

PEGGY RAMONA KING will become the bride of Robert D. Roberts March 21 in the Los Angeles Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. King, will be hosts at a reception in their honor April 8 in Tulelake. The future bride is a graduate of Brigham Young University where she was affiliated with and an officer of Nautilus of NLU social unit. She served as assistant recreation director in Tulelake for three summers. Presently she teaches second grade at Franklin Elementary School in Eureka. Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Florence Roberts, Downey, and the late John C. Roberts, also was graduated from Brigham Young University. He is agent for the Internal Revenue Service in Eureka.

Westside Teachers Wed In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — The marriage of Juanita Catherine Perry, and Bruce W. Field, both teachers at the Union Grade School on the Westside, was solemnized Friday evening, Feb. 10, at 7 o'clock at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Herbison, with the Rev. Herbison performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Perry of Halfway, Ore., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Field of Central Point.

Bouquets of pink roses and white baby chrysanthemums were used for decorations. The bridal gown was fashioned of white lace and the fingertip veil was fastened to a tiara of seed pearls. The bride carried a white Bible with a white orchid and carnations tied with white satin ribbon streamers. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

The bride's sister, Edith Perry of Halfway, was her maid of honor and she wore a gown of pale pink brocade with matching shoes and gloves, and a pink velvet flowered tiara as headpiece. She carried a nosegay of white and pink carnations.

Norman Jacobs of Merrill, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Mrs. Connie Field was organist and accompanist for the vocalist, Harvey Field.

Mrs. Perry, mother of the bride, wore a beige lace dress with matching accessories, and Mrs. Field wore a green two-piece ensemble with flower trimmed matching hat.

A reception followed the ceremony with Mrs. Norma Blalock serving the wedding cake which she had baked and decorated. Mrs. Carolyn Hunt, aunt of the bride, had the gift table and Bonnie Lindsey and Beverly Hendricks were at the gift table and Bonnie Lindsey also assisted Doris Herbison with the pouring.

The bride's going away costume consisted of a beige dress and coat with brown accessories, and the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride attended Halfway High School, Boise Bible College at Boise, and Southern Oregon College, Ashland. The bridegroom is a graduate of Central Point High School and the University of Oregon.

Demi-Lipsticks Something New

For the woman who would like to experiment with the fascinating new colors in makeup, but hesitates to invest too much money in the process, a luscious new lipstick collection can now be purchased at many cosmetic counters.

The maker, a famous cosmetic house, advises women to "dip into their delicious differences with abandon, and have that special look every hour of their lives."

Each lipstick, an ample sample, comes in the colors women of chic and wit on both sides of the Atlantic enjoy most: the year around, from brilliant reds, pinks, plum, coral to violet.

Included in the attractive plastic case is a color chart to suggest the correct shade for each costume and the harmonizing rouge and nail enamel.

Over The Garden Gate

ALTURAS GARDEN CLUB

The attractive home of Mrs. Walter Gysin was the scene of a meeting of the Alturas Garden Club on Thursday, Feb. 9.

Members responded to roll call by telling of something new and interesting each had seen in a new 1961 seed catalog.

Plans were made to work with the club's Girl Scout Troop on Arbor Day, March 7. There will be a ceremony conducted at the swimming pool at 2 p.m. after which shrubs will be planted, weather permitting.

Reports were given by Mrs. Ralph Laird in regard to the plaque for the Pioneer Cemetery restoration program and by Mrs. Warren Sloss, chairman of the garden club conservation committee.

The president, Mrs. Daft, then introduced Loring White, Modoc County agricultural commissioner. He gave a very instructive lecture on the subject of pests and perils of the garden and their ultimate eradication. He also spoke of seasonal spraying programs and told of new methods and facilities now available to the average gardener.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leo Glister, 1238 Henderson Street, March 9. The district governor, Mrs. Chester Main of Tulelake, will visit the club officially at the April meeting.

Bridge Winners

There were eight tables of duplicate bridge players at the monthly masterpoint game of Klamath Falls Unit on Sunday, Feb. 19, at the city library.

North-south winners were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dewey, first; Mrs. Lloyd Goble and Mrs. Leona Robertson, second; and Mr. and Mrs. John Lake, third.

Mrs. Mary Ramp and Mrs. Sarah Rosenbaum were first in the east-west position, followed by Mrs. Helen Schaeffer and Mrs. Robert Sprout in second, and Mrs. Robert Yuon and Mrs. Vern Moore third.

Suburbia Short Of Utopia Claims Woman Authority

NEW YORK (UPI) — Suburbia is packed with people who'd love to trade the "bliss" of the backyard barbecue for a home in the heart of town, says a woman authority on housing problems.

They didn't elect suburbia, said Miss Elizabeth Wood, former director of the Chicago Housing Authority. Several factors "pushed" and "pulled" them to that green patch of land which lies between urban and country living.

She said many of those who desert the city—these days, they're mostly middle income — are pushed by the "lack of human imagination" in city planning to feed the inner man's, or woman's need for recreation, culture and privacy.

"We have excellent architects," she said, in an interview. "But abominable planners."

They're pushed by deterioration of neighborhoods once settled, stable and populated by a variety of ages and income groups. And, there is a shortage of good housing they can afford.

The pull to suburbia is not alone the lure of several hundred square feet of greenery and the "alleged bliss of the backyard barbecue," she said.

"It is the simple fact that federal housing legislation is dedicated to the support of benefits to buyers and builders... to sales, not to rental, housing."

Miss Wood indicted public housing as built mostly "for one class—the low income."

The housing expert, a brisk woman with short, graying hair and bright blue eyes, is the author of a new publication called "The Balanced Neighborhood," published by a private agency, the Citizens' Housing and Planning Council of New York.

In it, she called on all cities to offer all income groups, and the minority groups, the "option between a good life in the city and a good life in the suburbs."

Otherwise, she said, cities are "courting chaos and disorganization... waste and deterioration."

Miss Wood has spent 30 years in the housing field, formerly serving as Secretary of the Housing Committee of the Chicago and from 1937 to 1954 as director of the Chicago Housing Authority.
