Tri City Club Hosts Husbands

MERRILL—The women of the Merrill-Malin-Tulelake Pinochle Club honored their husbands with a night on the town starting with dinner in a Klamath Falls restaurant followed with dancing.

The funds for the dinner were gathered from a white elephant sale at each meeting.

All nine members and their husbands were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gasser, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Green and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeves, all of Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Haskins, Tulelake, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Freitag, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Unruh and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ottoman, all of Malin.

The night out is an annual party along with a summer barbecue and a Christmas party planned each year to include the husbands.

'TIS NO BLARNEY about the plans for the annual St. Patrick's Day dance for Elks and their ladies Saturday, March 18, at the lodge. Advance notice promises surprises from frolicking leprechauns and dancing to Baldy's Band from 10 until 2 o'clock. Making final plans this week are committee members seated, left to right, Mrs. Jack O'Connor, Mrs. Jack Pearson, Jack O'Connor, Mrs. Cliff McGinty and Jack Pearson, chairman. Standing is Cliff McGinty. Also on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith.

State Officer Slates Visit

Barbara Jaques of Nyssa, state madam president of Eagles auxiliaries of Oregon, will make her official visit to the Klamath Falls lodge on Friday, March 17. She will be the guest of Betty Kets-dever, 1028 Jefferson Street, during her stay.

A potluck dinner will be served at 6 p.m. to members, their husbands and candidates.

Officers are asked to be present and to wear formals.

At 8 p.m., following dinner, a class of 13 candidates will be initiated at the Eagles Hall.

Lions Aux Gives Benefit

Members of Klamath Falls Lions Auxiliary were hostesses at a benefit card party Feb. 22 at the home of Mrs. James Olson, 2045 Portland Street. She was assisted by Mrs. Everitt Miner, Mrs. Maury Clark and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger. Mrs. Loy Barker was chairman of the party.

Dessert was served before cards were played at 11 tables.

Proceeds from this affair will be used for the club's special project, that of assisting a blind woman, resident of this city, with treatment and care.

Bethel 51

The story of Job was related to eight girls on March 6 at the regular meeting of Henley Bethel No. 51, Job's Daughters, in the grange hall. Initiated into the Bethel were Debbie Coleman, Connie Stone, Karen Dixon, Patsy Phipps, Susan Williams, Sharon Phillips, Dawn Hale and Kathy Mitchell.

Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian, acting for Donna Nelson, grand guardian, was a special guest. She spoke briefly on the scholarship and educational loan fund and explained the founding of the Job flag and how it represents all the basic principles of the order.

Grand session will be held in Portland June 22-24 in the Neighbors of Woodcraft Building at 1410 S.W. Morrison Street.
