

Go to the CHURCH of your choice this SUNDAY

RUTH KING - Church Editor

HERALD AND NEWS, Klamath Falls, Ore.

Friday, March 17, 1961 PAGE 3-B

PROF. GEORGE WELLER, well-known organist and choir director of Portland, will bring the 35-voice mixed choir from Concordia College to Zion Lutheran Church. The choir group will present a concert of sacred music Saturday, March 25, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

ARENA FOR ALL—STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A big, new indoor arena, 274 feet long and 203 feet wide, has been constructed by the Roman Catholic diocese here at a cost of more than a million dollars. Large enough for any athletic or mass community activity and with a seating capacity of up to 8,128, it is being opened to use by all religious groups. Dedication date: March 12, 1961.

New Officers For Society

ETNA — The general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Etina Methodist Church was held March 7 at 10:30 a.m.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Warren Halliday. The devotion was given by Mrs. Stanley Moore. The nominating committee reported the following for officers for 1961-1962: president, Mrs. Warren Halliday; vice president, Mrs. David LaFavers; secretary, Mrs. Sam Potter; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Eames; secretary of promotion, Mrs. Walter Matthews; secretary of spiritual life, Mrs. Winfred Wolford; secretary of missionary and education, Mrs. Frank J. Jackson; secretary of youth and children, Mrs. John Berry; secretary of student, Mrs. Kenneth Dewey; secretary of supply, Mrs. Robert Tuttle; secretary of literature and publication, Mrs. Marion Towne; secretary of Christian social relation and status of women, Mrs. Claire M. Potter; secretary of local church activities, Mrs. Franklin Maplesden and Mrs. George Chessum.

Luncheon was served by the Mary Martha Circle to about 25 persons.

The Rev. Bill Small, Biggs, Calif., Methodist Church, gave a report on the duties of an Army chaplain. He is conducting evangelist services here. Everyone is invited to these services.

Lynn Zumwalt Guest At Immanuel Baptist School

Lynn Zumwalt, area representative for a biscuit company, will be the guest superintendent at the Immanuel Baptist Sunday School March 19.

Zumwalt is expecting 300 in Sunday School at which time a variety of interesting attractions will be presented.

A professional scuba diver will appear outfitted for deep sea diving and spear fishing. An explanation of the various equipment will be given. Appearing with the skindiver will be an outstanding TV star and personality from Southern California. A "local athlete" will surprise the entire Sunday School by standing on one hand while playing the coronet with the other hand.

In addition to these surprises, a chalk artist from Eugene will draw a Bible picture to be given to the class with the largest percentage increase.

Free gold fish will be given away to all boys and girls who bring new students next Sunday besides a free gift for everyone who attends Immanuel Baptist

LYNN ZUMWALT

THIS FAMILY, including Mr. and Mrs. Arie de Groot and 10 children, will arrive in Klamath Falls early in May from Holland. They will be sponsored by the Methodist Church of Klamath Falls. Two infants are not pictured.

Klamath Falls To Welcome New Family

A family of 12 will arrive in Klamath Falls in May from Holland, brought here by First Methodist Church, through the Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Arie de Groot and his wife Maria are parents of 10 boys and girls ranging in ages from 19 years to a recently arrived infant.

They will leave Holland in late April and will arrive in Klamath Falls in May.

The family is one of many living in Indonesia, forced to leave when the Dutch government fell, and who took refuge in Holland, land of their ancestry. De Groot was born in Gorinchen, Holland.

• Newspaper SPOT ADS are inexpensive

ST. PIUS X CHURCH on Bristol Avenue was goal for Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Segaline when Herald and News photographer was looking for pictures of those attending morning mass. The Rev. George Murphy is pastor. Assistant pastors are Father David J. Hazen and Father Thomas R. Scanlan.

Missionary Circle Meeting

LANGELL VALLEY—The Women's Missionary Circle of Lorella Full Gospel Church met at the home of Mildred Campbell on March 9.

The women made and tied three quilts and are making dresser scarves for Rev. and Mrs. Richard Johnstone, and their six children.

A letter was read from the Rev. and Mrs. Garland Benintendi, missionaries in Formosa. Their son Timmy has been adopted by the group and the letter was in appreciation for the birthday and Christmas gifts sent to him.

The next meeting will be at the home of Genevieve Smith March 23. Mrs. Campbell served refreshments to Betty Vowell, Anne Leake, Nettie Davis, Margaret Powell, Bessie Campbell, Joyce Willis, Alicia Flagor, Esther

REV. L. DOW WRIGHT

Playette Given

MERRILL—The Merrill Presbyterian Women's Association met March 8 in the church. The program included a playette, "On The Street Where You Live," based on integration.

It was announced that the Presbyterian of Southwest Oregon will meet April 4-5 at the First Presbyterian Church, Ashland.

The hostess, Mrs. Lena Buck, served refreshments to 19 members and guests.

Churches In Joint Meet

With five churches of this area participating, special services marking the second annual "Holiness Emphasis Week" will commence at the Salvation Army, Fourth and Klamath, Sunday at 7:30. Meetings will continue nightly until March 26. Weekday Bible Study sessions are slated at 1:30 p.m.

The Rev. C. O. Tremain, president of the Klamath Basin Holiness Association, invites the public to enjoy the rich Bible ministry of Dr. W. S. Deal, evangelist and educator of El Monte, Calif., and of Rev. L. Dow Wright, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at St. Helens, Ore.

Reverend Wright will be the pulpit guest at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at the First Church of the Nazarene here where he formerly served as pastor for five years before moving to St. Helens 10 months ago.

Cooperating churches of the KBHA are the Free Methodist, First Nazarene, Pilgrim Holiness and the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Adams Hosts Guild

Mrs. Dorothy Adams entertained the Wesleyan Service Guild for the March meeting at her home, 701 North Eleventh. Mrs. Ethel Stransky was co-hostess.

Christine Murray presided over the business meeting. Alpha Phelps led the devotion and Ida Edsall had the lesson on "Our Older Citizens," slanted toward preparing for retirement.

Mrs. Claudia Aubel, Kingsley Field Air Force Base, who with her husband returned recently from Japan, gave an interesting demonstration on flower arranging. Mrs. Aubel has many unusual flower containers brought from Japan. This subject was suggested as a retirement hobby.

Officers will be elected in April. Final plans were made for members planning to attend the district meeting in Cottage Grove, April 8-9. Refreshments were served to 19 members.

Society To Hold Potluck

A potluck luncheon honoring new members will be held on Thursday, March 23, by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church at noon. The program following will be led by Mrs. Lorena Ward on the subject of "Methodist Retired Workers and Retirement Homes For Them."

Mrs. Ward, who is president of the Oregon Retired Teachers' Association, will also report on pertinent topics discussed at the association's annual meeting, which she attended in Portland this month. The open discussion method will be used in the program as far as possible, and participation by the whole group will be encouraged. Mrs. Martha Gilchrist will lead the worship.

The Executive Committee will meet at 10 with president Mrs. Paul Campbell. At 11:15 the quiet hour and prayer period will be in charge of Mrs. William Withrow. Helen Reulos Circle will be hostess at the luncheon.

Real Opera is said to have had its birth in 1600, when "Euridice," composed by Peri and Giulio Caccini, was produced.

NEW! NOW... YOU CAN ENJOY DIETING!

FRESH DAILY! READY TO DRINK

VICTORY TEMPLE

(Klamath Falls Newest Church)

OFFERS YOU!

- LIFE THROUGH CHRIST
- GROWTH IN BIBLE TRUTH
- FELLOWSHIP WITH MEANING
- INSPIRING WORSHIP
- A GROWING CHURCH

VICTORY TEMPLE -- REJECTS THE NOVEL AND RIDICULOUS, MAN-MADE ASSUMPTIONS OF THE LAST 100 YEARS, WHICH HAVE BASIS NEITHER IN HISTORY, REASON, NOR SCRIPTURE.

VICTORY TEMPLE IS ORTHODOX FUNDAMENTAL PENTECOSTAL.

HEAR THE TRUTH!

VICTORY TEMPLE

1909 HOMEDALE ROAD

Between Shasta Way and South 6th

WELCOME SILAS H. JONES PASTOR

REV. L. J. HALL

Baptists To Hear Soloist

The Rev. L. J. "Ron" Hall, well known local tenor soloist, will present a concert of sacred music Sunday evening, March 19, at Immanuel Baptist Church starting at 7 o'clock.

He will sing favorites selected from a poll taken during the morning worship service.

The pastor is best known for his work with the Klamath Union High School music department in presentation of the Messiah during the Christmas season. At this presentation he has sung the tenor arias and has assisted the chorus choir. He will also sing at the Pelicana performance this spring.

The public is invited to the concert. No admission will be charged.

Church Sets Services

There will be three services in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church on Easter Sunday, April 2, at 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Church School will be at the regular time, 9:30 a.m. and at 11 o'clock.

Maidly Thursday Communion will be observed at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 30.

During Holy Week, March 27 through March 31, interdenominational services will be held daily at 12 noon at the First Presbyterian Church.

Young people from the church will attend the Southwest Oregon Youth Presbytery at Medford March 24, 25, and 26.

Have You Heard?
Daily Hearing Aid
Service Only At STANDARD OPTICAL

Ladies Aid Meets

Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet at 8 p.m. March 21. Mrs. J. R. Thomas will be soloist. The program on missions will be directed by Mrs. E. Kiger and Mrs. Vicki Mattox.

HYMN OF TRANQUILITY

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—"O, Lord of Life, Thy Calm We Seek" is the name of the winning hymn in the Southern Baptist hymn-writing contest of 1960. Selected from among 800 entries, it was written by Miss Mary Ella Hall, of Raleigh, N.C.

Friendly Helpfulness To Every Creed and Pursue
Ward's Klamath Funeral Home
Marguerite M. Ward and Sons
925 High TU 2-4404

WELCOME WAGON
TU 2-0736

20 Varieties of Pizza

... Baked Right Before Your Eyes!

SHAKY'S PIZZA PARLOR

And Ye Public House

Open At Noon... Everyday!

2725 South 6th Phone TU 2-6222
Right Next to the Tower Theatre

Pizza To Go ... or Stay!

SPECIAL "TEEN" ROOM

TWO FRIENDLY FIREPLACES

PLENTY FREE PARKING

Herald and News

Copies of the Herald and News are handily available at all these dealers

OREGON

BEATTY
Cookie's Cafe
Crawford's Store

BEAVER MARSH
Beaver Marsh Cafe

BLV
J. O'Neil

BONANZA
Bonanza Drug
D. J. Bliss

CHEMULT
G. C. Palmer

CHILOQUIN
Fairway's Market
Little Market
Pine Cone Cafe
Mecca Pool Hall
Ron's Drug

FORT KLAMATH
Roeder's Market
Loosley's Store

HENLEY
Henley Store

KENO
Frank's Rodonna Store
Keno Store

LAKEVIEW

Oregon Food Store

LORELLA
Lorella Store

MALIN
Dee's Cafe
Inn Cafe
Malin Drugs

MERRILL
Grigg's Grocery
Merrill Drugs

SPRAGUE RIVER
Rodger's Store

WORDEN
Worden Store

CALIFORNIA

ALTURAS
V. E. Perdue
Niles Hotel
Warner Hotel

CANBY
Seright's

DORRIS
Dorris Drugs
40 Club
Kerwin Grocery
Starr Inn

FORT JONES

Willard Grocery

HATFIELD
Hatfield Grocery

LIKELY
Flournoy's General Merchandise

MACDOEL
Macdoel Grocery

NEWELL
Homestead Market

STRONGHOLD
Stronghold Store

TULELAKE
Coner Store
Lidell Pharmacy
Smokeshop
Sportsman Hotel
West Side Grocery

WEED
The Oasis

YREKA
S&H Market
Yreka Inn
Con Brown
Rod & Gun Club
Highway Grocery