BETA PHI CHAPTER

The Beta Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held two meetings in the month of February.

The first meeting Feb. 7 was at the home of Jean Bingham. A short business meeting was held. Rita Backa was chosen princess to represent the chapter at the Valentine Ball held at Reames Feb. 18.

Shirley Bissell reported on the hospital meeting. The American Cancer Society provided a film which was shown to the group. The title of the film was "Living Insurance."

Program for the evening was presented by Joanne Gestvang. Her topic was "Nature's Landscape" from the book "Beauty." She also showed a film entitled "This Is Oregon."

Nominating Committee members selected are Aura Mitchell, Shirley Bissell, Lillian Hayden, Lois Egger and Jean Bingham.

A handkerchief and earring party was held for Ruth Drewniany, who is moving to another community. Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Lois Egger and Pat Lukes.

The second meeting was held Feb. 21 at the home of Marge Seutter.

After a short business meeting, Ena Rodgers presented her program from the book "Beauty." Her topic was entitled "The Artist's Landscape." Ena Rodgers introduced her guest, Joan Howard, an artist who showed samples of her work, and explained how she became interested in painting, tools needed to paint, and answered questions on the subject.

Visiting guest for the evening was Helen Pop, of the Xi Mu Chapter in Medford. Refreshments were served by co-hostesses Rita Backa and Aura Mitchell.

MOPFUL CLEANS FLOOR

A newly-developed nylon mop head holds six times its weight in water. Dip this into a pail of hot soap or detergent just once, and it soaks up enough to wash an entire kitchen floor.

BRIDGE PLAY
WINNERS TOLD

Twelve tables were in play at the Thursday evening, March 2, session of the Lakeshore Duplicate Club at the City Library.

North-south first place winners were Dr. Irving Cater and Chuck Bateman. John Lake and George McClary were second, and Mrs. Lloyd Goble and Mrs. Leona Robertson tied with Mrs. Harold Cloake and Mrs. Louis Serrys for third and fourth places.

Mrs. Grace Kresse and Mrs. V. C. Rexford were first in the east-west position. In second place were Dr. and Mrs. Seth Kerron. Mrs. Robert Sproat and Mrs. Doran Schaeffer were third.

Nine tables were present at the Tuesday morning session, March 7. North-south winners were Mrs. Lena Smith and Mrs. Lloyd Goble, followed by Mrs. Frank Ricky and Mrs. William Cunningham, second, and Mrs. F. W. Hyde and Mrs. Robert Chilcote, third.

Mrs. Chester Stonecypher and Mrs. Byron Johnson were east-west first. Mrs. Bob Cheyne and Mrs. O. K. Puckett were second, and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun and Mrs. James Stilwell, third.

ONCE AGAIN this much-awaited, one-a-year traveling companion is ready to go with you and take you fragrantly to your destination and back. Chic, black and gold container holds a generous supply of world famous fragrance. A gleaming gold atomizer, individually boxed, especially designed to fit the traveler, enables the user to transform it into a beautiful dressing table accessory.

Bethel 61

The March 6 meeting of Job's Daughters, Bethel 61, held at the Scottish Rite Temple was conducted by Honored Queen Carolyn Osburn, with Mrs. Bettie Ball, guardian, and Gus Vlahos, associate guardian, in attendance.

Honorary members included Charles B. Lieb, calvary commander, and Frank McCormack, watchman of the shepherds of White Shrine, who announced April 1 as the date of installation of officers of the Shrine.

The "Roaring Twenties" will be the theme of the spring dance, plans for which will be discussed at the council meeting Monday, March 13, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ball, 855 Eldorado.

Bethel 61 plans a car wash Saturday, March 11, at the Shell Station, corner of East Main and South Sixth streets. Proceeds will go to the philanthropic fund of Job's Daughters.

An interesting historical report was given by Linda Kurre. The honored queen announced the next Bethel meeting for Monday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Theta Rho
Elects Slate

ETNA—Mildred (Rusty) Martin was elected president of Fawn Theta Rho Girls Club at the regular meeting March 2 in the Odd Fellows Hall.

Elected to serve with her are Marjorie Clay, vice president; Cherie Black, secretary, and Martha Allen, treasurer. Installation will be April 6.

During the business meeting, in charge of Mildred Martin, plans were discussed for a food sale on March 18.

Linda Starr and Mildred Martin announced they would attend the assembly scheduled later this month in San Jose.

MIDRIFF DECOR

The girl who collects belts would love one in satin with a self-bow fastener. And another that folds over like a sash.

GUERNSEY

A VISITOR to Klamath Falls this week was Mrs. G. B. (Eleanor) Kirkpatrick of Portland. As area supervisor of Welcome Wagon hostesses in Oregon and a part of Washington, she came to this city to meet with Mrs. Violet Koehn, hostess for Klamath County. Mrs. Kirkpatrick stated there are 60 hostesses now serving in Oregon, 25 of these in the Portland area. Welcome Wagon activities include greeting new families, new babies, and parties for future brides. — Photo by Guderian

Newlyweds
Are Honored

Only seven of the more than 100 islands of the Hawaiian group are inhabited.

DUNSMUIR—A shower for Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ross Jr. was held recently at the Episcopal Guild Hall.

JoAnn Hartsfield was hostess and about 40 guests gathered to present gifts to the newlyweds. Games followed the opening of gifts and the serving of refreshments concluded the evening.

Mrs. Ross, formerly Carolyn Cooney, became a bride recently in a Reno ceremony.
