

Girl Scouts Set Dinners

The February and March Girl Scout dad-daughter dinners are continuing throughout the Klamath Area Council, says Mrs. Harriette Brothwood, council executive.

The events are anticipated with eagerness each year by Brownie, intermediate and senior scout troops, for the girls and their fathers share an evening of pleasure together, she adds.

At the same time, the dad has a chance to see some of the results of his contribution to United Fund, since the fund makes Girl Scouting possible.

Preliminary preparations and planning for the dinners take place in neighborhood association meetings. Neighborhoods are comprised of all volunteer personnel working with troops within each stipulated area.

Usually, three to five schools are incorporated in a neighborhood area.

When first planning is complete, troops within a school combine to carry out the project. Each troop issues its own invitations, plans and arranges table appointments and menu and prepares its contribution to the full program.

Girls try to show imagination and originality in their table centerpieces and other table appointments to provide conversation pieces.

Dinners are generally potluck, so that mothers of brownies and younger scouts also participate in preparing and serving the dinner.

Themes for this year's dinners vary, but many adhere to the national theme "Golden Blossoms for the Birthday Years."

Six dinners, all very successful, were served in February and eight more are scheduled during March.

Altamont junior high school and elementary school troops conducted their dinners at Shasta Grange Hall. The Grange sponsors Troop 77 at Altamont.

Fremont Junior High School Troop 50 and combined troops at Mills, Riverside, Conger and Fairview schools also had dinners this month.

So far during March, troops at Roosevelt, Peterson and Stearns schools have served dinners and Falcon Heights and Ferguson schools' troops will have theirs after the spring vacation.

The Falcon Heights troop's dinner will be at the officers club at Kingsley Field.

Representation Change Asked

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, a U. S. delegate to the United Nations, proposes that the Nationalist Chinese U. N. delegation be limited to representing Formosa.

"The fiction of Formosa representing the Chinese people will not be acceptable at the next session," she said Thursday night in a speech at University of Massachusetts.

Mrs. Roosevelt said Red China currently is unqualified for U. N. membership because of wartime declarations and invasion of Tibet. She pointed out that every nation desiring admittance to the U. N. must declare its peaceful intentions.

Bible Baptist Youth Night

A special Youth Night will be held at the Bible Baptist Church, 244 Ward Street, Saturday evening. A potluck dinner for all teen-age young people will be held in Field's Hall at 6:30 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m. the group will go to the church auditorium.

Rev. Paul Green, who is conducting meetings at the church this week, a former Youth for Christ director, will give his testimony and play his double-belled euphonium. Special music will also include the Girls' Ensemble of Judson Baptist College in Portland.

Reverend Green will bring his closing message of the Spiritual Life Crusade at the 11 a.m. service Sunday at 7 p.m. Mrs. Green will offer special music. An invitation is extended to attend these services.

City Council Picks Board

LAKEVIEW — At the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening Howard M. Good-nough was named on the Budget Committee to take the place vacated by John Buel. The other members reappointed on the committee are Phil Quisenberry, R. M. Johns, R. L. McLane and T. R. Conn.

A resolution was enacted to release the airport lands suitable for farming for another five years. Bids will be asked for and opened at a meeting on April 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the city hall. The land has been under lease to Williams Brothers for several years.

The town council will cooperate with the Elks Lodge in the observance of Youth Day on May 1, at which time the Lakeview schools will arrange for youth officers to take over the reins of the town government.

Dorris Buys Patrol Car

DORRIS—The Dorris City Council at the regular monthly meeting Monday night opened six sealed bids for a fully equipped city police patrol car. The board accepted the bid of Dugan and Mast of Klamath Falls. The net bid price submitted by them was slightly higher than four of the other five bids, but the patrol car offered by that company is more fully equipped and the board feels that it will give the city more satisfactory service.

The net bid is for $1,953.23 plus sales or use tax of three per cent. The bid gives $310 trade in value on the present patrol car.

The addition of a transistor three-way radio at $628.75 and an electronic siren at $149.50 are to be purchased by the city and the installation cost will be born by the city.

The other companies submitting bids were Joe Fisher, $2,441.10; Balsiger Motor Company, $1,915.46; Jim Olson Motors, $2,100; Klamath Motors, $1,852.86, all of Klamath Falls, and James V. Mallory, $2,120.71 of Weed.

Ray Allen was appointed and named police commissioner by the Dorris City Council to fill the unexpired term of Norman Meek who resigned last month and whose term expires in April, 1962.

Allen has been the yard foreman at the Associated Lumber and Box Company at Dorris.

The council instructed Virginia Hamilton, city clerk, to find out about acquiring tax delinquent property that has been submitted to the Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors for approval and sale.

The property consists of two lots with 50-foot frontage located in the south end of Dorris. The minimum price is $100 per lot.

A 10-minute loading zone in front of Kerwin's Market on Third and California streets was authorized by the council.

Building permits were issued to W. A. Sargent to remodel and repair the fronts of three rental buildings on Main Street. New materials are to be used at a cost of $700.

Mrs. Joe Foote was also given a permit to remodel home by closing in front porch to make a larger living room, $800.

Traffic Signal Activated Here

The new three-way traffic signal light at South Sixth Street and Altamont Drive was activated Thursday afternoon and is working fine, say state officials.

But technicians are having some trouble with the controller at a new signal at South Sixth and Summers Lane. It is not expected to go into operation for two weeks.

The signals are of the type that are controlled to a certain extent by the flow of traffic.

President To Preach

Alvan Tiffin, president of San Jose Bible College, will be the pulpit guest at First Christian Church, Ninth and Pine streets, Sunday, March 12, at the 11 o'clock worship hour. President Tiffin assumed the leadership of the college in December of 1960.

Previously to this time he was pastor of Central Christian Church in Portland.

Especially interested in getting better acquainted with Christian Church people of this area, Tiffin will bring a gospel message.

First Nighters Cheer Montague Show

By BETTY DOW

MONTAGUE — First nighters cheered during Thursday evening's performance of "Frantic Antics," this year's version of the traditional Montague Variety Show, scheduled for presentation again Friday and Saturday.

This year's extravaganza is sponsored jointly by the Montague Parent Teacher Association and the Shasta Valley Community Club and will feature scenes from 1850 to 1970.

Noted television personalities will be impersonated such as "Matt Basterson," "Hyatt Burp," and "Mart Baverick." From the early day history of Siskiyou County there will be a feature depicting such personalities as Lotta Crabtree, who sang and danced as a small girl in the Arcade Saloon, now Con Brown's in Yreka; Abe Thompson, whose discovery of gold led to the founding of Yreka, and Captain Jack of the Modoc Indian War.

Another feature will be scenes of the roaring twenties, highlighted with authentic costumes and dances of that era. There will also be soft shoe dances and musical numbers.

"Panting Pets in Panties" must be seen to be appreciated, and the "Gals from Outer Space" will be something new. Beatniks, too, will have worked their way into the picture.

The whole production promises to be something new and different in entertainment, complete with beautiful and hilarious costumes, and authentic props. Many of the oldtimers who have participated in previous shows will do so again as well as many new performers with talent.

Proceeds from the two nights of the show will be earmarked for Montague's swimming pool fund, while the third night's proceeds will go into the Montague PTA treasury.

Judge Chase sentenced Pennington to a fine of $300 or serve 60 days in the county jail at Yreka. He was committed in lieu of the fine.

Also appearing before Judge Les Chase was Quentin Main Bates, 22, Portland, charged with speeding at 105 miles per hour, reckless driving and with having no valid operator's license.

Judge Chase committed Bates to the county jail for 35 days in lieu of a $175 bail.

Merrill Driver Jailed By Judge

DORRIS—Ora Pennington, 55, Merrill, appeared before Judge Les Chase in the Dorris Justice Court this week charged with driving while intoxicated, failing to drive on right side of roadway and defective brakes and horn.

Judge Chase sentenced Pennington to a fine of $300 or serve 60 days in the county jail at Yreka. He was committed in lieu of the fine.

Also appearing before Judge Les Chase was Quentin Main Bates, 22, Portland, charged with speeding at 105 miles per hour, reckless driving and with having no valid operator's license.
