

KUHS Choir Concert Set For Thursday

The Klamath Union High School a cappella choir, string orchestra and Madrigal Singers will present a public concert Thursday, March 9, beginning at 8 p.m. in Mills School Auditorium.

The 70-minute concert will feature numbers that the groups will present for the Music Educators' Association National Convention (Northwest Division) during the spring vacation March 15 through 18 at Spokane.

The full choir of 85 voices will sing and the full string orchestra of 23 pieces will perform. Only 60 choir members and 22 string orchestra members will make the Spokane trip, however.

The Madrigal Singers are 20 selected voices from the choir.

The feature number will be Franz Schubert's "Mass in G" by the choir with orchestral accompaniment. Schubert was 18 when he composed the work.

The work has gained recognition in this country mainly since its famous presentation by the Robert Shaw Chorale and Orchestra. The mass will be sung entirely in Latin.

The remainder of the program will be as follows:

"Quest for God" by Allen, choir and orchestra; "Agnus Dei" by Morley and "Advent Motet" by Schreck, choir and antiphonal choir; "Deo Gracias" by Britten and "Hospodi Pomilui" by Von-Lvov, choir; "My Heart Doth Beg" by DiLasso; "The Silver Swan" by Gibbons; "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves" by Purcell, "O Gentle Moon" by Stephen, "Matona, Lovely Maiden" by DiLasso and "Now Is the Month of Maying" by Morley, the Madrigal Singers; "G Minor Fugue" by Bach, "Three Divertimento Movements" by Mozart and "Norwegian Dance" by Grieg, the string orchestra.

General admission is 50 cents and tickets are available from any choir and orchestra member. They may also be obtained by calling KUHS, TU 2-4446.

M. Dale Hallack, director of vocal music in city schools and concert director, said just 815 tickets will be sold, since Mills Auditorium will hold no more.

Eleven members of the school's International Relations Club traveled to Eugene last Thursday for a Model United Nations Workshop held at the University of Oregon through Saturday.

The delegates attended three meetings of the General Assembly in MacArthur Court, and worked on committees, commissions, and councils during their three-day stay in Eugene—all according to the functions of the United Nations in New York city.

However not all was work. One of the many highlights of the conference was the Fourteenth Annual International Relations Banquet staged at 7 p.m. Friday in the Student Union Building on the UO campus.

Those delegates from Klamath Union who were asked to represent the United Arab Republic were Jack Riley, Charlton Currin, Rod Sparlin, Charlotte Dickinson, Myrna Frewing, Dave Sibbet, Rich Mollison, Martha Pierson, Livio Valdemarin, Marilyn Thorne and Ginger Leaming.

Student Council representatives assembled after school last Thursday to elect a new rally queen and to appropriate money to send the school's rally squad, pep band, and Pelican Service Club to the State Tournament March 14 through 18 at the University of Oregon gym.

After hearing reports from several of the standing committees, the body approved the budgets of the rally squad, band, and service club; and then elected Joan Wizzer as the new yell queen.

Sweetheart Ball

BONANZA — The annual Bonanza Parents and Patrons Association Sweetheart Ball will be held at the school Saturday from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

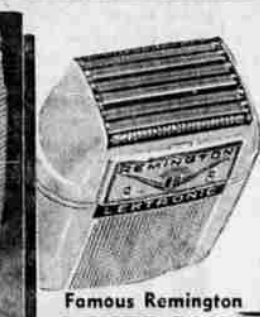

The Smoothies will furnish music. Supper will be served throughout the evening. The king and queen will be crowned at 11 p.m.
