Comes now the time of the year when the college basketball fan takes a look at the big NCAA, small NCAA, the NIT and the NAIA and yells SOS.

Hornets Test A-2 Favorite In 1st Round

COOS BAY (AP) — The Oregon Class A-2 High School Basketball Tournament opens at Coos Bay this afternoon with Madras meeting Henley and Reedsport clashing with Sherwood.

Tonight it will be Pleasant Hill vs. Coquille and Mt. Angel vs. Seaside.

Madras has the best record, 22-1, of the eight entries. The Central Oregon team, sparked by 6-4 Joe Piedmont, was undefeated this season until it lost to Bend of the class A-1 Intermentum League.

Bert Albritton, 6-1, Ray Brown, 5-9, and big sophomore Ken Gooding, 6-6, led the Henley contingent (19-3) into the tourney opener. The game marks a first for the Hornets, champions of District Six. They are appearing in a state playoff for the first time in the history of the school.

Seaside, 17-7, is the tallest team with a front line made up of 6-8 Larry Rasmussen, and Larry Schubert and Jim Auld, both 6-2.

Two other teams from the coast, Coquille and Reedsport, are rated strong title threats.

St. Francis of Eugene, the 1960 champion, is not here this year.

Seattle Five AAU Champs

SPRINGFIELD, Ore. (AP) — A Seattle team is the Northwest AAU basketball champion.

The Washington team won the title Saturday night by downing a Eugene squad 63-58. Seattle's Jerry Frizell led the scoring with 24 points.

Eugene's top scorer of the season, Chuck Rask, did not play. He is coach of the University of Oregon Frosh and was in Corvallis with his team for its final game of the season.

Seaside, 17-7, is the tallest team with a front line made up of 6-8 Larry Rasmussen, and Larry Schubert and Jim Auld, both 6-2.

Two other teams from the coast, Coquille and Reedsport, are rated strong title threats.

Don Larsen In 3-Frame No-Hitter

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Don Larsen, the hard-throwing right-hander, made an impressive showing with a no-hit stint in his exhibition season debut for the Kansas City A's.

Continuing his fine spring performances, the hurler who stunned the baseball world with his perfect game for the New York Yankees in the 1956 World Series worked three hitless innings Sunday in the A's 6-3 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Larsen, 31, gave up only one walk, and apparently has overcome the pitching defects that forced the A's to farm him to the minors during the 1960 campaign when he nosed-dived to a 1-10 record and a 5.36 earned run average.

The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates won their third in a row with a 6-2 triumph over Baltimore, and remained undefeated along with the American League's new Washington and Los Angeles entries.

The Senators rapped another Kansas City squad 12-4 while the Angels defeated one of the Chicago Cubs' two outfits 12-5. The transplanted Minnesota Twins, third team in the AL expansion shuffle, lost their second in two starts, 4-4 to Detroit.

In other games, Milwaukee pounded Philadelphia 10-4, St. Louis beat New York 4-2, Cleveland whipped San Francisco 9-2, the Chicago White Sox edged Cincinnati 6-5 in 13 innings, and Boston beat the Cubs' other team 7-3.

Heavyweight Championship Tale-Of-The-Tape

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Here's the tale-of-the-tape for Monday night's Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight:

'I'll Win,' Says Floyd

By FLOYD PATTERSON
(Written For UPI)
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—I will win.

I will win because I don't underestimate myself or Ingemar Johansson this time.

If it's necessary, I will get off the floor to win.

My preparation has been based on my conviction that this fight will be won by the man who is willing to fight the hardest and show the determination to overcome obstacles as they come along the way.

Any man who would say he has a prepared plan to win is kidding himself. True, he may be ready to do certain things to fit certain situations but blueprints for fighting don't exist.

Personally I am more relaxed than for any previous important fight, for the very good reason that, by sweat and some tears in the process of growing up as a fighter, I have matured.

What I have learned is that there's a purpose to fighting in the gym, not that you're in there to punish yourself. What you master is training, and a well-trained fighter can afford to be relaxed.

He is like a schoolboy who walks into the examination room knowing he has read the book from cover to cover.

To sum up, I look for him to put up the fight of his life but I will give him the fight of my life.

'I'll Win,' Claims Ingo

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—I am going to win this fight because I must redeem myself for the second fight. I must make good for my many American friends as well as my friends in Sweden.

It is not a story to retell now, that second fight, the story of how I didn't repeat what I did in the first fight. The story I want to tell is how I dedicated myself for this great moment of the third fight.

For almost a year now I have trained and trained to perfect the tools of my trade. I have also studied Patterson and his habits in the ring. Between the two, I have the method to get the most out of my performance.

How soon or how late in the fight I will win is not for me to say. I think I have the punch to do it soon, but then much depends on how Patterson fights signed Sunday by the Boston Patriots of the American Football League.

The champion was dethroned on a seven knockdown, third round technical knockout in his first fight with Johansson on June 26, 1959.

Then Patterson avenged that upset by blasting his playboy conqueror with a crunching left hook in the fifth round of their return bout on June 20, 1960.

But victory came to Patterson only after he had survived a stunning right hand high on the forehead that dazed him for seconds. Ingo's fatal error was not following up the opening.

This third bout simply boils down to this: Can Johansson connect early with his fast, lethal right? If he doesn't it's almost a cinch he will be mowed down by the machine-gun bursts of the finely trained champion.

The big money for the fighters will come from the closed circuit telecasts, the movies and domestic (ABC) and foreign radio broadcasts. Theater TV is expected to bring in $3 million and could do $3 1/2 million. Each fighter seems assured of at least $750,000 without counting the gate.

The gate should bring each about $100,000.

Johansson, who has been training at Palm Beach, arrived at the fight scene Sunday night. He expected to weigh about 200 pounds at the weigh-in.

Patterson expected to weigh about 193 pounds, the heaviest of his career.

"He's in the greatest shape ever," said trainer Dan Florio. "Ingo is strong and ready," commented trainer Whitey Binstien.

Webfoots, Trojans Open NCAA Action

PORTLAND (AP) — The West-ern Regional NCAA basketball playoffs begin here Wednesday night, with Oregon, Seattle University, Southern California and the Arizona State in the opening round.

A flip of the coin gave Oregon what appeared to be the toughest opponent of the initial round: Southern California — ranked No. 7 nationally, winner of the Big 5 title and possessor of a 20-6 record.

Against all of that, Oregon has a 15-11 record — poorest of all of the six teams chosen for the playoffs. Southern California will again have John Rudometkin in the lineup. He is their top scorer and has been sidelined the last two games by injuries.

The Oregon-Southern California game will be the nightcap of the Wednesday night games in the opener, Seattle University, with an 18-7 record, will meet Arizona State, which has the best record of the four teams — 21 victories and only five losses.

The Wednesday night winners then will meet in one of two games Friday night. The other Arizona State in the opening Friday night contest will match Utah, the Skyline Conference champion, and Loyola of Los Angeles, both of which were selected for the playoffs earlier. The title game will be Saturday night, with the winner going to the national tournament in Kansas City.

Oregon and Seattle were selected for the playoffs Sunday, and both were unanimous choices of Oregon State College and chairman of the selection committee.

Keene said season records and caliber of the opposition had been the deciding factors in selection of Oregon and Seattle.

Yale Wins IC4A Meet

NEW YORK (AP) — Yale University won the IC4A track and field title Saturday after a disqualification prevented Villanova from grabbing the title for the second straight year.

Villanova appeared well on its way to the title in Madison Square Garden with 29 points to Yale's 25 with two events to go, the two-mile relay and the high jump.

Coach Jim Elliott figured that if his team could take second or third in the relay, it wouldn't make much difference what Yale did in the high jump.

Canada Nabs Hockey Title
GENEVA (AP) — Canada's ice hockey stars packed for home today with the world title safely under their belts.

The Canadians took the world title on a better goal average than Czechoslovakia at the end of the 11-day championship Sunday after each team finished with 13 points. The American team finished sixth, defeating Finland 5-2 in the final game.

The match that wrapped it up for the Canadians was a 3-1 victory over Russia in the final match.
