

Lions Seek Old Glasses

WEED — Some underprivileged youngsters of a foreign land will soon have glasses to wear as a result of a Weed Lions Club project currently in progress.

Lions are collecting glasses from families who don't need them anymore. The glasses will be reground and sent this year to India.

Containers have been placed in various businesses in the city and shoppers are asked to deposit donated glasses in them.

Robert Burrell, Weed High School principal, is project chairman.

Home Unit In Meeting

BONANZA—The Bonanza Home Extension Unit met at Bonanza Library recently for the parent-teen-age relationship project.

Leaders were Mrs. Phyllis Reid and Mrs. Lenore Peterson.

A potluck dinner was served at noon. The next meeting will be at the library at 10:30 a.m. March 9, with a potluck at noon. The project leaders will be Mrs. Lura Urback and Mrs. Iola Hankins. The subject will be "rolls."

Attending were Mildred Kelle-son, Alice Drew, Lenore Peterson, Esther Fernlund, Eula Prough, Lura Urback, Phyllis Reid, Christine Hankins, Leona McDonald and Katherine Jendrzejewski.

Yreka Police Give Report

YREKA — During 1960, Yreka police patrolled 73,336 miles and wrote 1,242 parking citations. They also issued 241 "moving" citations charging such offenses as speeding, failure to signal and running stop signs.

More than 100 traffic accidents were investigated during the year, according to Chief of Police Henry T. Watson.

There were 45 juveniles cited into juvenile court, not including 31 juveniles arrested by the department in other actions.

The Washington Monument has a sway of 0.125-inch in a 30-mile-per-hour wind.

Old Logging Gear Sought

McCLOUD—McCloud Explorer Scouts are seeking ancient logging equipment to provide a logging museum. Everything from wedges to donkey engines or steam locomotives is wanted.

The scouts plan to recondition and place in near-new condition all relics they acquire and to place them on display for public viewing.

Post 42 members have set up mobilization plans to be used in the event of a local disaster. Light rescue operations, first aid and care of injured are presently being practiced.

Evacuation, public safety and emergency living will ultimately be learned. William Hefflin is the post adviser.

Siskiyou Artists Association Meets

YREKA—Approximately 35 persons attended the first 1961 meeting of the Siskiyou Artists Association held Sunday afternoon, Feb. 19, at the Yreka Inn, with the president, Mrs. Calla Lukes, conducting the meeting.

Kenneth Truelove of Grenada, treasurer, reported on the revised bylaws of the art group, which were approved.

Mrs. May O. Stevens, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of new officers chosen to serve for the next two years. Those chosen or recommended were Kenneth Truelove, president; Jack Klampfer, vice president; Elsie Nelson, treasurer; Mrs. Ruby Churchill, recording secretary; Mrs. Avis Smith, corresponding secretary, and Meg Chandler, historian. Betty Dow was recommended for publicity chairman.

Officers will be elected at the March meeting. Also to be selected will be one more director. Present directors are Mrs. May Stevens and Jerry Jenkins.

Mrs. Edson Foulke, president of the Yreka Garden Club, was asked to speak on the possibility of the art group joining with the garden club in sponsoring an art festival.

Mrs. Foulke explained how the garden club each year sponsors a flower show in the spring. She stated that it has been recommended to her on numerous occasions that the two groups unite and present a combination flower and art show.

Members present commented favorably on the proposal. No action was taken on the matter until Mrs. Foulke meets with her executive board.

Mrs. Lukes appointed a committee to study the matter further and to report at the March meeting. The committee named by Mrs. Lukes includes Mrs. Stella Fisher, Mrs. Betty Haig and Mrs. Olga Owsley.

Following the business session, Mrs. Stella Fisher, program chairman, showed two films on water colors.

GRANGE NEWS

GREENHORN

YREKA — Honoring of several past and present officers of Greenhorn Grange No. 384 highlighted the program presented in a valentine's theme at the meeting held recently in the Greenhorn Grange Hall.

The program was presented by Mrs. Ray Wheeler, Mrs. Ogden Walters and Mrs. Hilda Cooley. Those honored were Ray Wheeler, master; Wayne O. Kalston, Kenneth Bley, Bryan Cannon, past masters; Kenneth Bley as overseer; and John Cawley, steward.

Harold Lange substituted for Cawley, who was unable to be present. The program also included readings by Mrs. Ogden Walters, Esel Woods, and Mrs. Hilda Cooley. During the business session, conducted by the master, Ray Wheeler, the group voted to change the date of the regular meeting night on March 11 to March 4, as the March 11 date conflicts with the Nontague PTA and Shasta Valley Community "Frantic Antics." Serving on the refreshment committee were Mr. and Mrs. Wilard Freeman as chairmen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Grosvenor, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nicholson, Mrs. Edith Root, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Souza, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom DeSoza.
