By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I work in a very nice department store. I have a good customer just returned from a five-month trip around the world. She must have done nothing but eat because she appears to have gained about 40 pounds. Her usual size is 14. Now she would be lucky to squeeze into a size 20.

in-law if his wife is too sick (1-a-2-y) to clean the house and cook, he'll have to hire someone to do it.

Your sister is not living up to her obligations, and her husband is allowing her to use her pregnancy as an excuse. If you don't spring yourself soon you will probably be asked to be nurse and litter as well as cook and maid.

JFK's Latin America Aid Plan Questioned

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy got hemisphere attention with the 10-point program he laid down this week for Latin America. But there wasn't much new in it. He had said most of it before, and then some.

money to get their industries going again. In Latin America millions lack education and skills, too.

During the presidential campaign—last Oct. 13 at Tampa—he proposed a 12-point program. But this latest one got maximum staging. He unveiled it during a White House reception for 250 Latin American diplomats.

With them it's a problem of trying to bring them abreast of the 20th century. Kennedy didn't put a price tag on his proposals. He told the Latin Americans in effect that they'll have to help themselves to get help from us.

A SEMINAR sponsored here by the Bureau of Labor-Management and Oregon Technical Institute last week attracted these labor leaders, from left, Gracie Sanders, Allen J. Kramer and Doss E. Classified Air Cargo Dumped Out

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Air Force security officials from nearby Olmstead Air Force Base have joined state police in attempting to recover cargo—which may be of a classified nature—which a crippled C47 had to dump overboard in order to make a landing.

nature of the property, dumped overboard. He said security personnel had been dispatched to the scene.

The C47, bound from Rochester, N. Y., to Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, developed engine trouble Tuesday but made a safe landing with one engine at the Wilkes-Barre-Scranton airport after dumping about 4,800 pounds of cargo.

For instance: One of the deepest causes of unrest among the Latin American masses, and one which gives communism a big talking point, is the economic monopoly of the rich on land and resources.

A congressional report last month, made by House members after a trip through Latin America, said one major obstacle to progress there is that 50 per cent of all land is owned by 1 1/2 per cent of the landholders.

Kennedy called for both tax and land reform if the needs of most Latin Americans are to be met. There was a hint in what he said that unless a Latin-American country institutes reforms, it can't expect help.

Also last month two senators—Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa—made a report of their own on Latin America. They said: Latin America's upper classes must recognize they can no longer maintain "their traditional elite status and economic monopoly."

It's an old story: How to persuade those who have to give up some of it peacefully. If they don't, they may suddenly find the Communists have taken over.

If this should happen in one or two mainland Latin-American countries, the problem of reform might be simplified by securing both the rich and the governments into fast action to save themselves from total disaster.

Highway Tax Program Hit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy's highway tax program bumped into bipartisan criticism today in the House Ways & Means Committee.

They were generous in their praise for what he said. But back home officials of their governments were much more restrained. Some expressed disappointment.

It sounded big, the way Kennedy unfolded his program. But the unanswered question is: How really big is it? It isn't a Marshall plan like the one under which this country poured billions into Europe to get it on its feet after the war.

He said then nearly all our economic aid to Latin America—which has been getting only about 5 per cent of our total foreign aid—has been in the form of loans to buy American exports.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you write for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

He suggested long range aid over 10 years, based on cooperative, long-range planning by the Latin Americans.

The weapon was described as an "unarmed nuclear device" by officials at Mather Air Force Base near Sacramento, where the plane was based. They said such weapons customarily are carried as component parts that must be assembled or "armed" before they are ready to explode.
