

Valentine Sweetheart Balls Highlight February Social Scene

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Klamath Falls, Oregon February 26, 1961

SWEETHEART QUEEN of Beta Sigma Phi, Darlene Eck, is crowned by last year's queen, Luella Murphy, while her husband, Allen Eck, looks on. The queen represented Kappa Chapter of the sorority.

QUEEN DARLENE, shown above seated beside her royal carriage, is surrounded by her court, left to right, Betty Phillips, Xi Alpha Theta; Rita Backa, Beta Phi; Louise Hagen, Tau, and Trudy Farr, Xi Delta. Yellow nosegays tied with black ribbon carried out the sorority colors.

HEARTS AND FLOWERS turned Reames Club into a virtual fairyland for the Feb. 18 annual dinner dance of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Those responsible for the affair are shown, left to right, Joy Baldwin, Tau, general chairman; Pauline Conners, Beta Phi, co-chairman; Dannie Gibson, Tau, reservations; Doralyn Bocchi, Xi Alpha Theta, decorations; Trudy Farr, Xi Delta, banquet.

ROYAL SUBJECTS attending the dance included this foursome, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Goode, seated, and Natella Guderian, publicity chairman, and Thell Rea, standing.

—Photos by Guderian

KING OF HEARTS Jim Easley was crowned by Joan Wizner, honored queen of Job's Daughters Bethel 6, at the annual ball Feb. 18 in the Willard Hotel. The Valentine theme was carried out in red and white accented with glittering cupids, hearts and other appropriate motifs. Mike and Patty Orahod were crown and sword bearers. Sally Bratton and Jolene Weber served at the punch table.

KNIGHTS of the royal court are shown with their ladies, upper left, Julie Bratton and Art Mills, and upper right, Charlotte Heyden and Livio Valdemarin. Below at left, Ellen Frewing and Greg Jones, and Nancy Nicol and Bruce Brickner, right.