Robinson and the faculty of the Chiloquin Elementary School added to the permanent decor by present potted plants.

Presiding at the coffee table were Mrs. A. N. Starkey, Mrs. William Barnes, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Mrs. Elmer Heglund, Mrs. Frank Hale and Mrs. Friedman Kirk.

Youngsters of the community were included in the afternoon's festivities and were served punch and cookies by Mrs. William Lorenz, Mrs. Harry Whiting and Mrs. Lester Hoback.

The younger patrons of the library were represented by three teenagers in charge of the guest book, Karen Schoonover, Candace Fried and Joyce McIntyre.

Among those coming from over the county were A. R. Dickson, chairman of the county library board, and Mrs. Dickson; Ted DeMerritt of Malin, board member, and Mrs. DeMerritt; Mrs. Amy Kolkow, branch librarian at Malin, and Mr. and Mrs. Niles Hickey of Modoc Point. Mrs. Hickey is in charge of a county library station at Modoc Point.

Lodge Honors Charter Member

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, honored Mrs. Ruth Stanley, only charter member living in Klamath Falls, at its stated meeting Feb. 15 at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Before the meeting the members were entertained by several selections by the girls of The Little Ensemble of Fremont Junior High School. Don Herbig is director.

After the entertainment the meeting was opened by Mrs. Phyllis May and William Goen, royal matron and patron presiding in the east.

Introduced were Norman Jones, assistant grand lecturer of the Grand Court of the Amaranth, and Mrs. Jack Schulze, past grand royal matron of the Grand Court of the Amaranth of Oregon.

Mrs. Blanche Schulze was appointed representative for Friendship Court No. 11 at the Grand Court Session at Portland.

After the meeting the members retired to the banquet room where the tables were decorated in

ERWIN BROWER, right, principal off the new Falcon Heights School, served as installing officer for the first slate of officers of the school's PTA. The ceremony took place at the Feb. 7 meeting.
