

Legion Posts in Basin Hold Meeting in Malin

MALIN — Over 62 members of the American Legion and its auxiliary from posts at Merrill, Malin and Klamath Falls met for a district conference at the Community Hall here Saturday, March 4.

After a dinner served by Malin unit's auxiliary, the two groups convened in separate meetings.

Conducting the Legion meeting was Merrill Johnson, commander of the department of Oregon. Among officers present were Bonnie Stephens, district president; Lincoln Elzner, commander of Malin Post; W. J. Moore, commander of Merrill Post, and Elton P. Mickelsen, commander of Klamath Falls Post.

Mrs. Maxine Bigalow, president of the auxiliary department of Oregon, conducted the women's meeting.

Officers attending were Mrs. Bessie West of Merrill, district president; Mrs. Julian Abbott, president of Klamath Falls unit, and Mrs. Marjorie Conroy, president of Malin unit.

Johnson and Mrs. Bigalow are on a 16-day tour of the state, visiting each district.

They came to Malin after visiting Lakeview Post.

Meeting Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., today urged the Civil War Centennial Commission to move its mid-April meeting from Charleston, S.C., because of that city's segregation policies. One member of the New Jersey commission is a Negro, Case said.
