PTA NEWS

CONGER SCHOOL
Past presidents were honored at the annual Founders Day tea by the Joseph Conger PTA on Feb. 22 in the school gymnasium. Chairman of the tea was Mrs. Helen Ruonich, assisted by the third grade mothers. Corsages made by Mrs. Ruonich were presented to attending past presidents.

Mrs. Joyce Blake gave a brief resume of the accomplishments of each past president during her year in office. Square dancing was presented by Mrs. Jennie Mills' third grade students and several songs were sung by the third grade Brownies.

A short skit, "It's a Great Organization," was given by various members of the PTA. James Young, principal of Conger School, spoke on several bills now being considered in the legislature.

World thinking pins were awarded to the fifth grade Girl Scouts by Mrs. Lou Jones. Mrs. Gloria Strubbin, president, conducted the business meeting at which time it was voted to hold a rummage sale on March 24 at Clyde's Towing Service, 714 Klamath Avenue.

Mrs. Maxine Waite, Mrs. Joyce Shultz and Mrs. Raymond Brannon were elected to the nominating committee. The flag salute was led by Mrs. Lettie Hicks' Cub Scouts. Marilyn Hammond accompanied the

MRS. HELEN MURRAY, Klamath County health nurse, showed slides and explained the services of the health department to members of the Bly Parents and Patrons at their recent meeting.

Parents And Patrons

BLY — Mrs. Helen Murray, Klamath County health nurse, showed slides and explained the services of the Klamath County Health Department at the recent Parents and Patrons meeting. Mrs. Murray answered questions informally after the meeting.

During the business meeting it was suggested that a resuscitator be purchased by this group and the community. After discussion a committee was appointed to look into the matter.

Ruth Obenchain was accompanied for her high school chorus which sang several numbers. The meeting was closed with a devotion led by Mrs. Bruce Egger.

Valley Folk Fete Birthdays

The past weeks have been busy ones for families living in and around Bonanza and Langell Valley as they observed several birthday anniversaries.

On Feb. 24 Mr. and Mrs. James Bond of Bonanza entertained in honor of their son, Ronnie, who was 13 years old. Twenty five teen-agers enjoyed an evening of games and dancing in the library building.

Birthdays were celebrated at 11 o'clock. Linda Gibney, who was 13 years old on Feb. 18, was completely surprised at a party arranged in the Langell Valley Community Hall by her mother, Mrs. Clarence Gibney. Mrs. Gibney was assisted by Linda Fernlund.

Twenty five boys and girls from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades were present. Dancing and games were enjoyed before refreshments were served.

In Bonanza a group of friends took birthday cake and ice cream as a surprise to Mrs. Ross Clark on her birthday, Feb. 20. A social afternoon was enjoyed by the honored guest and Mrs.

Clyde Wooten, Mrs. Bob Hartley, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Mrs. Marvin Brown, Mrs. Glen Huffman, Mrs. Bill Hartley, Mrs. Byron Ross, Mrs. Bob Horton and Mrs. Donna Dixon.

Bridge Party

BONANZA—Mrs. Oscar Peterson entertained with three tables of bridge at her home the evening of Feb. 21.

Yancey Family Receives Gifts

LANGELL VALLEY—A shower for Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yancey and children, Joannie and Laurya, was given at the Langell Valley Community Hall on Saturday evening. The family lost their home and many of their household possessions in a fire Jan. 20.

A spring banquet of daffodils and iris was on the gift table. Mr. and Mrs. Wes Yancey helped open the many gifts. Cake and coffee were served to over 100 persons attending from Klamath Falls, Bonanza and Langell Valley.

Average age at which President John F. Kennedy's predecessors were inaugurated into office was 55 years.

Hazbin Club

The Hazbin Club met Monday evening, Feb. 27, at the home of Betty Ketsdever for an evening of pinochle play.

Mabel Ward and Bernice Nelson were guests. High score was held by Lola Triax, second by Fannie May Thompson, and low by Stella Persell.

Lola Triax and Bernice Nelson won the 300 pinochle award. Mabel Ward's birthday was observed during the refreshment hour. The March meeting will be at the home of Betty Ketsdever with Louise Davis as hostess.

3-D CLOTH

There's a new pen that writes with a three-dimensional effect on cloth. You can use it to draw glittering embossed decorations on apparel or house linens, in gold, silver or colors. It washes, too.

KEEPS SUEDE UNMARKED

The foot part of old nylon stockings, worn over suede shoes on rainy days, will prevent gashes from marking the suede.
