

Orions Club

The regular monthly meeting of Orions Club was held on Tuesday evening, March 7, at the home of Mrs. Richard Teater. After the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Neil McEachern, devotions were given by Mrs. Myron Murray. The members answered to roll call by telling how they named their first baby.

The annual white elephant sale was held with Mrs. Fred Biehn acting as auctioneer. Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Richard Teater and Mrs. James Sweatt, with decorations carried out in the St. Patrick's Day theme.

Special prize of the evening was won by Mrs. Fred Biehn. Members present included Mrs.

John W. Weber, Mrs. Ray Aschenbach, Mrs. J. L. Van Pelt, Mrs. Robert L. Pryor, Mrs. Myron Murray, Mrs. Neil McEachern, Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Jack Paddock, Mrs. Al Nanneman, Mrs. Joe Wachter, Mrs. Carl Perigotti, Mrs. Richard Teater, Mrs. Charles York, Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. James Sweatt and Mrs. Preston Card.

The ham dinner for members and their families will be held at the YMCA on April 4.

PERENNIAL COAT DRESS

Fashions come and go but the coat dress goes on forever. This spring, it's done in a linen-like silk. It's done in vivid colors, too.

LOOK NICE IN BED

College News

Josephine Krok, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krok, and two other students from College of the Holy Names, Oakland, sang at the annual St. Patrick's Day dance in Oakland March 18. The affair at the Hotel Leamington, was sponsored by the United Irish Society of the East Bay.

Two hundred and seventy eight Pomona College freshmen participated in the annual matriculation ceremonies during Freshman Class Day on the campus March 11. Among them was Paulann Whitman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Whitman, who is an English major. Signing the college's historic matriculation book signifies completion of a semester in which students' academic and citizenship records have been satisfactory.

Patricia Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Irene Wilson, has been elected a candidate for the student nurse of the year award from Providence Hospital School of Nursing in Portland. She is president of her class and will be graduated in August after which she plans to enroll at the University of Washington to study sociology.

Jeanette L. Cuendet has been named to a committee planning events for Junior Weekend scheduled to take place on the campus of the University of Oregon May 8-13.

Judith Brauner of this city was one of 64 students who toured with the Lewis and Clark choir in California on a 10-concert series in churches and high schools as far south as San Diego.

Robert Allen Andersen has been elected to the House Council of Gregory Hall at Mt. Angel College. He is also a member of the college basketball team.

BPW Slates Dinner Speaker

MOUNT SHASTA—Don Ratley will speak to members of the Mount Shasta Business and Professional Women at a dinner meeting Monday, March 20, at 8:30 p.m. He will show slides and talk on the beautification of many areas in the city, a project of great interest to residents of the city.

The public is invited to this meeting. Reservations must be made in advance at the Ski Bowl Coffee Shop in Mount Shasta.

Mrs. Myrtle Rodefer, BPW president, announced a donation to the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the purchase of an invalid's chair. Chairmen for the project were Stella Hurlburt and Olive Wheeler. Appointed to serve on the nominating committee are Mrs. Erna Bean, Mrs. Helen Howarth and Annabell Thompson.

Second Party Given In Series

FORT KLAMATH—The second of a series of three monthly pinocle parties sponsored by Fort Klamath Mothers Club was an event of Saturday evening, Feb. 18, in the C. I. Clubhouse.

At the close of cards, prizes for high and second high scores were awarded to Jack Symington and Bill Brewer, respectively, with David Van Wormer winning the prize for junior high score. Ed Scott won the guest prize.

Refreshments were served by a committee of six members of the club who were also in charge of cards, tables and other details of the party. They included Mrs. Joseph Wagner, Mrs. Weston H. Engle, Mrs. Claude Shepherd, Mrs. Clarence Welch, Mrs. Don Wimer and Mrs. Clarence Jenkins.

Local elementary school teachers, Mrs. Frank Strahan and Mrs. Hollis Kizer, with Mrs. Gene A.

FOR A CLEAN HANDBAG

One way to have a pastel brocade handbag and keep it clean, too, is to buy one covered with clear vinyl. One style comes with pleated front and back.
