Laurel Jeanne Mourterot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Mourterot of Livermore, became the bride of James Ivan Blanchard on Feb. 12 in the First Presbyterian Church of Livermore.

The bridegroom is the son of Elder and Mrs. C. V. Blanchard of Klamath Falls.

The 3 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. John L. Robinson and Elder Blanchard.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace over satin with long pointed sleeves and Sabrina neckline accented with sequins and seed pearls. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls. A white orchid with streamers of ribbon and stephanotis she carried on a white Rainbow Bible.

Patty Hughes of Alameda was maid of honor and the bride's sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Temple of San Jose, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Pat Pedersen, sorority sister of the bride, and Mrs. Mary Hughes, sister of the bridegroom from Klamath Falls.

The attendants were dressed alike in red satin frocks. Matching hats with brief veils and slippers completed their ensembles. Their bouquets were fashioned of white hyacinths with white and pink baby rosebuds.

DeMolay Seats New Officers

YREKA — Ritualistic ceremonies recently held in the Masonic Temple here marked installation of new officers of Ioka Chapter, Order of DeMolay. Ceremonies were followed with a reception.

Elective and appointive officers installed were Jeff Kuck, master counselor; Kenny Lance, senior counselor; Harry Simmons, junior counselor; Tom Broce, junior deacon.

Gordon Dunham, senior deacon, and Ed Binotti, senior steward, were unable to attend the installation and will be seated at a later date.

Serving as installing officers were David Fraser, installing officer; Charles Fisher, senior counselor; Tom Callison, junior counselor; Charles Shelton, marshal; Caroline Meamber, installing musician; Eric Peters, host; Fred Simmons, adviser.

After the ceremonies, the new master counselor presented his mother, Mrs. Clarence Kuck, with a bouquet of red roses and she was escorted to the east to sit in the place of honor beside her son.

Advisory council for DeMolay includes Norman Kinney, Robert Fraser, Henry F. Jensen, George T. Simmons, William Harris, Bernard Davidson, Francis Farley and Earl Skinner.

Approximately 60 persons attended the event and were served refreshments by the DeMolay mothers at the reception which followed the installation.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES DALEY CUNNINGHAM

University Students Wed In Eugene Church Service

MALIN—Judy Maureen O'Day of Eugene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. O'Day of Bond, became the bride of James Daley Cunningham, Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cunningham of Malin, Jan. 21 at the First Christian Church in Eugene.

The double ring ceremony was read at 2 o'clock in the presence of their immediate families by the Rev. Carlton C. Buck.

Large baskets of white pompos and button chrysanthemums banked the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length taffeta dress fashioned with a full flared skirt and wide waist band, highlighted with bugle beads and iridescent sequins, and a fitted bolero style jacket. She wore a bandeau of white flowers in her hair and carried a pink rosebud nosegay.

Patricia Louise O'Day, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue rayon afternoon dress, and a corsage of white carnations.

The best man was Karl Neal Kujac.

A reception followed at the Christian House immediately after the ceremony.

Serving the wedding cake was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joe Holmes of Bend, and pouring punch was Janet Tracy. Guest book was cared for by the bridegroom's sister, Judy Cunningham. Both young people are students of the University of Oregon and are continuing their studies there.
