Cow Belles Meet In Yreka

YREKA — Beautiful arrangements of yellow acacia and lavender iris, highlighted with silver horseshoes, decorated the luncheon tables at the Shamrock Cafe for the spring luncheon of the Siskiyou Cow Belles held Thursday, with approximately 50 women in attendance.

Other decorations consisted of corsages of daffodils and Dutch iris, which were claimed by the person having a leather favor at her place setting.

The clever decor was arranged by Mrs. Esther Foulke, Mrs. Alice Hessig and Mrs. Shirley (Hessig) Elwood.

Mrs. Pat Smith, president, conducted the business session at which time she appointed chairmen as follows: Mrs. Betty Hart, Fathers Day party; June Hollister, fair booth; Jean Valentine, beef promotion; Gladys Hart, hospitality; Mildred Long and Gladys Hart, scrapbook, and Betty Kuck, publicity.

Also during the meeting, Mrs. Esther Foulke presented new by-laws for the organization, which were approved by members.

Mrs. Pat Smith was named as delegate to attend the state Cow Belles convention, with Mrs. Betty Kuck named as alternate.

A SURPRISE PARTY honored the Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Henderson Feb. 13 at the regular meeting of the Merrill Mariners. Valentines were used for decorations for the party which observed the Henderson's wedding anniversary.

Two Celebrate Silver Wedding

MALIN — Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Petrasek were honored recently on their 25th wedding anniversary with a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Petrasek.

The refreshment table was decorated with a miniature money tree, tied with red ribbon bows. The center arrangement was made of artificial flowers of pink and silver. A large sheet cake, iced with a pink and white "Happy Anniversary" completed the table decorations.

A buffet dinner was served, after which the evening was spent playing cards.

Stanley Petrasek, student of SOC, was home for his parents' anniversary. The Petraseks were married in the parsonage of Malin Presbyterian Church by Dr. R. M. Stevenson. Their only attendant were his sister Irene Jelinek, and his brother, Paul. The Petraseks have a younger son, Dale.

Engagements Announced

LAKEVIEW — Added to the growing list of future brides are three Lakeview girls whose engagements were recently announced here.

The engagement of her daughter, Cinda Lee, to Ramon C. Blair has been announced by Mrs. Herbert A. Pollard of Lakeview. He is the son of Mrs. William T. O'Connor of Paisley and C. H. Blair of Santa Barbara.

The bride-elect is a 1960 graduate of Lakeview High School and is employed by the Favell-Utley Realty Company. Her fiancé is a 1952 graduate of Paisley High School and is purchasing agent for the Fremont National Forest.

The wedding date has been set for April 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin B. Elle of Lakeview have announced the engagement of their daughter, Karen Kay, to Gene P. Pierson, son of Mrs. Margaret B. Pierson, of Indianapolis, Ind. She is a student at Southern Oregon College, is a member of Sigma Epsilon and honorary sorority and vice president of Robet, service honorary. He is timber management assistant in the Warner District of the Fremont Forest, and is a graduate of Purdue University in Indiana.

The engagement of Joyce E. Icenhower and Gary Mewhinney was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Icenhower. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mewhinney of Lakeview. Both are graduates of Lakeview High School and are employed here.

TIPS ON EARRINGS
The length of your neck and the shape of your face play an important role in the kind of earrings you choose. Long, drop earrings, even for formal wear, should not be worn by any woman who has a short neck. And jewelry that is shaped like a circle should be avoided by women with round faces.
