

To cool and dilute cooked laundry starch quickly, stir in three or four ice cubes, adding more if needed.

For a consistently good, bracing brew of tea, keep the teapot clean by rinsing it out weekly with a teaspoon of baking soda plus boiling water.

which girl wears CONTACT LENSES?

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And... she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.

PTA

DUNSMUIR — Sidney Fischer was presented an honorary membership in the Dunsmuir PTA at the annual Founders Day meeting. He was introduced by Mrs. Harold Walsh, life membership chairman, who cited his valuable leadership in Cub Scouting and his work as director of the Dunsmuir Little League which has grown in the past eight years to six teams. One of his goals, a Little League Park, is slated for completion this summer.

Mrs. Boyd Melrose of Weed, district president, and Mrs. Jack Miller, unit president, participated in the presentation.

Brownie Troop No. 222, under the leadership of Mrs. Ish Valenzuela, led the flag salute.

Mrs. Bob Gray was appointed secretary to replace Mrs. John O'Kane, who has resigned.

Corsages were presented to past presidents, Mrs. Roscoe Kimble, Mrs. Robert Berryhill, Mrs. Glen Minuth, Mrs. Ted Crocker, Mrs. Harry French and Mrs. John Mather. Glen Minuth, Mrs. Nellie Masson and Mrs. Kimble were introduced as life members.

"Wheels of Progress," an outline of events since the founding of the PTA 75 years ago, was presented by Mrs. Ronald Christensen and Mrs. Bob Gray.

It was announced that 350 simple reading books had been sent to Thailand as a PTA project.

The fourth grade mothers served refreshments.

COTTONS IN FLOWER

NEW YORK—Provincial prints are in flower, fashioned into cotton separates and dresses with a picturebook look. Featured this year are dark, flowered cottons shaped into a puffed blouse, a puff-sleeved peasant blouse, a full skirt and a deep-flounced, braid-trimmed dress.

A VALENTINE TEA at the home of Mrs. James Lear, 335 Haskins Street, honored retired teachers on Feb. 11. Hostesses were members of Alpha Delta Kappa sorority. An old fashioned bouquet with valentine motifs centered the pretty table at which Mrs. Lear is seated. Standing, left to right, are Mable Hanson, Mrs. Lorena Ward, Leora Repp and Mrs. Ethel Dibble.

G. W. Bingham. Guests and members enjoyed visiting while soft music was played. Guests present were Mrs. Ethel M. Dibble, Mrs. Lorena Ward, Mrs. Mae Moss, Mrs. Emma Carter, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Willeska Loosely, Mrs. Elsie Henke, Mrs. Edna Wilkerson, Mrs. Clara DeWitt, Mildred Dressler, May Phinney and Miriam Smith. Members of Alpha Delta Kappa brought gifts for their altruistic project, to be presented to the ladies of the nursing home.
