

PTA Plans Family Night

For fun and laughs galore the public is invited by Altamont School PTA to attend family fun night Friday, March 10, in the cafeteria from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Admission for adults is 35 cents and children 15 cents.

Entertainment will include basketball games between dads and seventh and eighth grade boys; mom-daughter volley ball contests; and wrestling and basketball games among the grade school youngsters.

Homemade candy, pie, cake and coffee and punch will be sold in the cafeteria.

To top off the evening's fun a style show and revue will be presented by the dads.

"Glamorous Dads" who will model are asked to call Mrs. E. Elliott, TU 4-4779; "Peppy Mothers," please call Bud Patzke, TU 4-6005, for volleyball, and "Energetic Dads" for basketball, contact Clark Good, TU 4-7368.

Tickets will be sent home for early sales and will also be sold at the door.

This is the PTA fund raising project for the year and the members' cooperation is asked to make it a successful affair.

Homemade candy will be furnished by the grade school. The seventh grade will bring cakes and the eighth grade pies.

Families with youngsters in more than one room or school are asked to support one only.

The Bob Lynns Bid Farewell

RIVERSIDE SCHOOL.

The Melody Mothers under the direction of Mrs. W. Don Miller sang "I Heard a Forest Praying," "The Robin in the Rain," and "Sweetheart" from Romberg's "Maytime" to open the Founders Day observance for the Riverside PTA Feb. 21 in the school gym. Many members of this group are present or past members of this local unit.

Mrs. Mike Balcom conducted the business meeting. She announced the formation of a new chairmanship, coordinator for the girls rally squad under the direction of Mrs. Gerald Nicholson. This committee will function with the elected girls from the sixth and seventh grades.

During the tea, past presidents were introduced. Those present were Mrs. Eldred Hansen, 1947-48; Mrs. Orson Stearns, 1956-57; and Mrs. Julian Eccles, 1959-60.

Flag salute was led by Orin Perkins and the room count was taken by Don Golding. Mrs. James Young's first grade and Mrs. Claude Long's fifth grade were the winners. Don Golding announced spring vacation would be March 11-19.

The president re-nominated members the state convention will be held in Astoria this year, April 25, 26, 27.

Hostesses for the day were the seventh grade room mothers, Mrs. Ruby Brown, Mrs. Orson Stearns and Mrs. Adolph Zomsky. Mrs. Eldred Hansen and Mrs. Art Cherry assisted at the tea table.

SHASTA SCHOOL. Founders Day was observed Feb. 2 by Shasta PTA at the annual tea. Mrs. Bert Goff, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Phyllis Kenny was program chairman.

Corsages were given to three past presidents, Mrs. L. F. Lund, Mrs. Harold Smith and Mrs. Floyd Ruck.

Entertainment included humor. The award was made following a program in which the school student body held a panel discussion of problems of school today.

"A SHOWER OF FASHIONS" will be shown March 18 at the sixth annual style show sponsored by Omicron Chapter of Mount Shasta Beta Sigma Phi. Dunsmuir and Mount Shasta stores are presenting the fashion review starting at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Shown are four of the models; left to right, Toni Onista, Kathy Davidson, Judy Hoffenstein and Mary Ann Hickman.

ous readings by Ellen Veatch; poems by Terry Blach, and an accordion solo by Ronald Larson.

Elected to serve on the nominating committee were Mrs. Thelma Janssen, chairman; Mrs. William P. Ward Jr. and Mrs. Lester Brookshire.

Mrs. Max Marvin's third grade won the room count.

Refreshments were served by the fourth grade mothers.

MOUNT SHASTA SCHOOL.

MOUNT SHASTA—George Thebolt, member of Siskiyou County High School Board, president of Mt. Shasta Recreational District, and active in senior citizens coordinated council, was recently given an honorary life membership in the Mount Shasta High School PTA.

Beta Sigma Phi To Stage Review

MOUNT SHASTA — "A Shower of Fashions" has been chosen by Omicron Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi as the theme for the sixth annual fashion show scheduled for March 18 at 8 p.m. in the Mount Shasta High School auditorium.

An outstanding evening of style showings is being prepared by participating merchants of Dunsmuir and Mount Shasta.

Proceeds from past shows have enabled the sorority to buy an oxygen analyzer for the Community Hospital as well as an annual supply of crayons and color books for young hospital patients.

Hot lunches, emergency dental care and clothing have also been provided for needy children in the past.

ing work in the park picnic area.

In addition, the group has participated in national projects by donations to cancer and cystic fibrosis research.

Tickets to this year's fashion affair may be purchased for one dollar from any sorority member.
