Tulelake Pair Wed 25 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Takacs, well known Tulelake ranchers, observed their 25th wedding anniversary Feb. 26. Nearly 150 friends greeted the couple at a reception from 2 till 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Takacs' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Thompson of Midland. Assisting were another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cahill.

Greeting guests as they arrived was another sister of Mrs. Takacs, Mrs. John Lane of Adel. The honored couple first cut a three tiered silver and white wedding cake which was later served by Mrs. Ben Schultz of Tulelake.

The table, covered with a cloth of white net, was beautifully appointed with silver, candelabra, coffee service, trays and punch bowl.

Serving coffee was Mrs. Arnold Gosnell of Rogue River. Punch was poured by Mrs. Anton Suty Jr.

The guest book was attended by Mrs. Takacs' cousin, Mrs. George Marsen.

Mrs. Takacs was the former Mildred Suty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty of Merrill, before her marriage Feb. 22, 1936, in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, this city.

Surprise guests at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil King of Richmond, former residents of Tulelake.

Recent Bride Is Honored

TULELAKE — Mrs. James B. Johnson (Betty Havlina) was honored Feb. 27 at a delightfully planned miscellaneous shower. About 50 guests gathered in the annex of the Church of Christ to greet the new Mrs. Johnson. The young couple was married in Reno Jan. 23. They are presently making their home in Tulelake.

Hostesses were Eileen Darrow, Chlora Urbach, Janice Kastan, Lula King, Betty Steyskal, Juanita Wood, Sharon Carroll, Alice Barber, Wanda Hickey and Dorothy Manceau.

The refreshment table was centered with a pink and white tiered wedding cake. The confection was served by Mrs. Ivan Rose, Tulelake, aunt of the bride, after Mrs. Johnson cut the first slice. Mrs. Chester Havlina, mother of the bride, was at the silver coffee service and Mrs. Ben Johnson, mother of the bridegroom, served punch.

A POPULAR COUPLE have left Klamath Falls after 12 years to make a new home in Reno. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mills, pictured at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stone who entertained at a farewell dinner in their honor, were active in many city groups, including the Moose Lodge. He was associated with Wards Funeral Home until this past year when he was employed at Herman's. Mary Mills was one of the oldest time employees at Oregon Technical Institute. He will be affiliated with the Walton Funeral Home in Reno. — Photo by Kettler

Affair Fetes Newlyweds

MALIN—A reception and social evening Friday, Feb. 17, at the Malin Community Hall honored Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson. Mrs. Johnson is the former Betty Havlina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Havlina of Tulelake. Jim Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson of Malin. Nearly 100 friends gathered to offer their congratulations.

The hall was decorated in valentine motif of cupids and hearts. The refreshment table was covered with a beautiful handmade white lace cloth, centered with an arrangement of red roses and lily of the valley. A large sheet cake decorated with names "Jim and Betty" completed the table decorations.

A reading, "The Bride," was given by Alice Johnson.

Several tables of bridge and pinocle were in play during the evening. A buffet dinner was served later. Mrs. Chester Havlina, mother of the bride, presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Ben Johnson, mother of the bridegroom, at the punch bowl.

Hostesses for the evening were Lois Evans, Alice Olsen, Amelia Barney, Rose Havlina, Naomi Micka, Ilys Reeves, Elva Smalley, Emma Morelock, Ellen Smalley, Lorraine Shell and Bessie Corbett.
