DUNSMUIR — The city council by unanimous vote endorsed Southern Pacific's proposal to merge with Western Pacific.

City Clerk Elizabeth Cavin was asked to write the Interstate Commerce Commission notifying it of Dunsmuir's endorsement.

"Southern Pacific is Dunsmuir's lifeline," Dave Anderson, councilman, said in proposing the council take a stand.

Wins Contract

McCLOUD — Louie Hayes of Adin was awarded a contract to clear 150 acres of the Lava Burn for plantation preparation. He starts work on the clearing job this week, United States Forest Service officials said.

Hayes' low bid of $26.95 per acre was accepted.

Contracts are soon to be let for planting 460 acres of seedling pines in the burned area.

INDIAN ROYALTY will rule over the annual 1961 National Invitational All-Indian Basketball Tournament at Chiloquin March 16, 17, 18. The tournament is sponsored by the Klamath Reservation Jaycees. One of these pretty maidens will be named Tournament Queen at the Queen's Ball at Chiloquin March 11. The other candidates will be members of the royal court. Left to right are Michele McNoise, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haines McNoise, Klamath Falls; Helen Davis, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elveth Davis, this city, and Karen Jenkins, 15, daughter of Mrs. Verna Scott, Klamath Falls, and C. E. Jenkins, Fort Klamath.

Queen Contest Spurs All-Indian Cage Tilt

By RUTH KING

A queen will rule again this year over the 1961 National Invitational All-Indian Basketball Tournament at Chiloquin, March 16, 17, 18. The winner, named by judges on poise, personality, high school academic record and ticket sales before the tournament, will wear the royal headband for the next year.

Last year's monarch was pretty Ramona Soto of Klamath Falls.

It is an exciting experience for the girl candidates who wear glamorous Indian costumes, receive gifts and flowers and hear the acclaim of their loyal subjects.

The queen's contest and the tournament are sponsored by the Klamath Reservation Jaycees.

Bob Farris, queen contest chairman, and Mrs. Farris, chaperone, were in Klamath Falls Friday with Michele McNoise, Helen Davis and Karen Jenkins, this year's contestants. The girls came to the Herald and News for pictures, visited KOTI-TV for an interview, returned to Marie's Cafe at Chiloquin for a steak dinner and climaxed the day by attending the Chiloquin-Prospect basketball game at OTI where they were introduced.

This year's queen, chosen by a committee of judges, will be named at the Queen's Ball in Chiloquin on March 11.

The other two candidates will be members of the royal court.

The new queen will be presented with a wrist watch, the runner-up with a $25 check and the third candidate will receive several cases of Coca Cola.

Costumes worn by the girls for their first public appearance, while not authentic dress of the Klamath Tribe, were beautiful and ornate.

The single feather worn in the headband denotes a maiden. Two are worn by married women.

Michele McNoise, a high school senior at Sacred Heart Academy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haines McNoise of the Merrill Highway. Her ancestry is half Klamath and half Ponca. She was a princess in her freshman year.

For her first encounter with the cameraman, Wes Guderian, Michele wore fringed white buckskin, beaded by Cora Porter, former resident of Fort Klamath, decked with shells, bells and dyed porcupine quills. Her beaded moccasins are from the Cheyennes, her headband the Ponca tribe and her silver belt and other Indian symbols are from Arizona.

Michele is a dancer. An aunt in Oklahoma is making a "squaw dress" for her niece, to be worn during the festivities.

Helen Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elveth Davis, 17, is thirteen-sixteenths Klamath and for her in Pendleton. Karen, 15, youngest of the three, is the daughter of Mrs. Verna Scott of Klamath Falls, and C. E. Jenkins, Fort Klamath. She is a sophomore at Chiloquin High School and has not been a candidate in other years. Karen is a full-blood Klamath.

Baby Feeding

- Hernia
- Grapefruit
- Flavored Aspirin
- Dreaming Necessary

Q. Should babies be fed on schedule or "on demand?"

A. Many doctors believe in "on demand" feeding. This means that the child be fed whenever he is hungry. It doesn't imply that the baby be made to cry through a protracted period of trying in order to have his hunger satisfied.

Q. Will exercise strengthen the stomach muscles and make a hernia go away?

A. No. The weak point between the abdomen and thigh consists of overlapping layers of fibrous tissue—not muscle—and fibrous tissue doesn't respond to exercise as does muscle. Anyone with a hernia who engages in strenuous exercise is inviting trouble. With certain exceptions, hernias should be corrected surgically.

Q. Which has more food value—white or pink grapefruit?

A. Pink grapefruit is said to be nutritionally superior to white varieties.

Henley High News

By LINDA LANPHEAR

"The Soaring Sixties" is the theme for the Henley High School money-raising program to be staged Thursday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the school gym. The proceeds will help purchase lights for the football field.

The entertainment will be provided by the six classes in the school. Juniors will entertain first, followed by the seventh grade, then the senior class.

Refreshments will be for sale during a brief intermission. The freshmen will present a detective story titled "Naked Town," starring Mike Peacock as Lt. Parker. John Riggs as Finch and Dick Johnson as Mascara. Their advisers are Harlan Heyden and David Dougherty. Student director is Mike Peacock. They will also have more entertainment if time allows.

The sophomore class will provide a humorous variety show based on typical scenes on television. Sophomore advisers are Len Weber and Tom Peterson. Student Committee chairmen are Joe Kerns, Dick Houck, Mike Beymer and Bev Longhofer.

Next in line will be the eighth grade. This class will entertain with a debate featuring Jerry Finchem as Nikita Khrushchev and Bill Fisher as President John F. Kennedy. During this debate there will be songs, dances and space capsules. Adult advisers are Ruben Peterson and Andy Travis. Student director is Denise Hall.

The juniors are going to give a reading of a popular poem that will include dancing, singing and a combo. Glyn Blackman will narrate the poem, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

Sam Herringshaw will portray Dan McGrew, with Dave Woodard as "The Lady Known as Lou." Faculty advisers are David Lindberg and Jim Bullock. Student director is Brad Sexton.

The seventh grade will present a pantomime of the poem "Pied Piper of Hamelin." Sam Hill will narrate the poem, with John Caldwell as the Pied Piper and Ross Lanphear as "Baby Huey." Advisers are Darrel Nichols and Mrs. Viola Dickson.

The seniors will present a musical program featuring many of their talented students. Ray Brown and Kathy Wilcox will do a dance. Chuck Blofsky will sing and the remainder of the show is to be kept as a surprise.

Bert Allbrington and Sue Phair are student directors and Louise Mitchell and Earl Graham are advisers. Master of ceremonies for the evening will be Phil Jameson. Darrel Nichols is chairman and adviser to all the classes.

Harlan Heyden is in charge of a committee that is planning a baby sitting service.

Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students of all grades, including the participants. The winning class will be dismissed early one day to go to lunch. They will have special tables, a special dessert and they will be presented with a plaque with the class year engraved on it.

The winner will be chosen by the greatest applause registered by the applause meter during the program. Each class will be allowed 20 minutes. All proceeds will go to the football lights fund.
