RUTH KING - Church Editor

BIBLE BAPTIST CHURCH kindergarten classes, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, are attended by children of all denominations. Sixty children are divided between the two groups. The curriculum follows the same schedule as the public schools with the addition of a Bible lesson. The children study in an attractive, well-lighted room in the church. Mrs. Glada Fuller is the teacher. Mrs. J. W. Carter, assistant, left, helps, seated left to right, Jeannette Commons, Connie Jo Gillespie and Pamela Kay Thompson. Standing, left to right, are Mark Shaw, Mark David Chandler and Chuckie Redfield.

Friendship Club Meets

GREENVIEW — The Cecile Harris Friendship Club met recently for a costume-potluck party at the Methodist Church. Mrs. Sadie Buchner opened the meeting with "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled." Other readings were by Mrs. Pearl Hammer, Kate Berthelsen, Myrtle Brown and Ruth Hughes. Beryl Sheffield and Kate Berthelsen presented a skit, "This Match Won't Light," followed by readings by Dorothy Grune and Cecile Davis. The club voted to donate $2.50 to the Etna Methodist Church, $2 to Father Kelly's Boys Home in Chicago and $4 to Helen Keller for overseas work among the blind. Those present were Mrs. Lottie Ball, Mrs. Bertha Grimes, Mrs. Maudie McFall, Beryl Sheffield, Callie Gordon, Mrs. Pauline Mallow, Mrs. Hollie Semple, Mrs. Maud Short, Beverly Polston, Mrs. Mary Hammer, Pearl Hammer, Sadie Buchner, Ruth Hughes, Kate Berthelsen, Myrtle Brown, Cecile Davis, Dorothy Grune and Eddy Grune.

MRS. NORMAN C. MCGOURTY, 4661 Thompson Avenue, left, and Mrs. P. J. Brady, 1908 Worden Avenue, attend church services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. They were on their way to morning worship when Wes Guiderian of the Herald and News asked for a picture.

Revival Meeting

A Los Angeles revivalist, R. E. Hatch, will conduct a revival meeting nightly at 7:30 at the Youth Soldiers For Christ Inc., 1442 Oregon Avenue, starting March 12. Pastor Effie Shelby invites the public to hear the sermons. There will be special singing.

Malin Ancient Mariners In Potluck Dinner Meet

MALIN — The Ancient Mariners of Malin Presbyterian Church met Tuesday evening in the social hall. The roast beef dinner to be held March 11 was discussed. Karl Gentry of Tulelake, and Mrs. Warren Ochs of Merrill. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Smalley.

Services Mark Holiness Emphasis Week

A series of special services under auspices of the Klamath Basin Holiness Association will mark the second annual "Holiness Emphasis Week" in this area. These meetings will be held in the Salvation Army Chapel, Fourth and Klamath, March 19 to 26, and will feature as guest speakers Dr. W. S. Deal, of El Monte, Calif., and the Rev. L. Dow Wright, of St. Helens, Ore.

The Rev. C. O. Tremain, president of the KBHA, announces that the public is cordially invited to attend these services. He calls attention to the fact that Dr. Deal speaks from a rich and successful pastor in the Church of the Nazarene for more than 25 years. It is no stranger to this area. Last May he concluded a five-year pastorate at First Church in Klamath Falls and is now serving at St. Helens. His messages are well prepared, delivered under the anointing of the spirit, and have a practical appeal for young and old alike.

Member churches of the KBHA are the Free Methodist, First Nazarene, Lakeside Nazarene, Pilgrim Holiness, and the Salvation Army.

Bonanza Altar Society Meets

LANGELL VALLEY — The Altar Society of St. Frances Cabrini Catholic Church of Bonanza met at the home of Mrs. Frank Kucera at 2 p.m. March 2. Father Scanlon led the group in prayer. Mrs. Don Ralph presided in the absence of Mrs. Irwin Beck, president.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Tommy O'Connor of Bonanza on April 6.

Attending were Father Thomas Scanlon of Klamath Falls, Mrs. LeRoy Fernlund, Mrs. Jack Lynch, Mrs. Maurice Spillane, Mrs. Tom O'Connor, Mrs. Jack McCarrie, Mrs. Don Ralph, Mrs. Charles Steber and Mrs. Kucera.

CHURCH SPURNED

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — The Binkley Memorial Baptist Church, organized two years ago, was denied membership in the regional Baptist association because the church received new members from other denominations without re-baptizing them.

Methodists Plan Benefit Tea For Home

The Methodist Home in Salem will be remembered on March 18 Service Guild, of which Mrs. Faber was a jurisdiction officer, contributed largely to this chapel. The home is supported by grants from the Woman's Society of Christian Service, by entrance fees, and by gifts. It is attractive, homelike, and comfortable. It is a non-profit institution, with moderate fees, and is still caring for elderly people who entered when more moderate charges were possible. One means of supplementing its funds is the Harvest Home Tea given every fall at Salem when gifts of canned foods and staples are brought, and by teas in Methodist churches throughout the state. The one announced here is of this type. A good attendance of friends is requested.

Welcome For New Members At Peace Memorial Church

Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church and the pastor, the Rev. Laing Sibbet, will welcome new members at the 11 a.m. service, Sunday, March 12. The group has completed the "Inquirers Class" and was received by the session at a dinner this week. A reception in honor of the new members will follow the Sunday morning service.

To be received are James E. Schweigert, Barbara Schweigert, Thomas J. Abernathy, first confession of faith and baptism; Esther Zimmerman, first confession of faith; Ray L. Garrison, Alma Garrison, Wilma Marvin, Doris Abernathy, reaffirmation of faith. LeRoy G. Ruzicka, letter of transfer from Trinity Methodist Church, Minneapolis, Minn.; Barbara Ruzicka, letter of transfer from First Methodist Church, Las Vegas, and Evelyn Schweigert, letter of transfer from Community Presbyterian Church, Tulelake.

James Metter and Twila Metter, letter of transfer from First Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, Calif.

SENATOR'S CHURCH JOB — Sen. Maurice Neuberger (D-Ore.) has been named a member of the Unitarian commission on ethics and social action.

TRUMBO HALL OF ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH, ALTURAS

Priest Ordained, New Hall Decorated

ALTURAS — Hugh Mercer was ordained to the priesthood in St. Michael's Episcopal Church March 7 following dedication on March 6 of Trumbo Hall, nearly completed new parish hall wing of St. Michael's.

A no-host dinner preceded the dedication at the Niles Hotel, attended by a large number of church members and friends.

The dedication service was given by the Right Rev. C. R. Haden Jr., bishop of Sacramento. A coffee hour followed in the newly decorated hall.

The Rev. Horatio N. Tragitt, D.D., former vicar of St. Michael's, preached the ordination sermon for Mr. Mercer the next morning. The candidate invited the Reverend Tragitt to officiate in recognition of a friendship that originated in Lakeview when the pastor was vicar of the Lakeview Episcopal Church.

W. NORMAN COOPER

Scientists To Hear Lecture

The meaning for today of divine power and goodness will be emphasized in a lecture on Christian Science to be given in Klamath Falls Sunday, March 12, by W. Norman Cooper.

Open to the public without charge, the lecture will be sponsored by the members of First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Cooper will speak in Mills School Auditorium, East Main and Orchard, at 3 p.m. Free parking and nursery facilities will be provided.

On extensive tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Cooper has traveled widely. He has devoted his full time for several years to the public practice of Christian Science healing. He became an authorized teacher of Christian Science in 1952 and a lecturer four years later. His present home is Los Angeles.

To help those who desire to attend this lecture but have no means of getting there, transportation will be provided if they will call the Christian Science Reading Room, TU 4-3797 before 5 o'clock Saturday.

Deacons In Discussion

MERRILL — Deacons of the Merrill Presbyterian Church met recently to discuss business and projects of the group.

The Rev. Lloyd Henderson has recorded several of his sermons and volunteered to go to homes of shut-ins and those who are ill so they could hear him, if the families will notify him.

The group has started a family mission study each Sunday evening at 5 p.m. in the church. Those attending are asked to bring sandwiches and dessert for their family for a potluck that follows the study.

March 19 has been set aside as "One Great Hour of Sharing," when the special little offering parcels sent home with Sunday School students will be collected. Eight members and the Rev. Lloyd Henderson were present for the meeting.

MOVEMENT OPPOSED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Roman Catholic Church has reiterated its opposition to Catholic participation in the Moral Rearmament Movement through statements issued by Bishop Thomas I. Noe of Marquette, Mich., and Bishop Wendelin J. Nold, of the Galveston-Houston, Tex., diocese.
