Delta Kappa Gamma Honors Future Teachers.

Future teacher organizations of Klamath County were well represented by outstanding young women who were honored guests of Alpha Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, international honor society for women teachers, at their February luncheon meeting in the Pelican party room.

Program topic for the day was "In Every Soul, a Vision of Service." An appropriate suggestion of Helen Hoffman, president, prompted each member to introduce herself and briefly tell why she decided to become a teacher.

Mrs. Harold Ashley, chairman of the committee on Selective Recruitment of Teachers, presented Louise Mitchell, who introduced guests speaking on the subject "Why I Want to be a Teacher."

Future teachers honored were Kathleen Radspinner, Sacred Heart; Mary Helen Edgar, Gilchrist; Pat Williams, Henley; Diane Hunsaker, Patti Anderson and Necia Musselman of Klamath Union High School.

Others introduced were Sara West, daughter of Mrs. Dale West, and Nancy Wemple, both students at the University of the Pacific, Stockton. Mrs. Ray Hunsaker was the guest of Mrs. Hoffman.

The valentine motif was carried out in pink and white in the guests' corsages, the pretty appointed tables, and the clever heart mobiles. The beautiful pink carnations received by Mrs. Dale West for the occasion from a good friend on the Oregon coast were a conversation piece. Other members of the hostess committee were Mrs. Martha McLaughlin, chairman, Mrs. Walter Cambron, Mrs. Homer Koertje, Mrs. Elmer Kappan and Mrs. Charles Kerr. Mrs. L. L. Hendricks, vocal soloist.

which preceded the luncheon, Mrs. Edsall gave a complete report on the community hospital plans to date. Mrs. Paul Deller presented a set of colored pictures taken during the Christmas party to the scrapbook chairman, Mrs. Carl Probstel, and to the president, Mrs. Hoffman. Individual pictures of new members have been requested by Mrs. Probstel and by Mrs. A. R. Dickson, state scrapbook chairman.

"The Teachers Prayer," written by Mrs. Hoffman, was sung by the group at the close of the inspirational meeting.

The year's program focus, "Understanding Unfamiliar Cultures," brought Liberia, Africa, and Persia, Portugal and Switzerland, Chile, South America, into the spotlight for Alpha Chapter at the January meeting when two OTI students, William Darmoh and Martin Peterson, discussed education, government, industries and voting in their respective countries. Moderator was Mrs. Bernice Andrews, the English teacher and OTI dean of women. An open forum which followed brought out additional points of general interest.

Special music included national anthems of Egypt, India, Belgium, Sweden, Denmark, Austria, Russia, Holland, Canada, France, by Mrs. Walter Cambron, Legislative Committee chairman.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting were Mrs. A. R. Dickson, Mrs. B. C. Johnston, Mrs. Fred Fletcher, Mrs. Athel Roser and Mrs. Frank Bell. Special recognition was given Mrs. Isabelle Brixner and Mrs. Kathleen Ward for mementoes brought by them from Mexico, India, Africa, and other countries, and used as table decorations for the meeting.

An important part of the meeting was the discussion of "Legislation, Pertinent and Pending."
