Newlyweds Are Honored

CHEMUL—Robert Blakely and son of Madras and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Masten were hosts at a large wedding reception honoring the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Norman Masten. Mrs. Masten is the former Barbara Diane Blakely of Madras. The reception was held in the Chemult Community Club between 2 and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Feb. 19.

Greeting guests as they arrived was Doloresa Chuley, in charge of the guest book. The table that held the book was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of bright yellow daffodils. Guests signed the book, admired gifts, and were greeted by the bride and bridegroom and the parents.

The table holding the beautiful wedding cake was also in white with pink candles and gleaming silver and punch bowl. Napkins were embossed with "Normie and Bobbie" as they are known to their host of friends.

The newlyweds will remain in Chemult for a time, but hope to make their home in the valley near Sutherlin.

THE BETROTHAL of Leah Rae Hill and Douglas Warren Fuller is announced by her mother, Mrs. William Hill, 4413 Winter Avenue. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ralston of 1726 Ward Street. They will be married June 11. The future bride, a graduate of KUHS, was recently transferred to Kingsley Field from McClellan AFB where she has been a civilian employee since 1959. Her fiancé, also a KUHS graduate, is employed at Low Cost Market.

Lakeview Tri Clubs Have Annual Banquet

LAKEVIEW — The eighteenth annual Tri-Club banquet of the Soroptimist Club, Business and Professional Women's Club, and the Lakeview Branch of the American Association of University Women was held the evening of Feb. 9 in the Colonial Room of Van's Restaurant with the AAUW as hostess.

Mrs. Richard Proebstel was general director and toastmistress for the affair. She paid tribute to the groups participating in the event since 1944 with a review of past programs. Introduction of members, and guests was led by Dr. Cornelia Robertson, AAUW president; Mrs. Jack Briscoe, Soroptimist president; and Mrs. Bernard Busic, president of the BPW Club.

The theme of "Buttons and Bows" was generally carried out in the program and decorations. A group of the Timber Twirlers, dressed for the occasion, made up the square for the dances.

"Pigtails and Ribbons" and "Old Fashioned Girl," called by Hank Kuempel. The dancers were Velma and Clayton Weaver, Gladys and Forrest Cooper, Nancy and Ed Taylor and Lillian and Dave DuBose.

The inconveniences of the era of pot-bellied stoves, temperamental kitchen ranges and Saturday night baths were humorously presented in verse by Mrs. Hank Barnes with illustrations by Mrs. Jack Pendleton. A candlelight dance pantomime "A la Hildegarde" was done by Dr. Cornelia Robertson. Era reminders were a reading by Mrs. Delbert Millioland from "I Remember Mama" and "Sweet Sixteen Quartet" harmony from Mrs. Lester Boulden. Mrs. David Bradley, Mrs. Irvin Elle and Mrs. Robert Nichols, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Newcombe.

Used in the cleverly executed table decorations were centerpieces of kerosene lamps and pink carnations. A lace-trimmed glove contained the program and, with a blue waltz sashet, provided each member and guest a memento of the evening.

The table decoration committee was made up of Dr. Cornelia Robertson, Mrs. Jack Pendleton, Mrs. Vic Lasater, Mrs. Scott McDonald, Mrs. Eugene Lewis, Mrs. Vic Hill, Mrs. William Bach, Mrs. D. E. McPherson and Mrs. Raphael Toner. Other committee members were Mrs. Forrest Cooper, Mrs. Howard Hopper, Mrs. Robert Weir, Mrs. William Green and Laura Waterman.
