Church Slates Scout Sunday

The Congregational Church will observe Scout Sunday, March 5, at the morning service. Members of Scout Troop 77 and Cub Pack 77, their families, friends and all former participants in scout activities will be special guests.

A sandwich luncheon for the entire church constituency and guests will follow the service. Mrs. J. R. Larimer is in charge.

The program and a film on last summer's Boy Scout World Jamboree is planned.

Charters of both Scout organizations will be presented to the church to be received by Cliff Kenyon, assistant district commissioner and Boy Scout Institutional Representative for the local church.

Others participating in the program will be Bill Ackerman, cubmaster, Doug Knutsen, chairman, Cub Scout Committee, Ted Coker, scoutmaster, and Charles Reynolds, scout committee chairman.

MRS. ARLESS DOTSON, left, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Carl Fernlund, Medford, attended morning worship services at Church of the Nazarene, the Sunday morning that Herald and News photographer was near the church, 620 Martin Street.

REV. PAUL A. GREEN

Evangelist To Hold Services

Special meetings with Rev. Paul Green, evangelist, of Phoenix, Ariz., will be conducted at the Bible Baptist Church, 2244 Ward Street, beginning Sunday, March 5, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. He will speak nightly at the church at 7:30 for the coming week in cluding March 11.

The evangelist will be accompanied by his wife, a former soloist in a college choir. Reverend Green will also furnish music on his double-belled euphonium. Other special music will be furnished by the church choir and orchestra as well as other musical groups of the church.

Reverend Green has been a pastor in several churches and has directed Youth for Christ rallies in a number of cities before entering into this evangelistic ministry.

MINISTERIAL AID

PERRY, Okla. (AP)—Five visiting ministers pitched in to help the Rev. Grady Bohanan complete a new utility room and carpenter on the Church of the Nazarene parsonage.

MERRILL—The Merrill Mariners met Feb. 13 for their regular meeting and a surprise wedding.

Presbyterian Women Meet

MERRILL—Presbyterian Women's Association met for the February meeting at the church, with Mrs. Pavitt Newham as hostess. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Frank Howard.

A letter of thanks was received by the association from a mission in Mexican Hats, Utah, for clothing and materials sent.

A news letter was received and read from the Rev. John H. Chambers, a Presbyterian missionary from Barrow, Alaska.

The program, "Horizons in Home Missions," giving early history on national missions and on Cameron House in San Francisco, was given by Mrs. Warren Ochs.

Twelve members and three visitors were present for the meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lena Buck, March 8 at 2 p.m.

REV. LUCIAN SMITH

Noted Divine To Pay Visit

MOUNT SHASTA—The Rev. Lee De Solnier, pastor of Mount Shasta Church Evangelical, has announced that a noted divine, the Rev. Lucian Smith, head of the Eastern Conference of the Evangelical Methodist Church, will be here March 5 through March 10.

He will hold services in the Church Evangelical each evening of his stay, beginning at 7:30.

RELATED BELL

ELGIN, Ill. (AP)—For more than a half century the belfry in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church remained empty—no bell. The founding congregation included a bell when plans were made for the church in 1903, but when time came to place the cornerstone, it was apparent building expenses were running ahead of anticipated costs.

And so it went through the years. Now when Holy Trinity parishioners come to church a bronze bell, weighing 1500 pounds, tolls for them.

It is the bequest of the late Miss Martha Schneider, a member.

BOOK IS BETTER

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Keith Miller made this comment on the Old Testament to his adult Sunday school class: "Most of you have seen it in the movies; you should try the book."

anniversary party for the Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Henderson.

The meeting was called to order by the skippers, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Haskins. A discussion was held on carpeting the new Sunday School rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunningham will serve on this committee.

The table was decorated to coincide with Valentine's Day and the anniversary motif.

Serving on the refreshment and game committee were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeves.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graves and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Perdue.

MALIN—The Women's Association of Malin Presbyterian Church held its annual church fellowship meeting, Thursday, Feb. 16, in the social hall.

Local Coed At AWS Meeting

Darlene Gaster, 1835 Portland Street, was one of more than 100 coeds from Oregon colleges who attended the state conference of the Associated Women Students Feb. 18 at Lewis and Clark College in Portland.

The one-day meeting featured workshops on the topic, "Preparing for Tomorrow Today," with four Lewis and Clark girls as leaders. Speakers were Dr. Hester Turner, director of professional services for the OEA, and Mrs. Cleo Maletts, Mrs. American of 1953.

Miss Gaster is AWS treasurer at Southern Oregon College.

CHURCH ADVICE

BELLE PLAINE, Iowa (AP)—From the St. Peter and Paul Church bulletin:

"We hear teen-agers complain. What can we do? Where can we go?"

"The answer is: Go home. . . . Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your city doesn't owe you a recreation center. The world doesn't owe you a living. You owe it your time and energy and your talent, so that so one will be at war, or in poverty, or lonely again. . . . In heaven's name, grow up—and go home."

Guild Plans Spring Fete

LANGELL VALLEY—Margaret Stevenson entertained the Barnabas Episcopal Church Guild at her home in Upper Langell Valley the afternoon of Feb. 23, with Elfreda Lindsay presiding.

Mrs. Lindsay appointed another chairman for the fall bazaar, Beverly Roberts, who will be in charge of the fish pond for the children. Members voted to serve lunch at any farm auctions to be held around Bonanza this spring. Mary Noble won the special prize.

The next meeting will be at the parish hall on March 30, when Lois Struve will be hostess and the members will clean the church for Easter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stevenson to Eva Roberts, Lois Struve, Grace Blaser, Elfreda Lindsay, Marie Bland, Gretchen Gardner, Velda Haley, Donna Gift, Marie Gibney, Beverly Roberts and Mary Noble.

Lorella Society

LANGELL VALLEY—The Missionary Society of Lorella Full Gospel Church met at the home of Bessie Campbell the afternoon of Feb. 23. After the short business meeting the members sewed on quilts for missions.

The next meeting will be March 9 at the home of Mildred Campbell.

Refreshments were served to Elsie Gilman, Anne Leake, Marie Keller, Esther Keyser, Nettie Davis, Genevieve Smith, Joyce Willis and Alicia Flager.

PRIEST AND PUBLICISTS

NEW YORK (AP)—A Catholic priest has urged the National Religious Publicity council, made up of public relations representatives of Protestant groups, to open its membership to Catholics and Jews in the same field.

The Rev. John E. Kelly, of Washington, D.C., director of the information bureau of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, told a council meeting here: "The influence of religion could be improved if we work together."

A solo was sung by Juanita Fabianek. Carolyn Whitman, circle chairman read the scriptures and Bessie Reid, spiritual life chairman, gave the devotions and read from the world book of prayer.

Lawrence Cooper, administrative assistant to the Rev. Robert C. Graves of the First Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, spoke on fellowship.
