Parties Fete Bride-Elect

MALIN — Susan Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hab Wilson, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower recently with approximately 75 guests signing the guest book.

For entertainment Mrs. Bertril Shogren sang two songs, "My Hero" and "I Know a Road." She was accompanied at the piano by her daughter, Berta Bratton.

Sara West and Peggy Haskins assisted Susan at the gift table. A pink and white sheet cake, bearing the names "Jack and Susan" helped to decorate the refreshment table that was covered with a white cloth, artistically decorated with pink roses.

The future bride and bridegroom's mothers were each presented with beautiful linen handkerchiefs edged in hand crocheted lace, made and presented by a friend, Mrs. Mildred Dohy.

Hostesses were Mabel Cunningham, Neva O'Riley, Gladys Rajanus, Agnes Steyskal, Elsie Wolf, Bess McCulley, Maradean Lyon, Lee Reber, Ann Kandra, Dee Stotsy, Ruth McVay, Betty Drager, Joan Haskins, Ruby Kujac, Marie Bunnell and Emma Morelock.

A lingerie shower was also given recently honoring Susan at the home of Mrs. Leonard Wills. Assisting Mrs. Wills were Muriel Brown and Jaunita Fabianek.

Twenty-five close friends and relatives were present.

The refreshment table was prettily decorated with a white cloth and center arrangement of pink and lavender flowers with napkins to match.

Sponsors began to settle Venezuela and develop its agricultural resources in the 16th Century.

A JUNIOR music major from this city, Shirlene McMichael, was recently elected president of the Women's Recreation Association at the University of Oregon. She has also been pledged to Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary. She is a member of Delta Zeta social sorority.

Church Rites Unite Couple

MOUNT SHASTA — St. Anthony's Church in Mount Shasta was the setting Saturday, Feb. 11, for the exchange of wedding vows between Lynda Lou Lindner and Joseph A. Tallero. The Rev. Father Michael Myers officiated.

The bride, graduate of Mount Shasta schools and a sophomore of San Jose State College, was given in marriage by her father, J. O. Lindner. Her gown, white nylon lace bodice with scalloped neckline and long sleeves and silk skirt embossed with carnations with overskirt of net, was floor length. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. White orchids, carnations, lilies of the valley and stephanotis were arranged for the bridal bouquet.

Virginia Ann James of San Leandro, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor. She wore a full skirted princess style frock of pale yellow nylon.

Bridesmaids were Lorraine Biemann of Redding, Suzanne Collier of Menlo Park, Pat Skinner of Sonora and Bobbie Lowe Patchin, cousin of the bride from Santa Rosa. Their pale blue frocks were styled like that of the honor attendant.

The bridegroom, graduate of McCloud schools and San Jose State College, was attended by his brother, Louis Tallero. Ushers were another brother, Robert Tallero, and a college classmate, Leslie Amundsen of San Francisco.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the parish hall. Nearly 200 guests were present.
