

Couple Weds In Montana

St. Ann's Cathedral in Great Falls, Mont., was the setting of the wedding of Ardeell Kasper and Richard Glenn Taylor Jan. 7 with Father D. Dwyer performing the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Kasper of St. Michael, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Taylor, Tulelake, are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of tulle over taffeta with sequin trimmed inserts of lace on the side panels. Lace and sequins outlined the scalloped neckline of the bodice made with elbow length sleeves. The fingertip veil was held in place by a cap trimmed with lace and sequins. The bridal bouquet was a purple orchid on a background of white feathered chrysanthemums.

Vanette Koch, maid of honor, and Willy Tholen, bridesmaid, both of Great Falls, wore identical dresses of dark blue taffeta with V necklines and three quarter sleeves. Matching slippers and headbands completed their costumes. Each carried a bouquet of blue iris and white feathered chrysanthemums.

Pat Herriger served as best man and Harvey Helston, groomsman. Both are of Great Falls. Ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Ival Taylor of Malin and Clifford Taylor, Tulelake.

Mrs. Kasper wore for the occasion a blue stripe silk dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Taylor chose a navy blue sheath dress with matching accessories. Pink and white feathered chrysanthemums were corsages for both mothers.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at The Beacon. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Carlton Ramsland, sister of the bridegroom. Ruth Ames attended the guest book.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Sun Valley, returning to make their home at 116 Third Avenue North in Great Falls. The bridegroom, a graduate of Tulelake High School, is employed with the FAA.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albin Kasper and Denny of St. Michael, Minn.; Mrs. A. Koch, Loretta, Minn.; Mrs. Carl Taylor and Clifford, Tulelake; Ival Taylor, Malin; Jean and Dorothy Taylor, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Carlton Ramsland and Dennis, Cloverdale, Ore.
