Grange News

FORT ROCK

Grange members at the regular session, March 11, voted to favor keeping a central post office at Fort Rock. There has been talk of requesting some plan of rural delivery during recent months. Action was taken due to the fire which wiped out postal headquarters there March 11.

Rube Long, agriculture committee chairman and member of the State Board of Agriculture, pointed out the severity of the department's budget cut urged by the Ways and Means Committee, mittee.

Services would of necessity be curtailed, he feels, and should such a cut be enacted it would seem wise to repeal certain services in order to carry out part of the program in an adequate manner. This would be in lieu of spreading out the budget to cover all phases of service less adequately.

The group decided to consider plans for a degree team to present the third and fourth degrees during May or June with Mrs. Truman Kimsey, master, in charge. This will be part of the April business. Edwin Eskelin announced that the fifth degree will be given May 27 at the Pomona Grange in Valley Falls.

MIDLAND GRANGE

Elmer McClure, Oregon State grange master; Victor Croston, state lecturer and deputy; Bonafay Yancey, state treasurer, and Mildred Largent, county deputy, were distinguished guests at the Midland Grange mortgage burning ceremony March 9.

Alex Cammock opened the meeting and officers exemplified the opening drill.

Francis Flowers gave a brief history of the grange. Mildred Largent reviewed present plans for the grange and Mayne Cammock introduced all charter and 25-year members present.

State Master McClure, guest speaker, complimented the members for the extensive work that had been done to pay off the mortgage in such a short time. The building was dedicated March 9, 1957.

The following officers took part in the mortgage burning ceremony: Elmer McClure, state master; Alex Cammock, Midland master; Opal Wareback, chaplain; Mildred Largent, county deputy; Verda Urbach and Guy Galetti, lady assistant steward and assistant steward, and all past masters.

Pauline Flowers gave a reading.

Victor Croston presented the lecturer with an achievement award for outstanding service.

Decorations for the event were provided by Dorothy Pyle, Alice Hoover and Kathryn Smith.

MIDLAND GRANGE HEC

Mrs. Jeanette Walt from Klamath Falls and Mrs. Louisa Schneyder of Long Island, N.Y., were guests at the Midland Home Economics Club March 7 potluck meeting.

Leon Andrieu showed samples of the new chairs that were purchased.

Mary Grigsby joined the organization.

Members were reminded of the sewing and crocheting contest.

Grace Stark donated a quilt top to the club.

A thank you note was read from Jossie Cross, district chairman.

The next meeting will be held April 4 at the home of Eleanor Sukraw at 1:30 p.m.

SCOTT VALLEY

Mrs. Pearl Davis and Mrs. Hazel Rehfeld were co-hostesses to the home economics club on March 2.

Mrs. Helen Lewis, Mrs. Betty Neal and Mrs. Hazel Rehfeld were appointed to make posters for the rodeo dinner to be served May 7 at the grange hall. Callie Gordon and Ann Skanderup were appointed to purchase and make new curtains for the grange hall dining room.

A picture quiz was played, with Callie Gordon winning the prize. Readings were given by Eva Costello, Beryl Sheffield, Mazie McFall, Sadie DeNure and Alpha Hayes. Hazel Rehfeld read the closing verse.

Refreshments were served to Myrtle Brown, Mrs. Pauline Malow, Beryl Sheffield, Ann Skanderup, Callie Gordon, Helen Lewis, Betty Neal, Lucy Haun, Florence Brown, Mary Hanni, Eva Costello, Sadie DeNure, Alpha Hayes, Mazie McFall and Mrs. Gertrude Parks.

4-H NEWS

BUSY MACHINES

The Busy Machines met March 6 in the school cafeteria with Fred Florence as special guest. Florence told of his experiences working as a butler and chef and showed us uniforms he had worn. He then showed the correct way to set a table, table manners and etiquette.

The meeting was adjourned. Carolyn Eagle, News Reporter.
